T is hard, that by your late Act of Parliament, I must either lose my Estate, or change my Religion.

Gentleman. I think your Lordship ought not to lose your Estate, till you have first considered how far your Conscience will allow you to Conform to what is required of you?

G. Pray, My Lord, what is there in the Communion of the Church of England should make you think your Soul in any Danger? Would ther be any Hazard of your Soul, if ther were no Invocation of Saints, that are Dead, in the Publick Offices of the Church: No Pictures, or Images of God, to be feen there: No Elevation of the Host, which was but of late Years brought into the Church: No Prayers for Souls out of Purgatory: If the Publick Prayers were in the vulgar Tongue: And if the Sacrament were given in both Kinds? For these are all the Differences you will find betwist your Publick Offices and ours.

L. But I must keep in the Communion of the Church, else I think I cannot fave my Soul.

G. Your Lordship means in the Communion of the Church of Rome.

[1] L. Yes, for the is the Mother Church, and Center of Unity to all other Churches, infomuch, that who are not of her Communion, are out of the Pale of the Catholick Church.

Gentile Nations, and therefore was the Mother Church to them all. and boombong on no week

And Rome was not the first Gentile Church : for the Disciples were called Christians first in Antioch, Acts xi. 26. And the Greek Church was before the Latin; the New Testament was wrote in Greek for their Ufe, therefore the Greek Church could not be the Daughter of the Latin Church, which was born after her.

(2.) L. But St. Peter having been Bishop of Rome, and Christ having Constituted him to be the Head of the Catholick Church throughout the whole World, the same must descend to his Succeffors the Bishops of Rome.

G. This will not make her the Mother Church. You may call her Supreme, Absolute, Universal, or what you please, any thing but the Mother Church, to which it is impossible she should have any Title. I ballang of

In the Conversion of the Gentiles to Christianity one Man and one Nation, must receive the Faith before another, they were not all Converted on a Day. And as when one Man Converts another, fo it is of Churches and Nations, it gives the one no Superiority over the other, except that of Gratitude and Esteem, but nothing of Authority, we also M beautiful said

But whatever the Priviledge of the Mother Church may be, if it can be Translated from the Mother to the Daughter, from one Church to another, from Jerusalem to Antioch, and thence to Rome, as you must be obliged to say; then it may be Translated from Rome also to some other other Church, unless some positive Command of Christ can be produced, first to fix it at Rome, and then a Promile, that it shall never thence be removed. But the Church of Rome is not once named in all the New Testament, unless she is meant by the Church at Babylon, I Pet. v. 12. Nor is ther any Promise whatsoever made to her, or any the least Intimation of her being the Head of the Churches, the Standard and Center of Unity to them all. Strange! if that be the Summa vei Christiana, as Bellarmin calls it, (in the Preface to his Book de Romano Pontifice) the Summ and Foundation of the Christian Religion.

And as filent are the Scriptures concerning the supposed Universal Supremacy of St. Peter, or that he ever was at Rome, or Bishop of Rome. Some after Writers have mentioped it; but that is far from such an Universal Tradition as is sufficient for the mighty Superstructure which is raised upon it. But let it be granted it fignifies nothing, because all is founded upon some Words said to St. Peter, such as Thou art Peter - Feed my Sheep -- &c. Which cannot be strained to such an Universal Supremacy as the Popes have claimed. nor were to understood in the Primitive Church. For which I refer your Lordship to a Book, I know you value, and favoured me with the Perusal of it, the learned Monsieur du Pin, his Traite de la Puissance Ecclehastique et Temporelle. Printed at Paris, 1707. where p. 495. to p. 501. and p. 754. to p. 765. you will find all these Texts urged for the Supremacy of St. Peter, answered in the same manner as is done by the Protestant Writers, to Transitted hom kome allo to lome

and it is shewed how very Foreign they are from the Purpose intended.

And that the Rock upon which Matth. xvi. 18.

Christ said, He, would build His Church was not Peter, but the Faith which Peter then Confessed, your Lordship may see the current Sense of the Fathers, and consult at your Leisure St. Augustine, de Verb. Dom. Ser. 13 Nazianzen de Vet. Testam. St. Cyril, de Trin. lib. 4. St. Chrysostom, Hom. 55. in Matth. St. Ambrose, Com. in Ephel. 2. Hilary, de Trin. lib. 2. cap. 6.

And there are many others.

But nothing that was faid of St. Peter, is fo express for an Universal Supremacy as what St. Paul said of himself, 2 Cor. xi. 28. That the Care of all the Churches lay upon him. And again, 1 Cor. vii. 17. So Ordain I in all Churches. If fuch a Decretal could be produced of St. Peter's, I doubt not it would have been made use of towards proving his Universal Supremacy. In the Acts of the Apostles it is told that St. Paul was at Rome Preaching the Gospel for two whole Years together. Acts xxviii. 30, 31. But not a Word of St. Peter's being there and as St. Paul planted the Gospel at Rome, so he wrote to the Church there as his particular Charge, for lays he, Rom. xi. 13. I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine Office. But St. Peter was the Apostle of the ferms, they were his particular Charge, and he himself allowed that the Gospel of the Uncircumcifion was committed to Paul, as the Gospel of the Circumcision was to himself, Gal. ii. 7, 8, 9. And accordingly he directed his Epistle to the Fews Jews of the Dispersion, who were Strangers [cattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia. But he wrote not to the Gentiles, particularly not to Rome, which would feem strange if he had been Bishop of Rome, and that had been his Chief and Principal Charge. And St. Paul's bold with standing him to the Face before the whole Church of Antioch, in behalf of the Gentiles, whom he had misled, fearing them who were of the Circumcision, shews the Care St. Paul took of thole who were more particularly his Charge; and feems a Behaviour not very fuitable to the Supreme Head of the Church both Jews and Gentiles, if St. Paul had known any thing of St. Peter's being fo Constituted by Christ.

And as little had it become the other Apostles to fend their Soveraign upon Business, as they fent Peter to Samaria, Acts viii. 14.

But if, as some say, St. Peter was Bishop of the Jewish Converts at Rome, and St. Paul of the Gentiles there, St, Paul would have had a much greater Flock than St. Peter, and the Succeffors of St. Paul, and not of St. Peter, must have been Bishops there, because the Church of Rome is now, and has long been all of the Gentiles. Court in an atthe

But the furest way to find out the Truth is by Fact, and not straining Expressions, which may have leveral Meanings. The Eastern Monarchs have used to give themselves Mighty Titles, as Son of the Sun, and Brother of the Stars, and King of all the Kings of the Earth, &c. But will d his routed o

Monarch for all this, contrary to plain Fact?

Pray, my Lord, let me ask you, do you think, one could write the History of a King, suppose of King Charles the 2d, and in all the History neither call him King, mention his Restoration, Coronation, or tell of one Regal Act ever he did, as calling a Parliament, or Presiding in it, Sending or Receiving an Ambassador, or granting a Commission, &c. And so of a Pope, could his History be wrote without calling him Pope, or telling of one Papal Act of his?

L. No, it is impossible; For such an History could not be called the History of a King or of a Pope. A substitute of the A

G. Now, My Lord, let me apply this. We have the History of the Acts of the Apostles, in which St Peter has a great share, though not so much as St. Paul, and there is a Council mentioned, wherein both of them were present, and there is not a Tittle of any Superiority of St. Peter over St. Paul, or any other of the Apostles, either in that Council, or any where else throughout that whole History, which, as your Lordship has Determined, is Impossible, if St. Peter had that Supremacy which the Popes have Claimed as his Successors.

This is so Demonstrative a Proof, that the Writers on your side think it necessary for them to endeavour some Solution to it. But the Weakness of their Answer is a yet greater Confirmation on our Side. For they can find no other way to get some Superiority to St. Peter in this Council than to suppose, that he opened it, because, as they say, he spoke first, which would not infer the Supremacy they intend, if it were true; but it is plainly otherwise; for it is said Acts xv. 7. And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said- Nor did he fpeak last, for after he had done Paul and Barnabas declared the Conversion of the Gentiles. by their means, without putting them under the Law, which was the Point in Debate and after they had held their Peace, St James, who was Bishop of Ferusalem, where the Council was held, did as President, Resume what had been faid by St. Peter, and others, and gave his definitive Sentence upon the whole, Wherefore my Sentence is - And the Decree of the Council was drawn up in the Words of St. James. So that it is plain, he closed the Council, whoever opened it, or spoke first, which is not so material as to be told in this Account of that Council. But difmiffing the Council, and puting an End to it, feems of greater Authority, if what is faid of St. Fames here, had been faid of St. Peter, I question not, it would have been made use of as a full Proof of his Supremacy, and Prefiding in that Council.

L. I must consels the History of the New Testament is very barren, as to Facts relating to the Authority of St. Peter, over the other Apostles. We must depend upon the Texts before mentioned of Feed my Sheep, &c.

G. None of these Texts are so express as what I quoted of St. Paul. But if they were meant in that Extent for which you produced them, it is impossible but that must appear in the Facts of St. Peter, especially in the Part he bore in that Council

Council at Jerusalem. And Fatts are the surest Explanation of Words. In 195th Halbas Manod T.

We Discourse now only of Authority, what Authority one Apostle had over another, for that is the Point wherein we are concerned. We fpeak not of their Gifts and Graces, and their Labours in propagating the Gospes, wherein one might be more Eminent and Successful; than another, but this gave him no Authority over the others. And in this also St. Paul had the Preference, for He laboured more abundantly than they all, I Cor. xv. 10. and all the Epifles almost are his, to the several Churches. And his Miracles and Conversions of Infidels, take up a much greater part in the Adts of the Apostles than thole of St. Petersman still of ...

I have faid for much of this Matter, because the supposed Supremacy of St. Peter, his being at Rome, and Bishop of Rome, is the whole Foundation of that Supremacy claimed by the Bishop or

Church of Romest monthly and are married and

And if that be fo Essential a Point, and upon which the Unity of the Church depends, infomuch that without it there is no Church at all, accord ing to the Scheme drawn by Modern Rome; it is inconceivable the Scriptures should be so wholly filent in it, nay, shewing the very contrary in Fact, as I have faid already concerning St. Peter. And when the direct question was put to our Bleffed Saviour, upon the Contest among the Apostles which of them should be the Greatest, Luke xxii. 24. I say if this was so Material a Point as to the very Being of the Church, it is Inconceivable He should not have Determined it, but by His Answer rather checkt the Error of their Thought, and left them all upon the Level.

(3.) L. I would gladly know your Notion of the Unity of the Church, if all Bishops, as yoursay of the Apostles, were upon the Level, without any Head Bishop, or Principle of Unity among them; for we are told, that Christ has but one

Church upon Earth and aven aid and and and and and

G. Your Lordship may add, and in Heaven too; for all are one Church to Christ, of which He alone is the Head. And one Part being Militant, the other Triumphant, makes them not two Churches, but two States of the same Church's which is called One Family in Heaven and Earth. Eph. iii. 15. In like Manner, Heaven, Earth, and Hell are one Kingdom to the Great Creator; for His Kingdom ruleth over all. And of the Earth it is said, The Kingdom is the Lord's, and He is the Governour among the Nations, Pfalm xxii, 28. All the Nations are one Kingdom to Him. But he has appointed no Universal Monarch as His Deputy of his Kingdom of the Earth, but each Nation is Governed by their respective Rulers, independent of each other. For fo His Wildom has Dispoled. according to the Capacity of his Creatures, for what Man would be sufficient to Govern the whole World? And where must the Seat be of this Universal Monarch? Must he not have as many, or more Deputies under him as there are now Kings or Nations? And what Prudence could prevent Defections and Rebellions in far distant Provinces? This has overthrown great Monarchies, which have fallen with their own Weight.

What then could support an Universal Monarchy? When Nations go to War, other Neighbour Kings and States may interpose, assist the Oppressed, be Mediators and Guarantees of Peace. But this could not be in Case of Desection from the Universal Monarch; for who assist Rebels are Rebels themselves. And such Wars could not but end in the utter Destruction of the one Side or the other. Therefore God has consulted best for the Peace and Sasety of Mankind, in distributing the World into several independent Governments, rather than to put all under the Dominion of One.

L. But when Nations are at War, where is the Unity of this one Kingdom of God upon Earth?

G. It is disturbed, where those Wars are. But it is not yet totally dissolved: For there are Laws of War, wherein all agree. There is still what we call the Law of Nations, which as it maintains Commerce in Peace, so it regulates the Fury of War. And there is one Unity, which nothing can dissolve, that is, God having made of one Blood all Nations upon the Earth. So that here is an Unity of Relation, of Humanity, and of common Principles, which all retain.

L. But how is this Unity kept?

G. Not as it should be. But so as is Consistent with our fallen State, and the Corruptions of Mankind. It is not such an Unity as is in God's Kingdom of Heaven; which yet was once disturbed by Rebellion.

L. But there ought to be a stricter Unity in the Church than in the Temporal World.

G. I wish it were so; but alas! it is not. And the Frailty of Man shews it self in the Church as well as in the State. The many Herefies and Divisions in the Church have rent her to pieces and broke her Unity, as much as Wars have that of the Temporal World.

L. That is for not adhering to the Head and Universal Monarch of the Church.

G. No, my Lord, it is that Pretence in the Church of Rome has been the great Cause of these Divisions. It has procured Peace in the Church, just as setting up an Universal Monarchy would in the World, that is, fill it with more Confusion and Bloodshed, than ever was in it, or could otherwife possibly be. For which Reason, God has appointed no Universal Monarch in the Church more than in the State. For as Gregory the Great faid to John Bishop of Constantinople (who, upon the Seat of the Empire being translated thither, let up for an Universal Supremacy in the Church) If the Church should come to Depend upon One, it must suddenly fall. And St. Cyprian said, That therefore Christ made the College of Bishops numerous, that if one should fall or turn Heretical, the rest might interpose for the saving of the Flock: For he fays, there is but one Flock, and one Epilcopate, of which every Bishop has the whole in Partnership with the rest. Episcopatus Unus est, cujus à Singulis in Solidum pars tenetur. This was the Frame of the Church in his Days, and before from the Apostles; this was the very State of the Apostles themselves, who thus shared of the Apofolate, the whole of which was given to each, in Partnership, or in Common with the rest.

L. This then is your Notion of the Church, that as all Nations upon the Earth are One Kingdom to God, so all Christian Churches are One Church to Christ, without any Universal Monarch in either Case. And that as the Unity of the World consists in what we call the Law of Nations, which is common to all; so the Unity of the Church consists in the common Christianity wherein all agree.

If so, then every one, who Believeth in Christ, is a Christian.

G. Yes surely, as every one, that Believeth in Mahomet, is a Mahometan.

L. Then there is no need to be of any Church;

if you Believe in Christ, that is enough.

G. No, we must obey His Commandments too. which oblige us to live Peaceably and Quietly as Members of that Body or Church, whereto we appertain, with Christian Love and Fellowship with all others, and not to make Schisms and Divisions by breaking Communion, where nothing Sinful is required as a Condition of it. And when fuch disorderly Persons are cast out of the Church, or cut themselves off by a causeless Separation, tho' they are no longer of the Church, yet they ceafe not to be Christians; (that is a Nostrum of the Church of Rome) and they must Answer for their Schism, as for other Sins, all of which are Damnable in their own Nature, without Repentance: And yet Allowances are made for invincible Ignorance occasioned by the Prejudices of Education, &c. but not for Obstinacy. No Society of Men would bear such perverse Members among them.

Now a Church is a Society professing such a Religion, be it True or False. Thus there is a Church of the Jews, of Heathens, of Christians, and Mahometans. And I would ask your Lordship, which is any of these Churches? for Instance, which is the Church of the Mahometans?

L. It is the Turks, Moors, Persians, the Great

Mogul, &c.

G. Yet there is no Chief Priest over all these, but every Church, as Nation, is Independent of each other. And thus among the feveral Nations and Churches of the Heathens. The Feros were but one Nation, and a small one, therefore they had as one King, so one High Priest. There was fomething like this in that Part of the Christian Church, which was within the Roman Empire. But to extend the Supremacy of the Bishop of Rome beyond the Limits of the Emperor of Rome, even to all the Christian Churches in the World, is a Fancy never came into the Heads of any other Mortals, and is not necessary to Denominate many Churches professing the same Religion to be one Church; as of the Heathers and Mahometans, all of which are called the Heathenor the Mahometan Church or Churches, without any common Head over them all. And there is not one Word in Scripture appointing fuch an Universal Head in the Christian Church, or altering this common Sentiment of Mankind, as to the Meaning of the Word Church; or taking it in any other Sense than commonly understood by all the World. And thus in our way of speaking, when we say the Fathers of the Church, or the Primitive Church, we mean not any particular Church, but the whole Body or Church of Christians, though divided into many Nations or Churches.

L. But all in Subordination to the Church of Rome.

G. What? Before there was a Church of Rome! For there were Christian Churches before, as I have told you. And after there was a Church at Rome, the Bishops and Fathers of those Times knew nothing of its Supremacy, far less of its Infallibility, nor ever Appealed to it in their Difputes with Hereticks; which had been the shortest and the surest way, and impossible to have been forgot, had it been known, and received as the current Faith, or but Opinion of the Church. But on the contrary, other Churches have contended with that of Rome, and Afferted their own Liberties and Independency upon her, when her Encroachments began to arise and disturb the Peace and Unity of the Church, which I shall shew you presently. But this only to let you see, That the Unity of the Church was then understood, not as being United under any one Supreme Bishop or Church; but in the Concord and good Agreement of the several Churches among themselves, and in the Unity of the common Faith. Which Unity is described by their all having Que Eph. iv. 3, 4, 5.

Lord, One Faith, One Baptism, and

One Spirit, from which they are called one Body. The Unity of the Spirit is their Unity with God, and the Bond of Peace is the Unity of the Churches with each other, as Members of the same Body. And this is a much stricter and clofer Union than that of the Secular World. All Churches agree in that Summary of our Faith, called the Apostles Creed. And the Church of Rome 10000

Rome her self must think this sufficient for Salvation, because she requires no other Profession of Faith in Baptism, or for being admitted into the Church. But the Twelve new Articles of Faith, which the Council of Trent has added to the Twelve of the Apostles, which we call Pope Pius his Creed, and is required to be Professed by Converts, has made many Contests and Divisions in the Church; and I have not yet met with any Roman Catholick so hardy as to say, that the Belief of all these is necessary to Salvation, only that we should not deny or oppose them, such as Purgatory, the Invocation of Saints, &c.

(4.) L. The Church pretends not to make new Articles of Faith, but only to explain the old ones. And such are what you call the new Articles of Trent.

G. What Article in the Apostles Creed does Transubstantiation explain? For there is nothing at all of the Sacraments in that Creed.

L. Are not the Sacraments then Part of our Faith?

G. They are the Signs and Seals of our Faith, as Circumcifion was called, Rom iv. 11. but not the Faith it self, and therefore are not put into that Summary of our Faith.

L. But are they not necessary to Salvation?

G. They are generally Necessary, as our Catechism words it, that is, to be reverently used when they may be had: But they are not absolately Necessary, so that if our Circumstances, or Places where we live are such, as not to afford us the Opportunity of Receiving the Sacraments, I think none will say this. They are Means of God's Appointment, therefore to be used, when we can have them; we are tyed to this, but God is not tyed to those Means, to which He ties us. He can save without them.

L. But we have seven Sacraments, and you have but two.

G. That is, we take the Word Sacrament in a stricter Sense than you do. And of the five which you have more than we, you cannot say, that they are so much as generally Necessary to Salvation, because none can partake of them all; for your Sacrament of Orders excludes all the Lairy, and that of Marriage the Clergy.

(5.) L. It is a fad thing, that the Church should be Divided about these Matters. But we are all one, you are miserably divided. How many Sects or Churches are there among you?

G. Not so many as with you.

L. How can that be? We have but one

Church, which we own as fuch.

G. It a Church is answerable for all that break off from her, then you have all these Sects to reckon for, and us too, which is one more.

L. A Church is not answerable for those who Break off from her, because they are no longer of her.

G. Then we are not answerable for those Sects, which Break off from our Church.

L. But we are all one among our felves.

G. So is every Church or Sect, that is, those who agree among themselves, do agree! So that B 4 this this is no more a Mark of Unity, than every Division of Men can plead, and every Sect.

[6.] L. But we are the great Body of Christians, from which all broke off.

G. No, my Lord, not the Half, nor ever were. The Greek Church is an Elder Church than yours, so that you rather broke off from her, by setting up your Universal Supremacy; which she never owned, nor the many other numerous Churches in Asia; nor the Great and once Famous Churches in Africa; nor the Empire of Russia, of vast Extent in Europe, once a Part of the Greek Church. These never owned the Supremacy of Rome, and by far out-number all that ever did own it, or were of her Communion as fuch. And confidering how many Kingdoms, and Nations, have broke off from her fince the Reformation, her Communion is now reduced to a very small Part of the Christian Church, in Comparison of those, who differ from her.

L. But those other Churches do not all communicate with each other.

G. Nor Rome with any of them. So that the stands by her self, as other Churches do. And the most irreconcilable of any, because by her Principles the cannot communicate with any, who will not own her Supremacy. Which as it never was done by the greatest Part of the Catholick Church, fo there is little Appearance, that ever it will be; for it is observable, that no Nation which brake off from Rome, did ever return to her again. It is a hard Matter for one, that has escaped out of a Snare, to be inviegled thither again. So that it is very visible, Rome has been upon the losing Hand about this 200 Years Past. And that not only as to those, who have quite forsaken her, but as to the Change of Principles and Lowering her Supremacy and Infallibility amongst those, who still remain in her Communion, which I shall shew your Lordship presently, and that old and new Popery, are very different Things; and that Rome it self has in some Measure been reformed by our Reformation.

I know nothing should hinder me from communicating with the Greek Church, if I were there, while nothing finful were required of me as a Condition of Communion, nor new (reeds to be imposed on me: And so of the Churches of St. Thomas, the Jacobites, and others in the East of Asia; of whom we have very imperfect and uncertain Accounts: And so of the Abyssines, the Cophtites, and other Churches in Africa; the great Church of Russia in Europe, &c. But Rome, while she pretends to Universal Supremacy, can communicate with none but her felf. So that our Communion is much more extended, or extendible than that of Rome. And this Universal Supremacy is, that, which, most of any one Thing in the World, hinders the Union and Communion of Christian Churches.

(7.) L. But though one Church may be Supreme, yet the best Part of the Roman Catholicks place not the Infallibility there, but in a General, or Occumenical Council, where all Churches meet.

G. There was never such a Council. The Roman Empire had the Vanity to call it self the Oikumene, kumene, which we translate, All the World. Luke ii. 1. Hence the Councils called within that Empire, stiled themselves Oecumenical, but no more truly so, than the Roman Empire was All the World. But the Latin Church was not so much as the Oikumene of the Empire, for Greece, and other Parts of the Greek Church in Asia, were in it, especially after the Seat of the Empire was translated to Constantinople; when they contended with Rome for the Supremacy. And the Latin Church was not then called by the Name of the Church of Rome, as the learned du Pin says in his Traité de la Puissance Ecclesiastique, &c. p. 551. It is true, (lays he,) that at present the Name of the Church of Rome is given to the Catholick Church, and that these two Terms pass for Synonimous. But in Antiquity no more was intended by the Name of the Church of Rome, than the Church of the City of Rome, and the Popes in their Subscriptions or Superscriptions, took simply the Quality of Bishops of Rome. The Greek Schismaticks seem to be the first, who gave the Name of the Church of Rome, to all the Churches of the West; whence the Latins made use of this to distinguish the Churches, which communicated with the Church of Rome, from the Greeks, who were separated from her Communion. From this came the Custom to give the Name of the Church of Rome to the Catholick Church: But the other Churches did not for this lofe their Name, or their Authority, &c. Then he goes on to vindicate the Rights of every National Church, independent of the Church of Rome, and past her Power to controll or alter. And the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris, Paris, p. 45, 46. Appendix tells the Pope, that his Bishoprick extends only to the Diocese of Rome, and his Patriarchate to those Provinces called Suburbicarian. And that by taking upon him to excommunicate others unjustly, and where his Power did not reach, he had excommunicated himself. And then he was so far from being Head, that he was not so much as a Member of the Church. And they mind him, as likewise Du Pin in the Treatise before mentioned p. 263, of the stout Resistance made by the Bishops of France to the Pope, who threatned to excommunicate all of them, that would not submit to his Decifion; but they resolutely answered, That they would not fubmit to his Will, and that if he came there to excommunicate them, he should go back excommunicated himself. Si Excommunicaturus veniret, Excommunicatus abiret. Now what is that Head can be excommunicated by its Members? What is that Supremacy, can be limited and controlled by its Subjects, and of which they are the Judges, and can fay to it, as God to the Sea, Hitherto Shalt thou come, and no farther; here shall thy Proud Waves be stayed?

[8.] L. The Church of France place the abfolice Supremacy and the Infallibility, not in the Pope, or Church of Rome, but in a General Council.

G. Which, as I told you, never was, and it is next to Impossible, ever should be.

And this gives up your whole Foundation; for the Popes, and not Councils, pretend to be the Successors of St. Peter, and Heirs of all the Promises made to him. In

In the next Place, you are not agreed among your selves concerning General Coumcils. Bellarmin (de Concil. l. 1. c. 6.) gives a List of General Councils, which are to be rejected, Concilia Generalia reprobata, some for not being approved by the Pope, some for Heresy, and some, (he might have faid all ) as not being received by the Universal Church; but he meant only the Church of Rome. And Chap. 7. is of General Councils, partly confirmed, and partly reprobated. And Chap. 8. is of a General Jouncil, neither manifestly approved, nor manifestly rejected. This is going through all the Degrees of Uncertainty. And c. 5. and de Rom. Pont. l. 4. c. 11. he fays; That leveral Things in those Jouncils allowed to be General, were foisted in by Hereticks, he knows not How. This was to get rid of some Objections against these Councils, he could not answer otherwise. And (de Eccles. Milit. c. 16.) he quotes the last Council of Lateran, condemning the Council of Basil, which he says was at first a true OEcumenical Council, and Infallible, but afterwards turned to a Schismatical Conventicle, and was of no Authority at all. The Church of France receive the Councils of Basil and Constance, wholly and throughout: But the Church of Rome reject both in Part. So that they, who Place the Infallibility in Councils, will need another Infallible Judge to determine these Disputes concerning the Councils; which are truly General, and which not; and which are partly so, and which throughout; and what Parts of those that are throughout have been corrupted by Hereticks; if that can be called true throughout, which is corrupted in any Part. And when one Council condemns another, which shall we believe? And if we must not believe every Council, that calls it self Oecumenical, we can believe no other Council against it, for the same Reason. The Second Council of Ephefus is generally condemned in your Church; yet it called it self Oecumenical, and was as much lo, as any of the others. And what a thing is it, to fay, that a Council is partly right and partly wrong? And who is judge of that? Is there any Certainty in this, far less Infallibility? And we must have an infallible Method too to preserve the Acts of these Councils, that they be not Adulterated, as Bellarmin says they have been; and they continue fo to this Day in the Volumes of their Councils. Why then are they not amended, and these Supposititious and Adulterated Parts (these are Bellarmin's own Words) struck out? But the several Editions of their Councils are in the Hands of other Churches; and therefore they can make no Alteration in them without being detected.

So that the Scheme of the Infallibility you place in your Councils stands thus; the Church of Rome makes herself the Universal or Catholick Church, insomuch that all who are not of her Communion (which are by far the greatest Part of the Christian Churches in the World) are out of the Pale of the Catholick Church: And Schifmaticks and Hereticks are no Parts of a Catholick Council: Thus a small Part of the Latin Church, (exclusive of the Greek and all other Churches) are the whole Catholick Church, and these little Party Councils, under the Direction of the Pope, are Universal and Infallible! But as is shewn, the Church of Rome has no Right to the Title of the Latin Church it self, far less of the Universal. And she has now but a small Part of the Latin Church lest her. The Reformed, with Russia, and the Greek Church, will out-number her in Europe, and she has no National Church in her Communion any-where else.

L. But there are some of her Communion in most Countries.

G. Not so many as of the Fews, who by this are more Universal than your Church, and so more Catholick. And none of the scattered Seminaries of Rome in other Christian Churches can be said to Represent those churches in a General Council, more than two or three Titular Popilb Bishops in England, could represent the Church of England as it now stands. But on the contrary, their living in a separate Communion in other Christian Churches, shews those Churches not to be of their communion; and therefore cannot be Represented in any of their Councils. And these calling themselves Oecumenical, as the Roman Empire did, thews only, how little Criticisms upon Words will avail against plain Matter of Fact; which I have shewed to be the Case as to those Texts urged for the Supremacy of St. Peter. And that if Words would do it, there are more, nay and Facts too, for the Universal Supremacy of St. Paul, at least over all the Christian Churches of the Gentiles, which are all now in the World.

(9.) L. But there must be an Infallibility somewhere in the Church, and if it be neither in Pope nor nor Council, or that as you fay, there never was, nor well can be a General Council, truly fo called, that is, of all the Churches in the World, where do you place the Infallibility?

G. No where, my Lord; nor can it be among Men, who are all Fallible.

L. We trust not in Men, as Men, but Assisted by the infallible Spirit of God. And this He has Promised shall never depart from His Church, as He has said, Isa. lix. 21. My Spirit that is upon thee, and my Words which I have put in thy Mouth, shall not depart out of thy Mouth, nor out of the Mouth of thy Seed; nor out of the Mouth of thy Seed's Seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever. And he has said, that the Priest's lips should keep Knowledge, and they should seek the Law at his Mouth, for he is the Messenger of the Lord of Hosts. Mal. ii. 7.

G. Read the next Words, But ye are departed out of the way: ye have caused many to stumble at the Law: ye have corrupted the Covenant of Levi, saith the Lord. The first is what they should or ought to have done; the second is what they did do, which was quite contrary.

And notwithstanding the Promise made in the sirst Text you quoted, yet they were all gone out of the way, they were together become abominable, there was none that did good, no not one.—that all the World might become guilty before God, as well the Church as the rest of the World. Rom. iii. 12, 19. And of the Church it is said, The whole Head is sick, and the whole Heart faint from the sole of the foot even unto the Head, there is no Soundness in it, but Wounds and and Bruises and putrifying Sores, Isa. i. 5, 6. And God says, Mine Heritage is unto me as a Lion in the Forest, it cryeth out against me; therefore have I hated it; Mine Heritage is unto me as a speckled Bird, — &c. Jer. xii 8, 9.

And we have now long fince feen that Church of the Jews, to whom these Promises were made, quite thrown off, and the Church of the Gentiles come in its Place.

L. These Promises were ultimately intended to the Christian Church.

G. But they were first given to the Jewish Church, and belong even literally to her, and much more uncontestably than to the Church of Rome, to whom no Promise whatsoever was made: Nor has she any other Pretence to the Promises made to the Church in General, than her supposed Supremacy over all other Christian Churches; which is disputed with her, and denied by the other Churches. But there were none to dispute it with the Jewish Church; for she was then the only visible Church of God upon Earth. And if the Promises made to her, can fail, in vain does the Church of Rome, or even the whole Gentile Church, claim these Promises as indefeafible and unalterable to Her: For if the Promises made to the whole Church of God upon Earth can fail at one Time, they may likewife at another, and there can be no Certainty.

L. Can the Promises of God then fail?

G. No, that is Impossible, but we may mistake his Promises, and not understand them aright. And we may not perform the Conditions required.

But

G. But there is still a Condition implied, that is, of our Obedience; which our Saviour has fully exemplified in the Parable of the Husbandmen, who did not render the Fruits of the Vineyard. As Treason forfeits an Estate, or Honours given by a Prince, though in never to positive Terms, and without any Condition expressed; but that of Allegiance to the Prince, is always implyed. And thus the Church may forfeit her Charter. God said to Eli, the High-priest of the Jewish Church, I faid, indeed, that thy House, and the House of thy Father, should walk before me for ever: But now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me, I will honour; and they that despise me, shall be lightly esteemed, 1 Sam. ii. 30. And he said, Numb. xiv. 34, Ye shall know my Breach of Promise, or as our Margin reads it, the Altering of my Purpole. And he has told us plainly, that we are thus to understand his Promiles as well as Threathings, Fer. xviii. 7. Gc. At what Instant I shall speak concerning a Nation (or a Church) to pluck up, and to pull downs and to destroy it; if that Nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their Evil, I will repent of the Evil I thought to do unto them. And at what Instant I shall speak concerning a Nation (or a Church) to build, and to plant it, if it do Evil in my Sight, that it obey not my Voice, then will I repent of the Good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

This

This was the Language of the Prophets to the Jewish Church. But she understood it not, and leant upon the Promises made to to her as Unconditional and Indefeasible, let her be as wicked as she would. And this hardned her against her Prophets, whom she persecuted for this Reason, as Enemies to the Church, as you find, Jer. xviii. 18, Come and let us devise Devices against Jeremiah, for the Law shall not perish from the Priest. Here the Jewish Church stuck, and here the Church of Rome sticks at this Day.

L. But the Gentile Church cannot fail like the Fewish; for then there would be no Church at all.

G. The Apostle of the Gentiles says to the Gentile Church, Thou also shalt be cut off, if thou continue not in the Goodness of God. And that the Jews, if they abide not still in Unbelief, shall be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again, Rom. xi. 22,23. This shews, that all the Promises made either to the Jewish, or the Gentile Church are conditional, viz. If they continue in the Goodness of God: Otherwise, says St. Paul to the Gentile Church, thou also shalt be cut off; and of all the Gentile Churches this was said more particularly to the Church of Rome; for this is in the Epistle he wrote to her, and to her it was said, Thou also shalt be cut off.

And of the Church in General, whether fewish or Gentile, it is said, Luke xviii. 8. When the Son of Man cometh, shall he find Faith upon the Earth? Where will then that Visibility be, which Rome boasts of, as an essential Mark of the true Church ?

G. She is likewise compared to a Woman persecuted into a Wilderness, Rev. xii. 6. to a Lodge in a Garden of Cucumbers, to a besieged City, Isa. i. 8. And lastly, that she will be so little Visible, as that Faith shall hardly be found upon the Earth. This is not to be reconciled but of different States of the Church, and at different Times.

L. Christ says, Eph. v. 27, That His Church is glorious, not having Spot or Wrinkle, or any such Thing, but that it should be holy, and without Blemish. And he calls her his Beloved.

G. So God called the Church of the Jewsi Jer. xii. 7. The dearly Beloved of his Soul; yet he says, he had forsaken her for her Wickedness, and hated her. And Isaiah represents her as most filthy and corrupted, Chap. i. 4, 5, 6.

The Church is called Holy and Beloved, because of God's Covenant with her, to be his Holy, and Beloved, which will be hereaster in those that are perfected; when the Tares and the Wheat shall be separated; but they must grow together till then, when Christ shall gather out of his Kingdom all Things that offend, and them which do Iniquity, Matth. xiii. 41. Then, and not till then, will the Church be all glorious, without Spot or Wrinkle, &c: As the Text says, Eph. v. 25. Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it—that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having Spot or Wrinkle, &c. But he has not yet so presented it. That Time is not come. She is still in her cleansing State, but not yet throughly cleansed. And the Scripture speaks of both these States of the Church; but when we distinguish not, and would apply to the most corrupt State, what is said of the most glorious, we must needs fall into many Errors and Mistakes.

This is the Difficulty, under which the Church of Rome now labours, she first making herself the Catholick Church: And then applying to her self, in this her corrupt State, whatever is said of the Church, even in her perfect, glorious, and triumphant State; creates her infinite Trouble, and endless Distinctions, to reconcile these; which is as impossible to be done, as to make the State of the Church in Heaven, and upon the Earth to be the same: And while the Corruptions in the Church of Rome, are confessed and lamented by the most Learned, and most Pious in her own Communion.

And she may as well maintain her Impeccability, as her Infallibility; for Sin is the greatest Error: And therefore I think nothing can be Infallible, but what is likewise Impeccable.

[10.] L. The Apostles were Infallible, but not Impeccable.

G. As much the one as the other. St. Peter erred, and walked not uprightly according to the Truth of the Gospel. And many were carried away with his Dissimulation, Gal. ii. 13, 14 And St. Paul owned, that in some Cases he had no Commandment of the Lord, only gave his Judgment, as a private Person, and spoke by Permission, and not of Commandment. But in other Cases he says, I command, yet not I, but the Lord — And to the rest speak I, not the Lord. And it is so: after my Judgment; and I think also, that I have the Spirit of God, I Cor. vii. 6, 10, 12, 25, 40. And no doubt great Deserence was paid to his Judgment, as being an inspired Person, but not infallible in every Thing, as he himself said. The Apostles were enabled to Work many and great Miracles, which gave them full Credence as to what they delivered for Christian Doctrine. But this was no Personal, nor Universal Infallibility.

G. What! Both true and false? Can both come from God?

L. I know you deny our Miracles.

G. And you cannot deny the many false Miracles, which have been notoriously detected in the Church of Rome: But if one Sham-Miracle had been found in the Apostles, I am afraid, it had discredited all the others, and called their Milfion in question, whether it was from God, or not. The Devil has Power (when Permitted) to shew great Signs and Wonders, as we are told, Mat. xxiv. 24. 2 Thess. ii. 9. and the Reason is given Verle 12. viz. as a just Punishment to Unrighteoulness. But one false, or pretended Miracle is sufficient to disprove all, that come from the same Therefore your Books of Miracles, the Legends, must either all be believed, or all rejected, all coming from the same Authority; and the greatest Part of them are so very gross and simple, that no Man of Sense among you will fay, that he can believe Half of them. And your Learned call them pie Fraudes, Holy Cheats, to stir up the Devotion of the Vulgar, who swallow all Implicity! And your Lordship will have Difficulty enough to believe all the Miracles alledged of their Reliques. And, as I faid, you must take all, or none. Unless you think, that God can work true Miracles, and the Devil false ones, by the same Means, and at the same Time! Can you believe the Quantities, that have been shewn, of the Virgin Mary's Milk, at feveral Times and Places? And so of the Wood of the Cross, that is shewed in many Places? Is it the same Head, or Body of the same Saint, that is shewn at different Churches, each of which contend, that they have the true one? And each have Miracles to vouch the Truth of their Relique! You may fee a large Collection of these, and the Monstrousness of the Legends, out of which they are taken, in a Book intitled, The Devotions of the Roman Church. Which will prevent my giving Instances in all the Points before-mentioned.

Upon the whole, this Pretence of Miracles, the Legends, and Shops of Reliques, which are bought and fold, instead of a Proof, are the greatest Prejudice to Men of Sense, against your

And it is the forest Blow, that Christianity has received, while the common People put these Legends upon the Level with the holy Scriptures, as having both the same Foundation, that is, the Authority of your Church. Whence Athersts theists and Deists take a Handle to render both alike Fabulous.

[12.] L. But after all, we believe the Scriptures upon the Authority of the Church.

G. This is the old Circle, out of which you can never conjure your selves. You believe the Scriptures, because the Church bids you; and you believe the Church, because the Scripture bids you. This is running round, and proving a L. No. For we establish the Authority of the Church in the first Place, thus we think it inconsistent with the Goodness of God, not to give Men an Infallible Guide, to lead them in the right Way to Heaven, since our own Reason is so weak, that we cannot trust to it; and that Guide is the Church.

G. How do you know that? What have you but your own Reason to tell you so? And if you cannot trust your Reason, you cannot believe the Church. So that all Bottoms upon your own Reason still, from which you strive in vain to e-

L. But the Scriptures bid us believe the Church.

G. This is running into your Circle again, to believe the Church for the Scriptures, and the Scriptures for the Church. But I will bring you out of it. For, pray tell me, Why do you believe a God? It would be Blasphemy to say, you believe it upon any Authority; for that would place such an Authority above God. And it would be Nonsense to say, you believe it eiters.

ther from the Church, or the Scriptures; because you can believe neither, without first believing there is a God. What is it then? We believe a God purely upon our own Reason; And we cannot be more fure, that there is a God, than we are perswaded of the Truth of those Reasons, upon which we do believe it. And if God has given us no other Guide, but our own Reason, with the Affistance of his Grace, to believe in himself; if this be all we have, or can have, for the first and main Article of our Creed, what farther do we require for those of less Consequence? And that we cannot have more Affurance than this, we may perceive by this Experiment, viz. Whether we believe most firmly, and with greatest Assurance, what we have only from our own Reason, or what we receive upon the Authority of the Church? For Example, Are you not more undoubtedly affured of the Being of a God, which you believe purely upon your own Reason, than of Transubstantiation, Purgatory, or whatever you believe upon the Authority of your Church?

And to say, that God is obliged to give every Man an outward Infallible Guide, is making too bold with Providence, and measuring his infinite Wisdom and Goodness by our short Line. He has made Creatures, as it has pleased Him. Some incapable of Happiness, or Misery, as the Inanimates; some capable only of Pleasures, or Pains of Sense, as Animals; and he has endowed others with Reason, as Man, and left him in the Hand of his own Counsel, set Good and Evil, Life and Death before him, and Free-will to chuse which liketh liketh him, Deut. xi. 26. xx. 15. Ecclus. xv. 14, &c. Again of Rational Creatures, some he has fixed in Happiness, as the Blessed of Heaven: Others are Vessels of Wrath, as the Angels that fell: But Man is betwixt these two, to work out his own Salvation by his Obedience to the Will of God; Who will judge every Man according to what he has given him. For as many as have finned without the Law, shall be judged without the Law, as they that have sinned in the Law, shall be judged by the Law. For there is no respect of Persons with God, Rom. ii. 11, 12. But according to your Argument, there is great Respect of Persons with him, and his Goodness has failed the far greatest Part of Mankind, from the Beginning of the World; for what out-ward Guide is there to Jews, Heathers, Mahometans, and Christians, and to the many Subdivisions among all these? And all these have Guides of their own; and the Blind lead the Blind with most of them. For it is Fact, that the Generality of Mankind do not chuse for themselves, but take their Religion upon Trust, as they are educated. And we must leave all this to God, who will require from none more than he has given; for the Lord is good to all, and his tender Mercies are over all his Works, Pfal. cxlv. 9.

[13.] L. Can any be faved then, but by Christ? G. No. But many may be faved by him, who never heard of him. He died to make Satisfaction to the infinite Justice, for the Sins of the whole World: and took our Nature upon Him, to atone for our fallen Nature, to be applied to fuch, who perform the Conditions required. He will judge the Gentiles by the Law of Morality, which he has planted in their Hearts, and we call Natural Religion: But from Christians, he requires Faith in Christ, joined with sincere Repentance.

L. Then the Gentiles are in a better Condition than we, because less is required of them.

G. Is it no advantage then, to have the Glory of God revealed to us, in the Face of Jesus Christ? as the Apostle speaks, 2 Cor. iv. 6. And the Effect of it upon us is described, Chap. iii. Ver. 18. viz. That we all with open Face, beholding, as in a Glass, the Glory of the Lord, are changed into the same Image, from Glory to Glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. The Sight of the wonderful Occonomy of our Redemption must needs fill our Souls with Rapture and Joy, when we behold the Glory of God in all his Attributes, each exalting the other to the uttermost, as it is said. Jam. ii. 13, Miserecordia Superexaltat Judicium, that the Mercy of God exalts his Fustice; for Fuflice requires full Satisfaction, it cannot remit a Farthing: to remit is Mercy and not Justice: And God is Justice it self, Justice in the Abstract. Here then infinite Wisdom finds out a full Satisfa-Etion to infinite Justice: And infinite Goodness affords that Satisfaction, by the Incarnation, pertect Obedience, meritorious Passion, and glorious Resurrection, &c. of the only begotten Son of God! This inflames our Devotion, invigorates our Obedience, and gives Compunction to our Repentance, when we have sinned, and come short of the Glory of God, Rom, iii. 23. God has vouchfafed fafed to make a Covenant with us in Christ, by Virtue of which, we may appeal to his Justice and Veracity. It is a Pardon figned and lealed by the King, which we may plead in Court. The Heathen have not this, but they are still under his Mercy; they may say, God is merciful to forgive us: But we may fay with St. John, that God is faithful and just to forgive us our Sins; and to cleanse us from all Unrighteousness, I John i. 9. This is a great, a very great Advantage we have above the Gentiles. And may not we enjoy it with Thankfulness, and not damn them all to the Pit of Hell? Because God has made a Covenant with us, may we not leave them to His Un-covenanted Mercy? Is our Eye evil to them, because He has been good to us? Or would we limit His Mercies to His Creatures. with whom we have nothing to do? For what have we to do, to judge them that are without?-Them that are without God judgeth, 1 Cor. v. 12. And God did judge one, who was without, that is, out of the Pale of the Church, to be the most Beloved of God, and that there was none like him in the Earth, Job i. 8. And he is put upon the Level with the greatest in the Church, Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, &c, Ezek. xiv. 14. And as God chose a Gentile to be the great Example of Patience, to all Ages, Jam. v. 11. And of another Gentile, it was faid by Christ, I bave not found so great Faith, no, not in Israel, Luk. vii. 9. And he, who faid often to his Disciples, O ye of little Faith; and upbraided his Apostles with their Unbelief, Mark xvi. 14. yet faid to a Woman of Canaan, (who would not be discouraged for the Objection He put against her, of her not being within the Pale of the Church, but without among the Dogs ) O Woman, great is thy Faith, Matth. xv. 26. And of the ten healed, there was but one thankful, and be was a Samaritan, Luk. xvii. 16. that is, a Schismatick, a Stranger, as Christ here calls him, Ver. 18. and faid to him, Thy Faith bath made thee whole. And the Pattern of Charity is placed in the Person of a Samaritan, in Opposition to both a Priest and a Levite, Luk. x.30. &c. Which makes good what St. Peter said of Cornelius a Gentile, Acts x. 34. Of a Truth, I perceive, that God is no respecter of Persons: But in every Nation, be that feareth him, and worketh Righteoufness, is accepted with him. This is the Doctrine, which Christ taught, Luk. iv. 25. &c. When he minded the Jews, that a Widow of Sarepta, a City of Sidon, and Naaman the Syrian, were preferred to all the Widows and Lepers in Ifrael. Which so inraged the Jews, tenacious of the Privilege of the Church; that they thrust bim out of the City, and led him unto the Brow of the Hill, (whereon their City was built) that they might cast him down headlong. And it is said, that they were filled with Wrath. The like Fury they shewed, when St. Paul told them, that the Gospel was to be extended beyond the Pale of their Church, and that God had sent him to the Gentiles. And they gave him Audience unto that Word, and then lift up their Voices, and said, Away with such a Fellow from the Earth; for it is not fit, that he should live. And they cried out, and cast off their Cloathes, and threw Dust into the Air.

Air, Acts xxii. 22. And the like Rage is feen among the Zealots of your Church, when they hear of the Golpel being extended out of the Pale of their Communion; though with Christians, who hold the three ancient Creeds, and have every Thing effential to a Church, except what Rome has made fo, viz. The Universal, and Unlimited Sovereignty of her Bishop. Which is the great Bone of Contention, wherein Rome stands fingle by her felt, thrusting all other Christian Churches from her; like a Man in a Boat, who thinks he thrusts the Shore from him, whereas he only thrusts himself from the Shore; as Firmilian said to Stephen Bishop of Rome, Excidisti te ipsum, noli te fallere, - "Do not deceive your " felf, you have cut your felf off from the " Church; for he is truly a Schismatick, who has " made himself an Apostate from the Commu-" nion of Ecclefiaftical Unity; for while you " think you can excommunicate all other " Churches from you, you have only excom-" municated your felf from them." Dum enim putas, omnes à te Abstineri posse, te ipsum Abstinuisti. Cyprian Ep. 75. p. 228. Edit. Oxon.

But the Church of the Jews had a much stronger Plea for her Universal Supremacy and Infallibility; because all Proselytes, of whatever Nations, must come in to her, for there was no other visible Church of God upon Earth; and the Sacrifices were limited to the Temple at Ferula-Accordingly we find, Acts viii. 27. that the Eunuch came out of Æthiopia to Jerusalem for to worship.

Now if the Christian Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Christ, the most solemn Worship of God, were confined to St. Peter's Church at Rome, and could be had no where elfe; as the most folemn Worship of God; the legal Sacrifices, which were Types of the Christian, were confined to the Temple at Ferusalem: And if the Church of Rome, like that of the Jews, were the only Church in the World: Yet after all, would the Church of Rome have no more Pretence to Infallibility and Perpetuity, than the Church of the Jews had. And as the Church of the Jews has been cut off, for her Disobedience to the Law of God: So (as before-mentioned) has it been faid to the Church of Rome particularly, Thou also shalt be cut off, that is, upon the same Condition, if thou continue not in the Goodness of God, Rom. xi. 22. And we cannot imagine, there should be a Church of Rome visible, as now, with a Pope at the Head of it, and a Number of Bishops, Cardinals, &c, under him, holding the true Christian Faith, when that Time comes, which our Saviour has foretold, Luk. xviii. 8. When the Son of Man cometh, shall he find Faith on the Earth? For then it would be found, and very vifibly at Rome.

But that State of the Church is better reprefented by the 7000, who had not bowed to Baal, but of whom Elijah knew none, but thought he was left alone, Rom. xi. 3, 4. This was a State of Segregation; there were particular Persons, who kept the Faith, but invisible to the World, or to one another; without any publick Worship, or so much as private Meetings; for Elijah would furely have known of thefe, and been the Principal among them: Far less could they have an Organized Church, with Pastors and Rulers over them, without being known to Elijab, and many more, even to their Persecutors; who found out the most fecret Recesses of the Primitive Christians, and their Meetings, though in the most secret Manner, for Divine Worship; and their Bishops too, whom they seiz'd and hal'd to Prisons, and to Martyrdom; for they could not lye hid, and the Faith was then visible, though under Perfecution. Therefore it must be a much more Universal Depravity and Corruption of the Church, of which our Saviour spoke, when Faith should not be found, at least visibly, upon the Earth. It will be more like the State of the Church before the Flood, represented by the Ark, wherein few, that is, eight Souls were laved. 1 Pet. iii. 20. And as the Corruption of the old World was great, we may suppose the Corruption to be greater before the fecond Coming of Christ, as the Destruction by Fire is more terrible than that by Water. However, such an Universal Corruption is here foretold, as will in no Ways confift with the least Sort of that Visibility, which the Church of Rome requires, as a Mark of the true Church, and to continue with of their Phelin: And the Churchraya rol rad

But on the other Hand, it there shall be a visible Church in those Days, than that Church, at least, the Generality, which is the Visibility of it, will fall from the Faith, else it would be visibly to be found upon the Earth; and then Men will be missed by the Church, and by those Marks of Visibility,

&c which the Church of Rome gives of her; in like manner as they were missled by the Church before, when she commanded them to reject their Melliah. He came first unto his own, the Church of the Jews, the only visible Church then upon the Earth, but she received him not, John i. 11. for the was corrupt and blinded, under the Mask of Pharifaical Sanctity, and strict Observance of the Law, even to the tything of Mint; Annise, and Cummin; she was zealous in the outward Observances, but neglected the weightier. Matters of the Law, Judgment, Mercy, and Faith, Matth. xxiii. 23. And so it may be at the fecond coming of Christ, as it was at the first; for there is no more Promise of Infallibility to the one State of the Church than to the other.

G. The Jews answer all this by the Authority of the Church, which said, Have any of the Rulers, or of the Pharisees, believed on him? But this People, who knoweth not the Law, are cursed, John vii. 48, 49. And to rivet this Curse, they excommunicated those who did confess Christ, chap. ix. 22, 34. xvi, 2. And they said, That Christ wrought his Miracles by Beelzebub, Matth.ix. 34-xii. 24. And who was to be Judge in this Case: the People, or the Church? Upon the Foot of the Authority of the Church, it was impossible, at that Time, for any to be a Christian. Therefore, of all Men, Christians have the least Reason to insist upon this:

[14.] L. Then I find you resolve all upon private Judgment.

G. It is all we have for the Belief of a God, or of Christ; and, by your own Confession, for the Choice of a Church. And then we may well trust to it in smaller Matters. In short, we must trust to it in every Thing without Exception: For it is as impossible to believe any Thing without our Understanding, as to see without our Eyes.

L. But

L. But you believe some Mysteries, which you pretend not to understand, or explain, as the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity, the Incarnation, &c.

G. My Reason tells me, that there must be many things in the Nature of God, which I cannot understand or explain, because He is Infinite and Incomprehensible. And these I take purely upon the Revelations, that is given of them in the holy Scriptures, for my own Reason could never have found them out, nor can perfectly understand them. They are dark to me, like a Country I never faw; I cannot have a right Idea of it till I come thither. As I cannot of Heaven, or of the State of separate Souls. Yet I cannot help framing some Conception to my felf, of what I know never entred into the Heart of Man to conceive; that is, aright, and according as these Things are. Therefore I take not upon me to explain them; for that would be to involve my felf; and I know, that I must greatly Err. And yet it would be as much against Reason, to deny these Things, as to deny there was any Country in World, or Star in the Firmament, which I had not seen. And much more unreasonable it would be, to think there was nothing in the Nature of the Infinite Being, which I did not comprehend: Or, because that cannot be expressed to us, but in Words adapted to our Understanding; therefore to measure his Nature by ours; and because Peter, James, and John, are three Men, therefore to think, that Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, must be three Gods. But when I say, Three Perfons, with Relation to the Divine Trinity, there comes not such a Thought in my Head as Three Persons of Men; but because Personal Actions are attributed to each of the Divine Three; therfore we call them Persons; which Word the Scripture applies to God, Heb. i. 3. But it is only ad Captum, as the Schools speak, that is, condescending to our Capacity, as when God is said to repent, to grieve, &c. it is not; that we should think it really so, for that would be contradicted by to the Nature of God; but it conveys a Notion to us, that we should act as if it were so, that God were angry, or grieved at our Sins, and would repent of the Blessings he had given, or promised to us, if we took not heed to walk in his Ways, which he has set before us.

G. They will not find it fo, when they, confider, that they are in no less Difficulties upon following their own Reason only; for Example, they allow a first Cause, and Creator of all Things, because nothing can make it self! And that first Cause must have a necessary Being, and consequently, from all Eternity; and that Eternity is a Duration without Succession or Time, or having any Beginning, wherein all is Present, without either Past, or to Come. This the Deist is forced to confess upon the Conviction of his Reason. But he will not pretend to have so much as any Idea, or Conception, what this Eternity is, or can be; nor can he imagine a Duration without Begiming, in which there is nothing past, nor any Thing to come. Nor can he express this any other-otherwise, than in Words of Time, which he must own, are not at all proper, or applicable to it; the very Word Beginning is inconsistent with Eternity; and to fay before the Beginning; is a Contridiction. Here then he is loft, and must have Recourse to the same Excuse, which he ridicules in Revelations, viz. That we cannot speak properly of God, nor in other Words than what belong to Men; and therefore, that these Words are not to be taken strictly, nor argued upon, or Consequences drawn from them, for that this would involve us in numberless Contradictions: And there is not one Objection, which the Deift or Socinian, makes against the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity, the Incarnation, &c. But are of this Sort, by arguing from the Nature of Man, to the Nature of God, from the Persons of the one to the Persons of the other, &c. Which these Men of Reason think highly unreasonable in their own Case, [16.] L. But, Sir, the Deists would ask you, upon what Authority you believe that Revelation, viz. of the Scriptures? And fince you will not have it built upon the Authority of the Church, I fee not what other Authority you can alledge for it.

G. Nor I neither; for I put it upon no Authority. It is Evidence, and not Authority, upon which my Belief of the Scriptures is founded.

L. Then you believe upon the Authority of Evidence.

dence are two Things; if I believe a Thing for your telling me fo, without any other Reason, then I believe it purely upon your Authority; but if a Man, I never faw before, makes a Thing very evident to me, and convinces my Reafon, I believe not then upon his Authority, for he has none with me, but upon the Evidence he has given me. And what that Evidence is upon which we believe the Holy Scriptures, is let forth in a little Book I had the Honour to prefent to your Lordship, intituled, The Truth of Christianity Demonstrated, &c. Which was wrote to convince Deifts, who believe no Church, or any Church Authority. And if you have no other Evidence, but the Authority of your Church to prove the Truth of the Scriptures, I see not how you will ever convince a Deist, who denies both.

But if I tell him, that I Believe the Scriptures, and the Facts therein related, upon the same, and much stronger Evidence, than I have for believing there was such a Man as Alexander, or Casar, that there is such a Town as Rome, or Constantinople, though I was never there. Yet I believe it not upon the Authority, far less the Infallibility of any Man, or Number of Men, that tell me so; but from the Nature of the Evidence, which makes it impossible for Mankind to concert such a Lye, or to carry it on, without being detected. And if the Truth of Christianity, that is, of the Scriptures, can be demonstrated as plainly as these other Facts, (which I think is done in the Book I mentioned) then a Deist must either be convinced or confounded.

Now, if you will let your Church come in as Part of the Evidence of Christianity, she will not be refused, so far as her Share goes: But upon her Authority, and upon hers alone, the Truth of the Scriptures, and of Christianity, will be a Jest to the Deists; since her Authority can be proved no otherwise, that by the Scriptures, and then back again, the Scriptures by her Authority.

L. But several Parts of the Scriptures have been disputed, as you reject those Books you call Apocryphal out of the Canon of the Old Testament: And the antient Hereticks forged falle Gospels, and false Epistles, in the Names of the Apostles: And as the Canon of the New Testament now stands, some of the Epistles have been disputed by some learned Men. And this could not be determined, nor the Canon established, but by the Authority of the Church.

G. As to the Apocryphal Books, we received the Canon of the Old Testament from the Church of the Jews, which never admitted them into the Canon of the Scriptures. And how should we know their Canon better than themselves?

Again, we are sure they were not in the Christian Canon in the Days of St. Jerome, if he knew what was received by the Church as the Canon of Scripture; for in his Prologus Galeatus

Inter Apocrypho esse ponenda

Non sunt in Canone.

Printed before your own Vulgar
Latin, he rejects them as Apocryphal, and says, they were not in the Canon of the Holy Scriptures.

But as to these Books themselves, let any one but read the Conclusion of them, in Excuse for the the Weakness of the Performance, and then think it possible, if he can, that the Holy Ghost should make such a Speech as this 2 Macbab.xv.

— If I have done well—it is what 38.

I desired, but if stenderly, and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto. Or as your Vulgar has it, Si quidem bene, & ut Historiæ competit, boc & ipse velim: Si autem minus digne, concedendum est miki. That is, I ask your Pardon, if I have not done my Work as it ought to be.

But as to a full examination of the Apocryphal Books, and their Authority, I refer your Lord-ship to Dr. Cosin his Scholastical History of the Canon of the Holy Scripture. Printed 1657. And not yet answered that I can hear of.

L. But the Canon of the New Testament was established upon the Authority of the Church.

G. No, my Lord, not at all by her Authority, but plainly by Evidence, they proceeded wholly upon Evidence, viz. whether such an Epistle was fent to such a Church, as to the Church of Corinth, Ephesus, Galatia, &c. Who carefully kept the Originals, and sent Copies to other Churches, as was commanded. Col. iv. 16. And by this Communication of the Churches one with another, the true Scriptures were known, and it is commonly fet down at the End of the Epiftles, by what Hand they were fent. And by this Method the spurious Epistles and Gospels forged by Hereticks, were at first detected, as you will find in the last Chapter of the fifth Book of Eusebius his Ecclesiastical History, where it is told, That the Hereticks were brought to this Test, and could not produce the Originals whence they took their Copies: And that their Copies did vary from one another, every one adding what Opinion came into his own Head: and that they could not tell from whom they had learned fuch new Doctrines. Thus the Canon of the New Testament was settled in those Ages, when these Evidences were fresh and hotoisous: And has been received fince that Time by all the Christian Churches in the World, so unanimously, that there is no Dispute betwixt any Churches concerning the Canon of the New Testament. And this is an Evidence too strong for the Caprice of some particular Men, who would shew their Wit in making Objections against this or that Part. But this cannot hurt the Faith, because the whole Faith is over and over again fully expressed and contained in those Gospels and Epiftles, which are acknowledged by all.

L. But there are various Lections and Translations of the Scriptures into many Languages, which agree not exactly, and in every Point, with one another. And how shall we examine this by Evidence? What Evidence is there in this Case? Here the Authority of the Church must come in to determine between these various Lections and Translations. And these various Lections, or different Readings of several Texts are very many, which some learned Men have taken Pains to collect.

G. But there is no difference among them in any Thing material, or what concerns the Faith. So that this, instead of an Objection (which the Deists make use of to invalidate the Truth of the Scriptures, and the Certainty of our Faith) proves

pro an tio tha

on, bee ple proves a stronger Confirmation of both, in that among so many various Readings, and Translations no material Difference is sound; or other than may, and without a Miracle must happen in so many thousand Copies and Impressions as have been made of the Scriptures. And none I suppose, will pretend that every Writer or Printer, is Infallible, not to mistake a Letter, or a Word, or misplace them. But that nothing of this Sort has happened to the Detriment of the Faith, or Making Disputes in any Thing that is material, must be attributed to a very particular Providence.

And the Church of Rome has not undertaken, nor was it worth her while, to attempt the adjusting the various Readings: For in that Translation, which she has most approved, the Vulgar Latin, some of the various Lections are given on the Margin of her own Editions.

But what signifies the Latin, which is not the Vulgar Language of any Nation now in the World; I say, what does this signify to the People, who understand it not?

L. Therefore to answer your Objections of our locking up the Scriptures from the People, we have them now translated into the Vulgar Tongues of each Country, particularly in France, where they are publickly sold in the Shops.

G. This, instead of an Answer to the Objection, is a confessing to it, and owning it to have been just necessary. And thus much your People have gained by our Reformation.

But alas, my Lord! what have they gained? There is something worse than even a total Locking up the Scripture in these Translations, that is, a corrupting the Texts to deceive the People, different from even your own Vulgar Latin Translation, which you have authorized. This is made apparent in the Collection, printed here at London, of the many Texts thus evidenly abused, both by adding to them, and taking from them, and misinterpreting them; in the French New Testament printed in France, for the use of the new Converts there. And this has occasioned the Suppression of that New Testament, infomuch, that few of them are to be found, at least, they are not publickly fold now at Paris.

L. If they are suppressed, then your Complaints are answered. But have you any Objection against the Louvain Translation now printed and sold at Paris, with the Approbation of the Doctors and Divines there?

G. Yes, my Lord, here is one in my Hand, bought in Rue St. Jaques in Paris, where they are Printed, with the Approbation before them, in the Year 1701. And in this Translation there are many Misteranslations, I will shew your Lordship one; it is said, Acts xiii, 2. As they ministred to the Lord. The Vulgar Latin has it in the same Words, Ministrantibus illis Domino. But this French Translation is in these Words, Or comme ils offroient au Seigneur le Sacrifice de la Messe. When they had offered to the Lord the Sacrifice of the Mass.

G. Your Lordship may suppose so. But, my Lord, what the Import of the Words is, or what Consequences may be drawn from them, is what we call Exposition, or Commenting upon the Text; but to alter the Words of the Text is of another Nature; it is false Translation, and not an Interpretation; and comes under that terrible Curse pronounced Rev. xxii. 18, 19. against those, who add to, detract from, or pervert the Words of Holy Scripture.

And to shew, that this was not done by Chance, and what Use they intended to make of this Text thus translated. Acts xiii. 2. They put upon the Margin, La Sante Messe, The Holy Mass. That the People might here find a plain Text of Scripture for the Mass, and the Sacrifice of it. And in the Index, (which is done by the same Authority as the Translation) upon the Word Messe, this Text is named as a Proof, that the Apostles did celebrate Mass.

This Sacrifice of the Mass is a plain Addition to the Text, Let me give one Instance of Substrating from it. It is said, Heb. xi. 21. That Jacob worshipped the upon, or leaning upon the Top of his Staff. But this French Translation leaves out the Word the Top of his Staff. Adora le Haut de son Baton. And in the Index at the Word Adoration, this Text is quoted for the Adoration of Wood, L'Adoration fait aux Bois, Heb, xi. 21. Belike, they thought there was some Image carved, or painted on the Top of Jacob's Staff, which he worshipped! And so this is, made a Text for worshipping their wooden Images and Pictures! Especially, the solemn Worship of the Cross every Good-Friday. And who knows but that the Head of Jacob's Staff was not round but Crutchways, set a-cross (as is usual with old Men) and then the Staff was a perfect Cross!

In the former Text, concerning the Mass, this French Translation adds to the Words of their own Vulgar Latin, as well as of the Original: But in this last, the Vulgar Latin, as well as the French, substract from the Original; and both render this Text the same Way.

But, to do Justice to all, the Port Royal Bible delivers this Text from the gross Interpretation put upon it, by Means of a false Translation, to favour the Worshipping of Wood.

In the other French Translation I mentioned before, made for the Use of the new Converts, this Expression, I Cor. iii. 15. of some that shall be saved with great Difficulty, as if passing through the Fire, is boldly rendred The Fire of Purgatory, as the Words of the Text, without any different Character as is used with us when a Word is put in to make English of an Hebrew, or Greek Idiom. But in this Louvain Translation the Text is let stand, so as by Fire, only Purgatoire is put on the Margin, in this Edition made since the Objections against the other Translation, in which the Addition of Purgatory to this Text is particularly taken notice of.

I could give your Lordship more of the Corruptions of Texts in the French Translations. I have now only named three, one for the Sacrifice of the Mass, another for the Adoration of the Cross, and of Images, and one for Purgatory.

to

L. The Church is not answerable for these Translations, however approved and recommended by Doctors, Universities, &c.

[17.] G. But the People are deceived by them: The People believe as they are taught. There is small Security to them in the abstruce Disputes concerning Infallibility, how far it extends, and where it is placed; and in the Disputes betwixt Popes and Councils about it. These are Questions of which I suppose your Lordship will easily grant the common People are no Judges. they know nothing of the Matter. How should they, when the learned Men are divided among themselves concerning them? So that this Infallibility, if it could be found and fixed, would be of little use to the Generallity of the People, unless their Curates, and their Fathers and Mothers, who instruct them, were likewise all of them Infallible, for as I laid, they believe as they are taught, and examine no further. Nay, they are forbid toexamine, for that implies a Doubt, and they are not to doubt of the Religion they are taught, but to receive, without any Doubt, what has been told them by their Curates, Fathers, Mothers, or Nurses, and what is current in the Country where they live. This is all the Infallibility of which they are capable. And this is the Way of all the Earth. It is thus, that the Generallity of Mankind, whether Heathens, Jews, Mahometans, or Christians, receive their Religion. And s religion on the blowith without examing into what we have been taught, no Man could change his Religion. None could ever have become a Christian, especially no Jew, who had the Authority of his Church against Christ, to which Church he alledges Promises of Perpetuity and Infallibility.

[18.] L. The Bishop of Mean's has cleared this in his Conference with Mr. Cloud. Where the Bishop afferts the necessity of a Living Infallible Judge, always in Being, to direct Men. And says, that when Christ was come, He was that Living Judge; and so the Authority of the Jewish Church was superceded: 1 10 10 10 5111

G. This is Gratis dictum; and begging the Question of the Few, as I have said already, who upon the Authority of his Church; denies our Christ, to have been the Messiah. I will not repeat, only ask these few Questions further. 1. Who was this Living Judge before the Flood? For the Bishop says, there must be always such an one in Being. 2. Was Abraham, who was known only to a few Neighbours, and wrought no Miracles to convince others; was he, I lay, given as such a Guide, or Judge, to the whole Earth? And Christ was not so great a Traveller as Abraham. 3. Where was this Living Judge when Christ was dead? And if there was none for three Days, it might be fo for three or four hundred Years, or for good and all, because the Argument fails for the Necessity of such a Judge always in Being. You will not fay the Church can fail for three Days. The Promises of God can never fail, no not for a Moment. L. Christ

L. That was human Frailty, and Personal. But they retained the true Faith; they were in no Error as to that.

G. The greatest that could be; For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the Dead, John xx. 9. And if Christ be not raised, your Faith is vain: Ye are yet in your Sins, I Cor. xv. 17. And the Reason given for choosing Matthias into the Room of Judas was, That he might be a Witness with the other Apostles, of the Resurrection of Christ, Acts i. 22. And what Faith could they have in him, whom they had quite given over, and never expected to see him more? They trusted, that it had been he, who should have redeemed Israel, Luke xxiv. 21. But when he was dead, all their Hope's were gone, they expected no Redemption from him. This was far from a Christian Faith; and could there be a Christian Church, without this Faith?

To avoid all this, and secure the Promise of Indefectibility, to the Church, some of your Authors of greatest Name have said, that the Church was then preserved in the Virgin Mary. And thence inser, that the Catholick Church may be preserved in one Woman, as it was then; and that so it may be again, in the Times of Anti-Christ, and the great Defection is foretold, will be before the second Coming of Christ, when Faith shall not be found upon the Earth; that is very hardly,

L. This is giving up the Church quite, as a Society, with Government, Discipline, &c. and I hardly believe any of our approved Authors have said so much and not been censured for it

G. They are no less Men than Alensis, the Author of the Gloss upon the Decretals, Lyra, Occam, Alliaco, Panormitan, Turretremata, Peter de Monte, St. Antoninus, Cufanus, Clemangis, Jacobatius, J. Fr. Picus, &c. And to fave Repetition, your Lordship will find their Books and Words quoted, in this small Treatise in my Hand, intituled, The incurable Scepticism of the Church of Rome, printed here, 1688. p. 22, &c. I name this little Trace, because it is short, and will give your Lordship no great Trouble, and proceeds upon the same Argument I have undertaken with your Lordship, instead of the particular Points in Dispute betwixt the Church of Rome and us, as Invocation of Saints, Purgatory, &c. to go at once to the Bottom of the Cause, and examine the Ground and Foundation of Faith, as taught in the Church of Rome; which is shewed, I think, to a Demonstration, to be wholly precarious, and uncertain: And that there is no greater Difference and Confufion among any Sort of Men, upon any Subject whatfoever, than there is among the Divines of the Church of Rome, concerning her Rule of Faith.

Faith, and Infallible Judge of Controversy. And every one of the different Opinions about it, is in flat Contradiction to all the others, so that if any one of them be true, all the rest must be false: and yet they all pretend to believe with Divine Faith, and think it necessary in this Case, because it is the Foundation of their Faith.

Now, if according to these learned Doctors; the whole Church sailed upon our Saviour's Death, then the Gates of Hell did prevail for a Time. And if the Virgin Mary were excepted, that would not do much as to the standing of the Church. But have they any Revelation to Ground Divine Faith upon; or, upon what Grounds do they believe, that the Virgin Mary knew the Scriptures, or the Resurrection of Christ, more than the Apostles, and was not under the same Despondency as they were? This seems to be that Sword, which Simeon told her, should peirce through her own Soul also, Luke ii. 35.

L. To avoid all these Things, some suppose, That the Christian Church was not formed till the Descent of the Holy Ghost at Pentecost, when Peter converted about 3000, as told in the 2d of Acts. And that it was of this Christ spoke, when he told Peter, that He would build His Church upon him, and called him a Rock, and that it was fulfilled at this Time, when Peter was made the Instrument of the first and great Conversion, which was the Foundation of all that followed.

G. If the Christian Church was not formed, as some think, till after the Resurrection, because our Redemption was not till then compleated:

F

Or.

Or, as others think, till the Ascension, when Christ Commissioned his Apostles to go and teach all Nations, Matth. xxviii. 19. Or till the Descent of the Holy Ghost, when they were endued with Power from on High, Luk. xxiv. 49. Yet any of these Ways it will follow, that there was no Christian Church before the Death of Christ. And then, that the Jewish was the only true Church while Christ lived in the World. For the Jewish Church was to last till the Christian was formed, else there was no Church at all after Christ came, till his Resurrection. And then it would follow, that the only true Church in the World did reject our Christ. And then there will be no Choice left us, but either to acknowledge the Fallibility of the Church, or to reject Christ from being the Messiah. But if the Christian Church was formed upon the first Appearance of Christ in the World, or upon his ordaining the Twelve Apostles, and sending them out to preach, or upon any other Act done in his Life; then, as faid before, the whole Church failed upon His Death. But if the Church cannot fail, no not for a Moment, because of the Necessity of a Living Infallible Judge always in Being, the Succession of the Monarchy of the Church ought to Hereditary, where the King never dies: For this Scheme, will not admit of an Inter-Regnum for Months, or Years, that may be spent in the Election of a Pope. In all which Time the Church has no Head, or Monarch. Much less when there are Popes, and Anti-Popes, which has occasioned 26 Schisms in the Church of Rome, some of them of long Continuance. a Case? Is every Man left to his own private Judgment. And is it all one, which of the contending Poper he adheres to, whether to the Right or the Wrong? Or can the Church have two or three opposite Heads at the same Time?

L. Therefore in France, where I received my Education, they placed not the Infallibility in the Pope, but in a General Council.

G. I told your Lordship before, that there never was a Council truly General. That there are Disputes in your Church concerning General Coucits, some receiving those, or Parts of them which others reject. And who shall be Judge in this Cale?

o Rome, effablished in moft exert But suppose you were agreed among your felves concerning your Councils, and that they were infallible, yet they are not a living Judge always in Being; you have not had one lince that of Trent, which began in the Year 1545, and concluded in the Year 1563. Now, 150 Years ago. And there may not be another in twice that Time, if ever, Where then is the living Judge always in being, which the Bishop of Meaux, and others think necessary?

L. General Councils may in this Seme be called Living, and always in Being, that their Canons are always in Being, and determin Controverfies, to those, who regard them. And if new Heresies, or Controversies, or Schisms of Popes a rife, new Councils may be called to determin

Europe is now fituated it would be pretty difficult to have a General Council. And it may be long enough before any Pope may be of Opinion to call one, or hazard his Supremacy upon it.

[19.] But, my Lord, the Canons of past Councils are not Living, nor can speak for themselves. There are Volumes Printed of the Learned in your own Communion, giving contrary Expositions of the Canons, I will instance in one; The Third Canon of the Fourth, commonly called the Great Council of Lateran, acknowledged to be a true General Council by all of the Church of Rome, established in most express and positive Terms, the Pope's Power of depoling Princes, and Absolving their Subjects from their Allegiance, not only if he please to call them Hereticks themselves, but if they do not Extirpate all Hereticks out of their Dominions. This is maintained in the literal Sense by Bellarmin and the Italian Doctors. On the other Hand, the Gallican Church, who have condemned the depofing Doctrine, and yet own this Council of Lateran, are put to hard Shifts, and many Diffinctions to folve this; but it is impossible, for either that Doctrine must be true, or this Council has greatly erred determin the grad of con

L. But not in Faith. This is no Matter of

Faith.

G. But is it not Matter of Salvation, for which we shall be judged at the last Day? St. Paul says, Rom. xiii. 2. They that resist the (lawful) Powers, shall receive to themselves Damnation—Wherefore (says he, Ver. 5.) ye must needs be sub-subject, not only for Wrath, (or fear of temporal Punishment from these Powers ) but also for Conscience Sake; that is, towards God. And what are these Guides of Conscience, who lead us wrong in this? And have we no Guide, as to Practice, while we raise such Contentions about a Guide in Faith? Or is the Church a Guide in Practice too? And is a General Council the Church? Then the Church has led us into a damnable Practice, unless the Pope has Power to depose Princes at his Pleasure, and that there is no Sin in Rebellion, and all the Blood and Desolation that follow it, if his Holiness so command!

L. But the Church does not oblige us to profess or subscribe the deposing Doctrine, no, nor to believe it, so that you may be a good Roman Catholick, notwithstanding all this. Nay you may oppose the deposing Doctrine, as the Clergy of France do.

G. And may I not be as good a Roman Catholick if I do believe it, and defend it, and practife it too? And have I not all the Encouragement the Church of Rome can give me, the frequent Practice of the Popes themselves, and here the Canon of a General Council for it? And have any of the Popes ever yet renounced it?

L. But the Doctors do not agree about the Sense of that Canon. You see France takes it in a quite contrary Sense from the Pope and Italian Doctors.

G. Then your Lordship fees, that Canons are but a dead Letter, and that there may be Difputes about them. And where then is the Living Infallible Judge always in Being? You fee the Canons of former Councils cannot be this Judge. There must be another Judge to determine what the true Sense of them is. And who should that Judge be, but the Pope, the Head of the Church? I am fure, if I were a Roman Catholick, I should be on that Side. I could shew your Lordship several other Canons of Councils, that are in Dispute among your own Doctors; but that can be no Wonder, when I have already shewed, they are in Dispute about the Council themselves. So that there is no Certainty, what the Judgment of your Church is: Or, rather it is certain, that it is most erroneous, and in Matters that concern our Eternal Salvation, as well as the Peace of the World, that is Rebellion, (among other Things) which is as Wirch. craft and Idolatry. I have instanced in this Sin. because I know your Lordship to be tenacious and may a not up the as co of your Loyalty.

But, My Lord, the Pope's deposing Power has extended it felf even to France, of which you will find frequent Instances in their Histories. And even so late as the Holy League against Hen. And afterwards, when the Success of the King's Arms had induced several of the Clergy, and others to come over to him, the

the Perlates and Catholicks, commanding them under Pain of Excommunication, and of being deprived of their Dignities and Benefices, and of being used as Sectaries and Hereticks, that they should withdraw themselves from those Places that yielded Obedience to Henry of Bourbon, ( so he stiled the King) and from the Union and Fellowship of his Faction. And the Authority of the Pope prevailed so far, at last, that those Catholicks, who had joined with the King formed a Conspiracy against him, upon his Delay of changing his Religion, wherein the Princes of the Blood were most violent, and told him plainly to his Face, that if he did not perform his Promise, (to turn Roman Catholick) they would Defert him, and join with the League. See D'Avila, p. 611, 612. as likewise, 555, 601, and 605.

After his Conversion, and being by that Established upon the Throne, they feared his Power, and therefore the Pope (as now) made less Noise with the Deposing Doctrine, which yet he would not disown, but kept it in Petto, till a more fitting Opportunity. But yet it was not carried so Covertly, but that, even in their Sermons, wife and willing Men might konw their Meaning. Ravaillac upon his Examination, alledged the Lent Sermons before his Affaffination of King Hen. IV. as the Ground and Encouragement to that Execrable Fact. But after that Magnanimous Prince had thus fallen a Sacrifice to their restless, furious Zeal, and his Son succeeded Young and Fenceless, to the Government, then they set up again the deposing Doctrine on High, because then they durst do it. With which our King James does justly upbraid them, particularly his Opponent, the Cardinal of Perron, in the Preface of his Book quoted on the Margin. For it was but five Years after the Murder of Henry IV. viz. An. 1615, that Cardinal Perron, in the Affembly of the Three Estates of France, and in the Name of the First Estate, that is of the Clergy, did re-affert the Power of the Pope to Depole Kings, with this Reason, that otherwise, There had not been any Church for many Ages past; and that, indeed, the Church ( he meant of Rome ) was the very Synagogue of Anti-christ.

But to come to a fresh Instance now on foot, the Pere Juvency, a French Jesuit has lately printed a Book at Rome, in Defence of the Pope's Power to Depose Princes: And the Unwillingness and Shifts of the Jesuits at Paris, to disown him in this, and to disclaim that Doctrine fairly and above Board, shews, that it is not yet quite extinguished in France, but kept in the Embers, as in the Reign of Henry IV. For all who Understand that Order of the Jesuits, know full well, that none of them dare print especially upon such a Subject, without the Approbation of their Superiors. However, it is plain by this, that the Deposing Doctrine is still countenanced at Rome. And that France is not intirely free from the Infection. And though the Vigor of the present King has depressed it very much, we cannot say it is totally extinguished, or that there is no Danger of a Relapse, while the Authority of the Pope is so reverend, as Head of the Catholick Church; and this Council of Lateran is still owned as truly General and Infallible. And the Bishops of France still take an Oath of Fidelity and Obedience to the Pope.

L. But that Oath is not inconsistent with their Fidelity to their King.

G. Pray, my Lord, let me ask you, is not an Oath to be taken in the known and declared Sense of the Imposer, for whose Security it is taken?

L. Yes surely, for otherwise all such Oaths would be equivocal, and no Security at all.

G. Then the Question will be, what the Pope means by the Regalia of St. Peter, and all the Rights, Perogatives, &c. of the Apostolick Chair, as he calls his own, to which these Bishops are Sworn, contra omnem hominem, against every Man, or Power in the World. For it is the Pope, who imposes this Oath, and it is taken for its Security. And has he not sufficiently declared what he means by it? Take it in the Words of the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris, in the Appendix, p. 44. where they say, That by this Decree (of the Bulla in Cana Domini) the Popes declare themselves Soveraign Monarchs of the World. And this is no more than is given them at their Coronation, as you have it in the Roman Pontifical, where the Triple Crown is put upon the Pope's Head, with these Words,

Accipe Thyaram Tribus Coronis ornatam:
Et scias te esse Patrem Principum & Regum:
Rectorem Orbis: In Terra
Vicarium Salvatoris nostri Jefu Christi.

Receive this Diadem adorned with three Crowns: And know your self to be Father of Princes and Kings; Governor of the World: and Vicar upon Earth of our Saviour Jesus Christ. And must not this Governor of the World have Power to dethrone all petty Kings and Princes, that are under him? Else, how can he Govern the World? And the Popes think, that this their Soveraign Power of Depofing Prices is fully Recognized to them in the foresaid Canon of the Councils of Lateran. And no Pope has ever yet been brought to disown this Power. So far from it, that the Pope, who most of any other, asserted this Bulla in Cana, and let it up on High, causing it to be affixed and published, not only at the Doors of the Churches in Rome, but in the Field of Flora, that all might take notice, as you find at the End of the Bull, p. 37. Church of Rome for making a Saint. And this present Pope, as well as his Predecessors, does every Year, thunder out the Excommunications of this Bulla in Cana, by Bell, Book and Candle, which, like Dracansor, cuts down Friends and Foes: for there never was a Roman Catholick King in England, other Kingdom, or in any either before the Reformation, or fince, but is excommunicated by this Bull, and by the 24th Article, past the Power even of the Pope to absolve him, unless he first abrogate and annul all the Laws of his Country which are contrary to the Tenor of this Bull. And this never yet was done, and I dare fay, never will be done in any Popilh Country in Europe; and there is not, nor ever was any Popish Country in any other Part of the World, unless you will exept the late Spanish Plantations in America. And not only the Kings themselves, but all their Parliaments, Councellors, Judges, Officers, even to Printers or Publishers, or any wholoever that either directly, or indirectly, tacitely or expressly, Violate, Depress, or Restrain the Ecclesiastical Liberties or Rights of the Apostolick See and holy Church, of Rome, how soever, and when sover obtained, or to be obtained, are all here excommunicated, as likewife all Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy, who shall do the same, and all, who shall prefume to attempt any. Opposition or Contravention to any thing contained in this Bull, are left under the Displeasure of Almighty God, and of His Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, which is the concluding Sanction of this Bull. And here Saints must be joined with God, lest his Displealure pears, That there is hardly any Roman Catholick in the World, above the Condition of a Plowman, who is not excommunicated by this Bull, And here you fee plainly the Pope assuming a Temporal or Civil Power over all Emperors, Kings, and Princes, limiting them by Artic. 5. as to the raising Taxes upon their own Subjects, without his express License; and exempting all Ecclesia-sticks from being any way Taxed by them. Artic. 18. Or being under their Power, even in civil or criminal Causes, as by Artic. 19. though it were Treason, Murder, &c. for which noble Principle Thomas Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury was Canonized, for maintaining the Liberties of that Holy Church.

Now, my Lord, I leave it to your felf, whether, if you were a King, you would defire all the Bilbops of your Kingdom to be under an Oath of Fidelity to another, who pretended an Absolate and Civil Power over you, with Authority to depose you, as he had done to several of your Predecessors, and would by no Means be brought to disclaim such his Power, but on the contrary, made a fresh Claim of it every Year, and of his being the Soveraign Monarch of the World? Nay, he puts in his Claim for more, if more can be thought of, as it is worded in the Bulla in Cana. Artic. 24. All the Rights of the Apostolick See and Holy Church of Rome, however and whensoever obtained, or to be obtained - Howfoever obtained, that is, You are not to enquire, whether Right or Wrong: And whensoever, that is, You are not to go back to Antiquity, or the Institution, or look farther than the present Possession, which, with him gives Right, when it is for him. And to be obtained, secures any new Acquisition he can make, and all his future Pretences. This is like swearing Et extern's. And now, I think, the Plenitude of his Power is sufficiently guarded! And all this is included in the Regalia of St. Peter, and the Rights of the Roman Church, to which the Bishops of France, as well as of other Popish Countries, are Sworn, if they take that Oath sincerely; that is, according to the known and declared Sense of the Imposer.

[21.] L. But I suppose this Oath must have been taken away, if that Model of Church Gowernment had gone on, which was proposed by the Parliament of Paris, (and no doubt with the King's Appropation) that a Council of the Bishops &c. in France should be constituted by his Majesty to dispose of vacant Bishopricks, &c. and determine all Ecclesiastical Matters, without any Appeal or Recourse to Rome.

G. And it had gone on, but for the Success of that Confederacy formed by Pope Innocent XI. against the King of France, to re-establish his Supremacy there. In order to which he sent a Nuncio to our late King James to invite him to be Head of that Confederacy. But he who had learnt no other than French Popery, absolutely refused, and opposed the Eucroachments of the Pope's Supremacy, as appears plainly by his Concurrence with Monsieur Barillon the French Ambassador, then residing with him, to cause the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris against the Pope's Pope's Supremacy, hereunto Annexed, to be translated into English, and Printed at London in the Year 1688, which was his last of reigning here. And the Pope had this for his Excuse, that he could not otherwife have carried on his Confederacy, than by concerting the Disposition of King James. Who would not have agreed to the first of the Articles Sworn at the Hague by the Prince, Allies, and Confederates, in February, 1691, and printed here at that Time, viz. That no Peace be made with Lewis XIV, till he has made I eparation to the Holy See; for whatforver he has acted against it; and till he annul and make void all those infamous Proceedings against the Hoby Father Innocent XI. These are the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris, hereunto annexed. And in the Treaty of K. William with Spain, bearing Date Dec. 31. 1690, it is stipulated, Art. 4. That all Things in the Ecclefiasticks (in France) should be restored as in their former State.

Now if King James would not come to these Things, was there not sufficient Reason for the Pope to exercise his Deposing Power against him, in the best Manner that he could? And if he had such Power from God, then King James had no Injury to complain of as done to him, being Deposed by his lawful Superiors.

L. You recal to my Mind the Astonishment we were in here at the cold Reception, and even Slights put upon the Earl of Castlemain, Ambassador of King James at Rome, while a Protestant Doctor, no Ways acceptable there upon his own Account, and some others were caressed in an extraordinary Manner. Things explains their Conduct. And now we fee the Reason why Innocent XI, was then called here the Protestant Pope, because he took Part against King James, and helped on the Revolution. And I have been told, that at that Time the Pope did require of King James, his Promise to use his Endeavours to have the Oath of Supremacy taken away in England. And that his Majesty did positively refuse it, which some of us wondred at here. But that another did promise it, and in this, was as good as his Word, and has taken this Stumbling-block out of our Way.

G. King James his Fate was very hard, he was Abdicated in England, because he was a Papist: And the Pope wrought his Deposition, because he was too much a Protestant. And such Protestants are the French reckoned at Rome, they are called there Heretici Tolerati, Tolerated Hereticks. Nor would they be tolerated, if the Pope could help it; that is, if he durst imitate the Example of his Predecessor, the new Saint, Pope Pius V. to Depole the Soveraign, Absolve the Subjects from their Allegiance, and Interdict the Kingdom. But that Experiment proved fo fatal to the Pope in England, that it is not likely it well ever be tryed again, either in France, or any where elfe. The Thunder of the Vatican is spent, and become a Brutum Fulmen. The Emperor keeps Commacchio still, notwithstanding it is particularly named, by the Latin Name Comachum, in the Bulla in Cana. The 2d Article Damns all, who appeal from the Pope to a future Council: Yet have we leen it done in Form by the King of France, and the ParParliament of Paris; and that very Bull named, and thrown off without any Regard. And the whole Gallican Church are under this Excommunication, in almost, all the Articles of it, by the four memorable Propositions, here annexed, which were established in the General Assembly of their Bishops and Clergy in the Year 1682, upon which the Pope refused his Bull to the Bishops there, as is complained of in the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris, and was the Ground of their Quarrel with Pope Innocent XI. And the learned DuPin wrote his Treatise before-mentioned de la Puissance Ecclesiastique, &c. in Defence of these Propositions against all the Objections of the Pope and Church of Rome.

L. You should have said the Court of Rome.

G. I understand not the Distinction. If you mean nothing by the Church of Rome but a General Council, then there is no Church of Rome now in the World, but if there be a Church of Rome, where shall we look for it, but at Rome? And what is it there, but the Pope and his Cardinals? And is not that it which you call the Court of Rome? Where then is the Difference?

L. We own the Pope to be the first, and the chief of the Bishops, and as such, keep Communion with him, as it is said in the Proceedings of the Parliament of Paris, p. 51.

G. The Precedence of Bishops is not a Matter of that Consequence as to break the Peace of the Church for it, or which of them should be President in a Council. If that were all the Difference, the Bishop of Rome should have it with all my Heart, or any other Bishop they should agree upon. And if this were all that is meant by the Supremacy of the Pope, we should not trouble the World much about it. But he will not be content with any such Thing. The Supremacy he claims is no less than an absolute Soveraignity over all the Churches and Kingdoms of the Earth, their Bishops and their Kings: And this not by any Ecclesiastical Constitution, or Grant of Temporal Princes, which might be Conditional, Limited, and Revocable; and would infer their Superiority to him: But by a Divine and Indefeasible Right, as Successor of St. Peter, and Heir of all the Promises made to him; Unalterable, Unlimitable and Unaccountable to any Power upon Earth.

L. Whatever he means by his Supremacy, we mean no fuch Thing, or other, than that he is the First, or Chief of the Bishops, and as such, think our selves obliged to keep Communion with him.

G. But when he means one Thing by his Supremacy, and you mean another, and he has sufficiently declared, what he means by it, and requires your owning it and swearing to it, for his Security. Who deal most sincerely with him, we, who not believing any such Supremacy in him, will neither own it, nor swear to it! Or you, who not believing it more than we, in the Sense you know he means it, yet own it in General Terms, but in a quite contrary Sense to what you know he means, and trusts to, as his Security? We disown it, and fight against it: You fight against it as much as we, yet seem to own it.

[24.] G. Is not Excommunication putting a Man out of Communion?

L. Yes; for so is the Word Ex-communicate;

that is, to put out of Communion.

G. Can a Man be faid then to Be in the Communion of a Bishop, who has Ex-communicated him?

L. No, I think not, else Ex-communication fig-nifies nothing.

G. Then none can be truly said to be in Communion with the Pope, who are excommunicated by him every Year in the Bulla in Cana: And that is all France, and you, my Lord, and all, who are on your Side of the Question concerning the Supremacy of the Pope; for that is the Main, almost the only Subject of that Bull.

L. But all Casuists do agree, that an Excommunication does not bind, which is made Clave Errante, that is, where the Judge passes Sentence through Mis-information, Inadvertance, or of Malice, Self-designs, or other sinister Motive; in these the Judge has erred, and also where he has exceeded his Authority, and extended it to Things that are not subject to it; in these Cases the Sentence is unjust, and will not be ratissed in Heaven.

G. But who is Judge, whether the Sentence be pronounced Clave Errante or not? And how far the Pope's Authority does extend: He has excommunicated you, All of you, as if each one were particularly named; for so it is expressed in the Bull. On the other Hand, you despise this Bull, and fay, with the Parliament of Paris, p. 44, 45. That he has hereby excommunicated himself! and so you have a Head of the Church, who is excommunicated! And fo of every Pope, who gives his Sanction to this Bull, that is, all the Popes in our Time, and long before. And from whose Communion is the Pope of Rome excommunicated? Is there any other Communion but that of Rome? Is a Person excommunicated no longer a Member of the Church? And can he then be the Head of it? These are matters of no small Importance, no less than whether we are Members of the Church, or cut off from it? You are cut off, fays the Pope and Church of Rome. No, fays: France to them, you your selves are cut off. And yet these two Churches are the same! And is there no Judge in this Case? Is every Man left to his own private Judgment? How then have we been teazed with that Question, Who Shall be Judge? This answers all Objections with you; for begin at what Point of Popery we will, and bring Arguments never fo convincing, we are always flopt with this Question, Who shall be Judge? And so you refer all to the Authority of your Church. But when you answer this as to your own Case, you will have answered it as to us too.

If the Pope is Supreme Head of the Universal Church, he must have Power of Excommunication over all in his own Communion; that is according to his Scheme, over all Christians in the World. And to dispute the Validity of his Excom-preme over the Supreme.

But if the Pope's Excommunication stands, (without which his Supremacy falls) we may fay, Who then can be faved? All the Christian Kings and Princes, that are, or ever were in the World, even those of his own Communion, particularly in England, as well before the Reformation as fince, are altogether curfed and anathematized to the Pit of Hell, by the Bulla in Cana; and with them, all their Bishops, Divines, Parliaments, Judges, Lawyers, Clerks, Printers, and Publishers, or any others, who have any manner of Way been Aiding, Affifting, or Confenting, though tacitly, to the Contravention of their Princes to any Part of this Bull; that is, as I faid before, almost every one above the Condition of a Plough-man, are hereby all damn'd, by all the Authority the Pope has. Therefore have a Care of giving him too much, for he will take all any Body will give. He accepted this from Bellermin, that if the Pope should command De Rom. Pont. the Practice of Vice, and forbid Vir-L. 4. C. 5. tue, the Church were bound to believe Vice to be good, and Virtue to be wicked. Nay, his own Canon Law faith, that if the Pope were so wicked, as to carry with him in-Decret. part 1.

Tormented; yet no mortal Man whatever, must presume here to reprove his Faults, because he is Judge of all, and himself to be judged of none. So then they must keep their Reproofs, and not endeavour to stop the Career till they are with him in Hell, for then I suppose his Supremacy ceases! behold the Machine, of Human Invention, which God never thought of, nor ever once mentioned, of Climbing to Heaven by a Sort of Mechanism, upon a Ladder of Potes, Cardinals, Councils, &c. And though we see them leading us by Troops into Hell, we must give to Obstruction, because it would break the Machine of their being our Infallible Guides to Heaven!

[23.] L. But after all, if you could find an Infallible Guide, whom you believed to be so, it would give you much Ease, and be a Comfort

G. But I must have some Reason to believe him to be such a Guide. And I could not be more sure of it, than of the Truth of that Reason, upon which I did believe it. So that all Recurs upon my own Reason still. And if my Reason misleads me in this, it is the most fatal Delusion, because it stops all Methods of Recovery, when I have once given to another the Dominion over my Faith. But this the Apostles disclaimed; for when they exhorted the Churches, they said, Not for that we have Dominion over your Faith, but are Help-2 Cor. i. 24, ers of your foy: For by Faith ye stand, that is, by your own Faith. But as the Sun cannot be seen but by his own Light, so God and Christ cannot otherwise be known; no Adventitious or borrowed Light, canshew the original Light, whence all lesser Lights are derived, which, like the Moon and Stars, disappear at the Presence of the Sun. Here was no going to the Church to know which was he; or if you had, she would have missled you. It would have been like going to the Moon to ask where the Sun was. Who being free from that Stumbling-Block of the Church, received it readily, and now make up the whole Body of the Chri-

Gian Church throughout the World.

And this teaches us another Thing; that is, That an Infallible Guide (supposing such a one) would not be an Infallible Assurance to us, unless we were Infallible too: For besides our not knowing Him, or mistaking another for Him; for there has been False Christs. We might misunderstand his Doctrine, and turn it to quite contrary Purpoles from what He intended. This was the Case in our Saviour's Time. He was a Guide truly Infallible, and yet how few followed him, notwithstanding all his Miracles and Heavenly Doctrine? Therefore while we are fallible our selves, and liable to Errors, and Mistakes, in vain do we grope after an infallible Asfurance, otherwise than the Evidence of Things makes them plain to that Reason, which God has given us. that , and at it not .

The Angels of Heaven fell: Adam fell from his Innocency. And the Seven Bishops who were the Seven Stars in the Right Rev. i. 20. Hand of Christ, and the Seven Golden Candlesticks, the Seven Churches in the midst of which He walked, these all are fallen; and what are We, that we expect Infallibility? What Bishop, what Church now is so Infallibly seated as these beloved Seven were? What Church has a Promise of being exempted from that General Defection, which is foretold, will be before the Second Coming of Christ, when he shall not find Faith upon the Earth? Or may we not rather think, that the Plea of Infallibility in the Church of Rome (so many was detected) which hides Repentance from her Eyes, and hinders her to return from any of her Errors, which by this means continually flow without any Ebbing on any Side, I fay, May we not think this always increasing Corruption, the chief Caule to bring on that Universal Defection in the latter Times? Does it not feem to hasten apace, to be even at the Doors, when we see no Absurdity fo great, no Text of Scripture fo full and express, to be too hard for this Infallibility? Not the denying of all our outward Senles at once, and owning, that we neither See, Hear, Feel, Tafte, nor Smell! Not the express Institution of the Lord's Supper in both Kinds, to which the Council of Constance claps a Non Obstante, and takes away the Cup from the Laity! Not the Authority and strong Reasoning of the Apostles, 1 Cor. xiv. against Publick Prayer in an Unknown Tongue! All these are Over-ruled by Infallibility! And many more we have to Instance in the particular Doctrines in dispute with the Church of Rome: In all which, by Virtue of her Unlimited and Infallible Power of Interpretation, the leaves no Text of Scripture of any Meaning, other than the thinks fit to put upon them, let the Words be never to express. And this, indeed, is no other than taking the Scriptures wholly from us, while we must not read them with our own Understanding. And.

And the Refult of this, is, That the whole Foundation of our Faith is in the Church of Rome, without Scripture, or any Thing elfe, because the Scripture and every thing else is put Absolutely and Implicitly in her Power. And yet no Man alive knows, what this Church of Rome is, or where to be found ? I mean that Church of Rome, to which the Infallibility is annexed. For if you travel to Rome, you will see nothing there but what, by a modern Distinction, you call the Court of Rome. Where then is this Infallible Church of Rome? Some place it in the Pope alone, as the only Heir of St. Peter, and Living Judge of Controverly, and therefore above all Councils, and the whole Body of the Church put together: Others like not this, and because some Popes have proved Heretical, and have been Censured and Deposed for it; and others of them have proved most Wicked and Flagitious Men, who besides the Vicionsness of their own Lives, have filled the World with Blood, Rebellions, and Usurpations, in pursuance of the Depofing Power they have assumed over Princes; for these and other Reasons, they would not have the Infallibility trusted with the Pope, but lodge it in a General Council, as Superior to the Pope, with Power to reform and even to depose him: A Third Party approve of neither of these Ways, for as they think the Pope alone, without a Council, not to be infallible, so neither the Council without the Pope, who is the Head of it, and without whom there cannot be a lawful Council, as not a Parliament without the King; thefe are for King and Parliament, and place the Supremacy and Infallibility in neither Pope nor Council apart, but only when both together and agreeing; but because this will defeat several of those Councils called General, and split others, as when the Pope or his Legates withdrew from the Council, (like a King leaving his Parliament) then fuch was no longer a Lawful Council, but a Schismatical Conventicle, as was said of the Councils of Constance and Basil, &c, and because there has been Popes against Popes, and Councils against Councils; and that the Requisites necessary to constitute a Lawful Council, and consequently Infallible, are some of them disputed, as the Authority of summoning and convening the Council and Presiding in it; and other Requifites allowed by all to be necessary, are impossible to be known with any Certainty, as, That all the Fathers there met, should use all Diligence to examine and canvals to the bottom every Point that comes before them; and that they should be under no Terror or Fear of any, nor Byassed by Party, Hopes of Preferment or Gain. or any other corrupt Passion, but doing all Things out of true Zeal to the Glory of God. and Good of the Church; otherwise, that there is no Infallibility follows that Council; and this being impossible for any to know but God alone. consequently the Infallibility of all Councils is rendred precarious, and no Certainty at all in them; or rather it is certain, by the Histories of all General Councils, that these Human Passions, not confistent with Infallibility, had an Influence in all, or most of them; so that we cannot be certain of the Infallibility of any Council, unless we are InInfallibly Sure, that none of those Human Passions had a Mixture in it: This makes a Fourth Party in the Church of Rome; that is, of those who place the Infallibility neither in Pope nor Council, jointly or severally, but in the Church Militant, as they speak, that is, the Church Dissure, or all Churches up and down the World, We must then travel and learn. Here is a wide Mark, and we are plainly lest at last to our own Private Judgment, to collect, and compare, to approve or reject, what we find scattered in all the Distant Churches upon Earth. And no Man's Life, or Capacity will be sufficient to make the Inquiry, in any tolerable Measure.

And now, My Lord, which of these Four Sorts of Infallibilty will you take? There are Three to One against you, choose which you will. And all these are of the Church of Rome. And what Difference is there betwixt having no

Guide, or one you cannot find?

L. If I cannot find him, I have him not; and that is all one as to have none.

Miserable Man! If he has no infallible Guide and is Fallible himself; and yet upon his going Right, depends his Eternal, either Happiness or Misery.

[24.] G. You may as well find Fault with the Creation. Shall the Clay say to the Potter, Why hast thou made me thus? Who was Guide to the Angels that fell? Who was Guide to Adam? Who was, or who is, Guide to all the Earth? To the Heathens, to Mahometans, to Jews? These

These last stick to their Church, as an Infallible Guide, and therefore are most obstinate, and the most inveterate Enemies to Christianity. Who is Guide to Infants, and to Idiots? And shall we Interrogate the Almighty, what he will do with these? or why he created them? And perhaps, the greatest Part of Mankind die before they come to the Years of Discretion: And when they are at Age, how few are capable to Judge, or have Opportunity or Capacity to examine the different Pleas Betwixt Church and Church, Religion and Religion? And do we not fee the Generality of the World take up their Church and Religion just according to their Education? My Lord, if you and I had been born and bred in Turkey, we might have been Mahometans.

L. Is Religion then nothing but a Chance, according to the Place we are born in, or where we receive our Education?

G. No, My Lord, Truth is Truth, though all the World should depart from it. And there have been Converts in all Nations and Religions. But none where Men cannot be persuaded to overcome the Prejudice of Education, and examine impartially for themselves. But Infallibility barrs all Examination, for that implies a Doubt, and brings us to private Judgment, and where then shall we wander? And yet you must apply to every Man's private Judgment, when you would make him a Convert to your Church, Why else do you Argue or Reason with him? Must be not then Examine all the Arguments and Motives you give him for the Infallibility bility of your Church, and judge for himfelf, whether they are well Grounded, and will bear the Test of Reason? Or, must every Body have Reason, and Examine but your selves? Believe it then, you are in the most dangerous Condition of any. And you are the Men, who receive your Religion by Chance, just according to your Education. Suppose another should return your own Answer to you, and say. I will not Examine, I am Infallibly fure, and I will hear no more: What would you think of fuch a Man? Every Ethufiast will tell you the same. He will take his Oath; that he is Infallible! And will hear no more than the deaf Adder, the Charms of Reason; but he will bid you Silence your Reafon, for that is it, which blinds you, though Solomon calls it the Lamp of God, which he hath planted in our Heart, Prov. xx. 27. This is the Image of God, in which he created us, and will be our Judge and Witness in the last Day, as it is given us for our Guide here. But instead of trimming this Lamp, to make it burn clearly, we hear the general Cry from your Side, Put it out, - put it out - We cannot deal with you 'till that Lamp be extinguished, it thwarts us every Turn, and starts a hundred Objections, that we cannot believe peaceably for it. But when it is quite taken away, (if that were poffible to be done) then you offer to shew us a Meteor of Infallibility, (about which your felves are not agreed, nor know where to find it) which will keep us from ever doubting any more. L. You see how this Guide of yours, this Lamp of Reason, has mis led the Nations; for Heathens, Mahometans, &c. all plead Reason.

G. And we have no other Method with them than to Reason on still with them, and shew them that Reason is of our Side. And vast Multitudes of them have been thus Converted, even all the Christian Churches now in the World; for all of them are of the Gentiles. And for those who yet remain Unconverted, or have not had the Gospel sufficiently proposed to them, we must leave them to God, who made them, and will Require from no Man more than He has given him, but will Judge all People Righteously. Of this I have spoke before.

[25.] But I observe, that since this Notion of Infallibility came in to the Church of Rome, it has Rooted out all Charity, and her Religion has been chiefly employed in Curfing and Damning all the World but herfelf. Her Canons are tagged with Anathemaes upon every Occasion, and you hear little in them of who shall be Saved, but every Page is full of who must be Damned. And the Bulla in Cana pins the Basket, and leaves very few to Escape, even of the Roman Communion it lelf.

It is a Common Argument with which your Priests frighten Women and Children, viz. You Protestants say it is possible for a Papist to be saved: But we Papists say, it is impossible for a Protestant to be saved: Therefore it is safer being on our Side:

Side. But this has turned to their Confusion: for as ther is nothing in it, but a confident Averring, it shews, that they have no Charity, which is Greater even than Faith it felf, I Cor. xiii. 13. And therefore, that they can be no Christian Church: Their want of Charity being by this much plainer than our want of Faith. Take Chilling worth's Answer to this, Chap. vii. of his Works, p. 306. "You (fays he to Knot the Jesuit) "vainly pretend, That all Roman Ca-" tholicks, not one excepted, profess that Protes staney, unrepented, destroys Salvation. From " which Generality we may except Two, at least " to my Knowledge, and these are, Yourself, " and Fanciscus de Sancta Clara, who assures us, " that Ignorance and Repentance may excuse a "Protestant from Damnation, tho' dying in his " Error. And this is all the Charity, which by " your own Confession also, the most favourable

" Protestants allow to Papists.

Militiere was persuaded, that King Charles I. was Happy in Heaven, because he preferred the Catholick Faith before his Crown, his Liberty, his Life. [Now it is known to all the World, that King Charles I. lived and died in the Communion of the Church of England, which he declared with his last Breath upon the Scassfold.] But Arch-Bishop Brambal gave him this Answer. "That which you have confessed here concerning King Charles, will spoil your former Demonstration, That the Protestants have neither "Church nor Faith. But you confess no more here than I have heard some of your famous "Roman Doctors at Paris acknowledge to be true in General; and no more than that which the Bishop of Chalcedon (a Man that cannot be suspected of Partiality on our Side) hath Affirmed and published in Two of his Books to the World, in Print. That Protestantibus credentibus, &c. Persons living in the Communion of the Protestant Church, if they endeavour to learn the Faith, and are not able to attain unto it; but hold it implicitly in the Preparation of their Minds, and are ready to receive it when God shall be pleased to reveal it, (which all good Protestants, and all good Christians are) they neither want Church, nor Faith, nor Salvation.

L. Militiere supposed, that King Charles I. Sezcretly, and Invisibly, in the last Moments of his Life, was by God's Spirit United to the Roman Catholick Church.

King James I. in his Pramonition to Christian Monarchs tell us, That his Mother, (Queen Mary) as she was ready to lay her Head upon the Block, sent him this Message; That although she was of another Religion that wherein he was brought up, jet she would not press him to change, except his Conscience forced him to it, not doubting, but if he led a good Life, and were careful to do Justice, and govern well, he would be in a good Case, in his own Religion.

This was perfectly agreeable to the Sentiments of his Grandson, the late King Jam. II. who often spoke to those Divines, who had the instruction of both his Daughters, to be diligent in making them Religious and good Christians, in the Way of the Church of England, without so much as hinting at any Change of their Principles towards the Church of Rome, as I have heard my felf from Two of them, Dr. Turner late Lord Bishop of Ely, and Dr. Ken late Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells. And neither before, nor after his coming to the Crown, would he fuffer any Attempt to be made upon them as to Religion, of which there is an eminent Witness now alive, who knows if I speak Truth. And when a certain Zealot pressed him to endeayour their Reconciliation to the Church of Rome, and offered his Service for the Purpose, the King answered, No, let them alone, they are so good, they will be saved in any Church.

L. It is strange then he should be a Roman Catholick himself.

G. Not at all, for he might think, that best for him, without thinking those in Hazard, who were sincerely of the Church of England, and lived up to the Rules of it.

L. He could not think it lawful to be present at your Common Prayers.

G. He did not think it unlawful, because he heard them at his Coronation.

L. That was upon a particular Occasion. But does any Roman Catholick think it lawful to hear them constantly or frequently?

[26.] G. They did think so; for after the Reformation, the Roman Catholicks of England came to our Churches, and to our Common Prayer, without any Scruple. And this Continued till about the

the Tenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, when Pope Pius V. forbad it by his Bull. that he made the Separation, and if he had not fufficient Power to do it, or that there was not fufficient Cause for it; then he made the Schism too, and it lies wholly at his Door. Now it is the Undoubted Right of every National Church to Reform, Alter, and Model their Liturgy as shall be most Convenient, provided there be nothing put into it, that is Contrary to the Faith, which is not fo much as Alledged against our publick Offices. They have a Breviary at Milan and in other Places, different from that of Rome. And in England before the Reformation there were Diverse in several Diocesses, as what was used in the Church of Salisbury, of Hereford, of Bangor, of York, of Lincoln, &c. as is mentioned in the Preface to our Common-Prayer Book, concerning the Service of the Church. But these Differences did not break Communion, nor did the Alteration made at the Reformation, till the Pope, by the Plenitude of his Supremacy, and to be revenged upon Queen Elizabeth, took upon him to break the Communion. For which, as there was no sufficient Cause, our Liturgy being all Orthodox, even our Enemies being Judges; so on the other Hand, the Pope's Supremacy did not Extend to break in upon the Rights and Liberties of any National Church, as has been, and is still Maintained by the whole Gallican Church, and others, the most learned in the Church of Rome. And my Lord, I know some Roman Catholicks of Figure and good Sense in England, who meerly upon this Account have come over to our Church,

Church, and thought themselves Obliged to Return to the Communion of their National Church, and to heal the Breach made by that Excels of the Pope's Supremacy, which no Sober Man on this Side the Alps will own. It is strange to Own it in Fact, and yet Deny it in Words. Whoever own this Bull of Pius V. for breaking Communion in England, must also own the full Extent of the Bulla in Cana, which has his Authority, in a particular Manner, as well as of all the Popes fince. And it Damns almost all the Papists, as well as all who are not Papists.

[27.] L. We desire not to be called Papist, we think it a Word of Contempt, as if we were only Partifans for the Pope, and of that Party, or Faction, of Christians, who would raise his Power above the Church, and every Thing elle.

G. I am glad your Lordship thinks so, and indeed, the Church of France (where you were bred) are not Papists in this Sense. They are got free, in a good Measure from the Servitude of the Pope. But they are still Roman Catholicks.

L. We do not delight in that Word neither, as if our Catholicism were tied only to Rome; we term our selves Catholicks in General, as Members of the Catholick, or Universal Church.

G. We call our felves so too, and in the same Sense, and pray every Day for the Catholick Church in our Liturgy. Therefore we call not you Catholicks, because it would not distinguish you from us. But Roman Catholicks is calling a Part the AUTOD, PATU

L. Yes lurely, for there was always a Catholick Church, that is, some particular Church, so called. in the same Sense as Rome is now.

G. Pray then, my Lord, tell me what Particular Church was so called, in this Sense, before there was a Christian in Rome? And how came that Church to lose it? And how was it transferred to Rome?

Every Bishop, every Church, and every Member of it, may be called Catholick, and were so called, as being included in the General Notion of the Catholick Church; but in the Sense you have Mentioned, as Head and Principle of Unity to all Churches, no Bishop, or Church ever had it, till taken up in the latter Times by the Bishop and Church of Rome.

[28.] L. But how came the Bishop of Rome to that great Sway he has long obtained in the Church?

G. It is very Obvious, because Rome was the Metropolis of the Empire: And consequently her Bishop must be more Conspicious than any other, have more Respect pay'd him, and more Applications made to him, especially after the Emperors became Christian. And for the same Reason, when the Seat of the Empire was translated to Constantinople, the Bishop of that Church took upon him, and Aspired farther to an Univerfal Supremacy, but was opposed by Gregory the Great, Bishop of Rome. There was no other Consideration then for the Superiority of one Bishop, or Church, but the Secular Dignity of the Place; for which Reason the Patriarch of Ferusalem (which was uncontestably the Mother Church of all) was postponed, and made the Lowest of all the Patriarchs. But for Divine Right, and Christ having named any one Bishop, or Church, as Head and Superior to all others, there is not a Word. And it could not be Rome before Rome was Christian; and Christ never named her upon any Occasion whatsoever, or gave the least Hint towards her, or that posfibly can be applied to her. Strange and Unaccountable! If he meant to build the whole Chriflian Faith upon her, and to make her the Catholick Church, Is including all other Churches of Christians, and in all Ages throughout the whole World!

You

But, My Lord, Fact (as Isaid before) is the surest way to give us a true Light of Things. And the Fame or Government of the Church is a Fact, which must be Determined by Histories and Records, not Criticising upon Words that afford no Certainty. Let us look therefore, into the Frame of the Church from the Beginning. I hope I have made it Plain from the History of the Acts of the Apostles, that there was none of them appointed as a Sovereign over the others, whatever Words may be strained in Favour of St. Peter, for if he was called a Rock or Foundation,

And all the Regimen of the Church, which the Apostles appointed, was that of Bishops in their several Districts, without any Head or Sovereign Bishop over them all, as Supreme Judge of Controversy: Of which there is not the least Tittle to be found in any of the Histories or Writings of those Ages next after the Apostles; though there were many Controversies, even in Faith, among them, which an Appeal to this Judge had speedily ended; but no such Thing appears, which could not have been missed, had it been known. Metropolitans were early; that is, the Bishop of the Metropolis, or chief City of a Province, who did preside in the Synods of that Province, and had other Ecclefiastical Privileges granted him, by the common Consent of the Bishops of the Province, for Order Sake, and greater Harmony of Discipline. But a Patriarch with Jurisdiction over several Metropolitans or Provincer was never heard of in the Church till the Council of Chalcedon, 450 Years after Christ. And many Provinces were not put under these Patriarchs, but had exempt Jurisdictions of their own as before, of which Britain was one; for the Patriarchat of Rome extended only to Italy, and the Isles adjacent. But the First Pretence to Universal Supremacy was set up by John, Bishop of Constantinople, after the Seat of the Empire was translated thither, against whom Gregory the Great wrote, and said, that though his See of Rome, had always the Precedence of Constantinople; yet that none of his Predecessors, the Bishops of Rome, had ever assumed such an Arrogant Tittle, which he calls a Laci-Epist. Lib. ii. ferian Pride, and declares him who Ep. 32. 36. 38. should take it to be the Forerunner 30. 36, 60. of Anti-christ. And yet his next

Successor but one, that is Boniface III. did take it, being given Him by Phocas, that Traitor and Usurper, who Murdered his Master Mauricius, the Emperor, and seized his Throne, whom Boniface owned and abetted, and was made Universal Bishop for his Reward, in the Beginning of the leventh Centuary, Thus the Supremacy now claimed by Rome, was Introduced, and has been Maintained pro Viribus ever fince. And under this Britain has been subdued, which never was under the Patriarchat of Rome: So much has the Government and Unity of the Church been Altered from what it was in the Apostles Time, or in the First Ages of the Church. lick Church, and placed all its Unity in Submission to her Bishop! Here we see the Degrees by which this Encroachment crept on; the Patriarchats began in the Fifth, and the Universal Supremacy in the Seventh Century. And Britain which held it out against the Patriarchat of Rome, was at last Conquered by the more Apparent Usurpation of her Universal Supremacy, so Obtained as I have told.

And yet I have heard some Britains say, That though they thought the Church of Rome the most corrupt Part of the Christian Church, both as to Doctrine and Worship, and to be a Cage full of unclean Birds; yet, that they must be of her, and enter into that Cage, because she was the Catholick Church. This is like that Desperate Maxim in the Canon Law, I quoted before out of the Decretals, that though the Pope should draw Infinite Numbers of People with him into Hell, yet we must not find Fault with him, nor reprove him, &c.

[29.] And I must observe also here, That though France has thrown off the Pope's Infallibility, and his Deposing Power over Princes, and has limited his Supremacy, that is indeed, taken it wholly away; for no Supremacy (properly so called) can be Limited, for then it Ceases to be Supreme: Yet France remains still in the Dreggs of the Corruptions of Rome, both as to Doctrine and Worship. The Religion of the People there, is, the Adoration of the Host, and of the Cross, Invocation of Saints, Worship of Images, praying Souls fession was a good Thing, rightly used.

G. And fo I say still. But not in that Sense it is generally used with you, and is expressed in your Catechism ad Parochos, de Panitentia Sacramento, Sect. 46, 47. That fuch a Repentance as God will not accept, nor Pardon for it, is made sufficient by the Sacrament of Penance, and all our Sins remitted by it. And that Pauciffimi, very few can be faved without it. They might have said, None, for they here require in Repentance acceptable to God, a Sense and Sorrow for Sin, that shall be fully equal to the Demerit, Ut cum scelerum Magnitudine Æquari conferrique possit, which is impossible for Mortal Man. And therefore All must be Damned without this Sacrament of Penance. And they say; It was necessary that God should Institute this Sacrament, as an easier Way for Men to get to Heaven. Quare necessé fuit ut clementissimus Dominus facilori ratione hommuni hominum faluti consuleret. An easy Way, indeed! Confess to a Priest and get Absolution, and this makes up the Defects of your Repentance, and you are faved, ex Opere Operato, by the Work wrought the bare Performance of this Sacrament. And the Council of Trent Anathematizes all those, who say, that the very Sacraments of the Gospel do not confer Grace in the same Manner by the bare Performance. Si quis dixerit per ipsa Nova legis Sacramenta ex opere Operato non conferri Gratiam tiam —— Anathema sit. Sess. 7. can. 8. It is true, that God did Institute his Sacraments as Means of Grace, (for which we bless His Name daily in our General Thanksgiving) but this turns them into Charmes, when the very Sacraments themselves, ipsa Sacramenta, confer the Grace, ex Opere Operato, by the bare Personmance of the Work.

Let us exemplify this to our felves by the like use made of the Institutions of God under the Law. The Jews had got this Notion of the Opus Operatum, that the bare Performance of the Letter of the Law, in their Sacrifices, Feasts, Fasts, and other Observances, was all that was required of them. Whence the Voices of all the Prophets were against these Institutions, they call then Iniquity, Abomination, and Hateful to God: Nay, God denies Ifa.i.11,12,13, that He did require them, or ever did Institute them. That is, as a Jer. vii. 22. dead Carcass without a Soul, and Working like Charms by the bare Opus Operatum. God did never institute such, nor does require them at our Hands. And may we not lay, no more under the Gospel than the Law? For the Gospel introduced a more Pure and Spiritual Worship, but the Council of Trent by naming only the Sacraments of the New Law, applies the Opus Operatum to them also, if not chiefly.

What elle is the Meaning of tying Men to the Repetition of such a precise Number of Ave's and Pater's, and Credo's, at such particular Times, whether the Mind goes along with them, or not? For you will see People in the Markets, buying and felling, or Discoursing of common Business, and dropping their Beads all the While, to keep Council if they have rightly performed their Task of the Opus Operatum.

But if Prayers and Sacraments, which are Means of Grace of God's own Institution, may be thus Abused, and rendered Hateful to God: What shall we say, of those Means of Grace, which are of Man's mere Invention? None can appoint the Means, but He who has the bestowing of the End to be Obtained by those Means: As if I have a Thousand Pounds to Bestow, I may put what Conditions I think fit, and Appoint the Means for the Obtaining it; and none else can appoint the Means: Now Grace is the Gift of the Holy Ghost, and none can Appoint the Means of Obtaining it, but who has the bestowing of the Holy Ghost; which it is the Highest Blasphemy for any Creature to Assume to Himself; hence Christ's sending the Holy Ghost is a fure Proof of His Divinity: But the Church of Rome takes upon her to appoint Means of Grace, many and various; the Whole Pontifical is made up of the Forms, of Consecration of every Thing, almost, one can think of, into Means of Grace, as Bells, Books, Candles, Water, Salt, Oil, Ashes, Palms, Swords, Banners, and Vestments of diverse Sorts, even to Childrens Clouts, befides Croffes, Pictures, Images Agnus Dei's, &c. By the Ule of which, in the Manner prescribed, several Graces, both Ghostly and Bodily, are faid to be Obtained, as best fides the Favour of God, and the Remission of Sins, the Saving from Fire, from Diseases, from Storms at Sea, Thunder, Lightning and Tempests!

Nay there is Nothing in the World so Insignificant, a Rose, or a Feather, which the Pope may not consecrate into a Means of Grace, and is in use every Day. And at Rome they are counted Atheists, who have not Faith in these things. So much they place their Religion in them!

G. But without any Ground, for we consecrate none of these Things, nor do we attribute any Virtue, Ghostly or Bodily to the use of them, as to the Wearing a Surplice, hearing a Bell, or an Organ, &c, they are purely for Decency and Order, and we may Change them, or take them quite away every Day, as our Governors think sit. Can they shew any outward Action, or Thing appointed in our Church, by the Use of which Evil Spirits may be chased away, Women helped in Labour, or Storms at Sea quelled. All which, and many more Virtues are attributed in your Church to the Use of what you call Holy Water, and many other such like Institutions of Mechanical Means of Grace.

[31.] But that which makes up the Bulk of the Romish Devotions is, the Worship and Invocation of Saints, and Angels, the Adoration of their Images, Images, and of the Reliques of Saints departed, Pieces of their Bodies or of their Vestments, &c. to which great Miracles are attributed, and therefore they are made, strictly and properly, Means of Grace.

L. We desire the Prayers of one another upon Earth, why not much rather of the Saints and Angels in Heaven?

L. It seems to be giving greater Glory to God, and more Humility in us, not to approach His Presence directly and immediately our selves, as we do not to an Earthly King, but by the Introduction and Recommendation of some eminent Courtier, whom we know to be in his Favour.

G. Your Simile will Hast on all Four; for God is nearer to us than any Saint or Angel; In God we live, and move, and have our Being; but the Angels and Saints departed, are at Distance from us, and we know not where to find them, or that they hear our Prayers; for they are not every-where, That is an Attribute of God alone.

L. Therefore our School-men say, they see our Prayers in Speculo Trinitatis, in the Looking-glass of God.

G. Do they see every Thing in that Lookingglass? Then they know as much as God! But it not, then how do we know they see our Prayers there? And how will this sort with your Simile of an Earthly King, that the Courtier must go go to the King to know what I defired the Gour-

Abraham is the Father of us All.

And he was called the Friend of God. Rom. iv. 16.

Therefore it is likely that he saw as far into that Looking-glass as another. Jam. ii. 23.

nuft go Abraham is ignorant of us. And are not we as Ignorant of their State, and what Knowledge they have of us below? We are told that they have no Knowledge of it. His Sons came to Honour; and he knoweth it not; Job. xiv. 21. and they are brought low; but he perceiveth it not of them.

L. It is said, that the Angels of Heaven rejoice over a Sinner that Repenteth.

G. That is when it pleaseth God to let them know it, or that the Sinner comes thither, But that they know of every Penitent upon Earth, is no where said, nor do I know it afferted by any.

But instead of the School-mens Looking-glass, and their vain Philosophy, if we would look into the plain Directions of Holy Scripture, we should settle our selves upon a much surer Foundation. See then what the Apostle says upon the very Case in Hand, Let no Man beguile you of your Reward, in a voluntary Col. ii. 18, 19.

Humility, ( or being a voluntary in Humility, as our Margin reads it ) and Worshipping of Angels, intruding into those Things which he hash not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly Mind; and not holding the Head, from which all the Body by joints and Bands having Nourishment ministred, and knit together, increaseth with the Increase of God. And after lays, ver. 23. Which Things have indeed a Shew of Wisdom in Willworlhip and Humility —— Here is a full Answer to all your Pretentions for this Will-worship of Saints and Angels, for both go upon the same Foot. It is called, Intruding into Things we have not feen, of which we are altogether uncertain; and therefore finful in the Practice, by the Apostle's Rule, Rom. xiv. 23. That what soever is not of Faith, is Sin. This was spoke in respect of Meats, but is much more so as to our Worship and folemn Devotions to God. - Your Comparison of Access to an Earthly King, is here called a Fleshly, or Carnal Thought, measuring God after the Manner of Men - And the Refult of this is no less than losing our Reward, that is, Heaven; for it is forfaking the Head, which is Christ, whose Members we are, and receive Nourishment from him; not so from Saints or de God has given Christ to us, as the One Mediator between God and Men, 1. Tim. ii. 5. But we have made to our felves many Mediators to affift and help him, as if His Mediation and Intercession were not sufficient. And we make more Applications to Them than to Him, or to God Himself. You have Ten Ave Maria's for One Pater Noster.

And you have Multiplied these Saints to your selves without Number, like the Heathen Deities, and New Canonizations are going on every Day. Every Country, City, Parish, and almost Person, have a particular Saint for their Patron. You have Saints, as they have Gods, for the Sea, for the Air, Fire, &c. for Peace, for War, for Learning, and all Sorts of Trades and Occupations. St. Christopher, and St. Clement are for the Sea, especially the Virgin Mary, to whom the Sea-men fing, Ave Maris Stella. St. Agatha is for the Fire, and they make Letters on her Day to quench Fire with. St. Nicholas and St. Gregory are for Scholars, St. Luke for Painters, &c. And they have Saints for all Diseases, St. Cornelis cures the Falling-Sickness, St. Roche the Pox. St. Apollonia the Tooth-Ach, &c. And they have particular Saints for all Beafts and Cattle, St. Ley presides over the Horses, and St. Anthony over the Swine, &cc. And they bring their Cattle to be Bleffed by these Saints on their particular Days. And they pray to these Saints jointly with God; a Scholar fays, God and St. Nicholas be my Speed. And when one Sneezes, God help and St. John. And to a Horse if he stumbles, God and St. Loy fave thee, Gc. And upon every Surprize they cry, Jesu Maria.

[32.] L. You should not compare these to the Damons of the Heathers, for they were Evil Spirits. And they called them Gods.

G. The Word Gods is frequently given in Scripture to Angels and to Men, as Ministers of God. And thus the Heathens understood it, and supposed their Gods to be such Ministers, Acolus to Govern the Winds, Neptune the Sea, &c. Therefore they called them Dii Medioxumi, Inferior Gods, as standing in the Middle betwixt the Supreme God and us, to Succor or Punish us, according to his Orders. St. Augustine, who H 2 knew knew them well, tells us what they argued for themselves, they said, We do not Non colimus worship Evil Damons, or Spirits, but mala Damonia, Angelos we worship those whom you (Chriquos dicitis, ipstians) call Angels, the Powers of Tos & Nos colimus, Virtu-tes Dei Magni, the Great God, the Mysteries of the Great God. But St. Augustine an-& Myfteria Dei Magni. Aug. fwered them, That they must be in Pfal, xcvi. Evil Spirits whom they worshipped, because they required Worship from Men, as the Devil did from our Saviour, which the Good Angels always refused; and he quotes Rev. xix. 10. xxii. 9. where the Angel forbade John to Worship him. And the same did the Saints upon Earth, as Peter refused it from

Act. x.26. xiv. Cornelius, and Paul and Barnabas from the Men of Lystra, &c.

L. But We suppose not that the Heathens had any Notion of the Supreme and True God, but that thy worshipped every one of their Gods as Supreme and Independent.

G. Some Men make Monsters of others, to hide their own Deformity! Your Guides have set up this Notion, to hinder the Parallel betwixt the Heathen Worship of their Inferior Gods, and yours of Saints and Angels For ther is nothing more evident than that the Heathen did acknowledge the One Supreme and True God, though in much Ignorance and Superstition. St. Paul said that they knew God, that He was

Worship, Him declare I unto you. He did not Preach a falle God unto them, but they had blended the Worship of God with these Interior Gods or Damons, which was their Superstition, for so the Word signifies Aeroid aimovia, the Fear of these Damons, and it is thus rendred every-where in the New Testament, which we translate Superstition, and so your own Vulgar Latin, Acts xvii. 22. and xxv. 19. And the Latin Word Superstitio means the same Thing, and is derived, as Servious has it from Super Stare, as being a Fear of those Heavenly Powers, who Supra stant stand over us, and so Superstition is Superstantium rerum timor. Others derive it from Superstites, that these Devi ex hominibus facti, Men Deifyed after their Death, are still Superstites, and the Fear of them as such is Superstition; or qui Superstitem Momoriam defunctorum Colunt, who worthip the Memory of these dead Men.

The Worship of these lesser Gods is what is forbidden in the First Commandment, which respects the Object of Worship, that no Religious Worship is to be given to any but the Supreme God alone. The Second Commandment Relates to the Manner of Worship, that is, by Images. But this your Church has hid from the People, and Divided the Tenth into Two to keep up the Number, that the People might think they still have the Ten Commandments. And it is thus in your very Catechism ad Parochos. But of this hereafter.

The Heathens had their Good and Evil Damones, as their Good and Evil Genii, but according to St. Austine's Rule, they must be Evil Damons who accepted the Worship of Men, which were all the Heathen Damons; therefore the Word Damon is taken in the worst Sense, and translated Devil throughout the New Testament, and what we translate the Doctrines of Devils, 1. Tim. iv. 1. is the Doctrine of the Damons, or of the Worthip of Damons, διδασκαλίαι Δαιμοview, and a various Lection has it vene ois halpevovies, who worship the Dead. The Damons of the Heathen were their dead Heroes, whom they made Divi by an Apotheofis, as the Pope does Saints By a Canonization. But it is too Gross to put it upon the Heathen, that they thought every one of those Gods, whom they Made, was the Supreme God, who made themselves. They owned these to be Lesser Gods, and only the Virtues and Powers of the Great God; and they thought, that they Honoured the Supreme God the more, by doing Honour to His Substitutes; and all their Worship was Ultimately Referred to Him. So that He only was Worshipped in all their Gods, Goddesses; for they made him King of all their Gods and Goddef-

But besides all these, we have sufficient Testimony in Scripture, of the Heathers acknowledging the One Supreme and True God; Nebuchadnezzar calls him God of Gods, and Lord of Kings - The most High God - And says, I bleffed the most High, and I praised and honoured Him that liveth for e-Dan.ii.47. iii, 26, 29. 1V. 34, ver and ever, whose Dominion is an everlasting Dominion, and His Kingdom from Generation to Generation. And all the Inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as Nothing: And he doth according to his Will in the Army of Heaven, and among the Inhabitants of the Earth: And no Man can stay his Hand, or say unto Him, What doest thou?

Cyrus calls him the Lord God of Heaven. And Darius the same in Ezra i. 2. vi. as High Expressions as any Christian could use, The Living God, Dan. vi. 26, and stedfast for ever, and his Kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and His Dominion shall be even unto the End, &c.

L. It is strange, that when they acknowledge the Great God so fully, they did not for sake their own little Gods.

G. No, for they did not think it Inconsistent to Acknowledge One God above all, and yet to Suppose, that every Nation had its own God or Gods, in Subordination to the Supreme God, H 4 and and as Deputies under him. This was their Notion. And they Supposed, that Judea had its own Tutelar God, as well as other Countries. Therefore the King of Assyria having Conquered it, sent to teach his People who went thither, the Manner of the God of the Land, to appeale His Wrath, who had plagued them with Lions. But yet they for fook not their own Gods; for it is said, They feared the Lord, and served their own Gods. And they allowed the same Liberty to the Jews, who were not required in any of their Captivities to renounce their own God; but only to worship the Gods of the Nations where they lived. And of these Tutelar Gods, they supposed one might be Stronger, or more Powerful than another, and therefore they would boast of their Gods, one Country against another;

thus said Senacherib, Who are they among all the Gods of the Countries, that hath delivered their Country out of mine Hand, that the Lord (the Tutelar of God of Judea) should deliver Jerusalem out of mine Hand? Where are the Gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? &c. When Moses and Aaron told Pharaob, that the God of the Hebrews had met with them, he was not offended, that they had another God besides those which were Worshipped in Ægypt; he took it as a Thing granted, that every People had their own Tutelar God.

This then was the Difference betwixt the Jews and Gentiles, the Gentiles thought it law-tul to worship the Tutelar God of any Coun-

L. But it is said, that they had for saken the Lord.

G. It is called for saking the Lord, when we will not Obey his Commandments, but Worship Him otherwise than he has Required, and join others with Him which he has forbidden. He said, The House of Israel is estranged from Me. Separated from Me through their Ezek. xiv. 5,7. Idols; ye they come and enquire of a Prophet concerning Me. And again.

When they had slain their Children to their Idols, then came they the same chap.xxiii. 39. Day into My Sanctuary. And He says to them, Will ye burn Incense Ier. vii. 9. unto Baal, and walk after other Gods, and come and stand before Me in this House which is

G. Many such will be found in the Catalogue of your Saints. What think you of the Seven Sleepers, who slept 362 Years, and thought it but One Night? What think you of the Eleven Thousand English Virgins, all Martyred together at Cologne; and the fine Legend told of them? What do you belive of St. George killing the Dragon, and Rescuing the King's Daughter? As true as our Ballad of the Dragon of Wantley. Yet there are Days kept for all these, and Offices made for them, with Prayers to them, and to God, that we may be Saved by their Merits. Ther are Multitudes of the like, which you will find even to a Surfeit, the Devotions of the Roman Church, with their Breviaries, Missals, Legends, and Authors quoted at large. And can these Prayers be in Faith, to Persons that never were in Being, and for the Merit of Actions that were never done? This is a Means of Grace of our own Invention indeed!

Besides, many have been Canonized for Notorious Crimes, as our St. Thomas Becket of Canterbury, whose Merit was, that he would Exempt all Ecclesiasticks from the Secular Power, though even in Civil or Creminal Causes, which was called Asserting the Liberties of Holy Church, and it is fully Asserted in the Bulla in Cana. But not withstanding all these Authorities, it is a Wicked Principle, and dissolves all Civil Government, it Exempts from the King's Obedience the First of the three Estates of the Realm, which has or ought to have the greatest Instuence upon the

By the Right of a Mother, Command your Son. And her being called The Mother of the whole Trinity, in the Missal Polon. fol. 237. In the Primer or Office of the Bleffed Virgin Mary, Printed in English, 1699. (and in the Exposition before it is said to be of great Antiquity, and Composed by the Church, directed by the Holy Ghost) you will find many Prayers to the Virgin Mary, not only of Intercelsion-or Praying for us, but to Grant us Grace, Pardon of Sins, and Eternal Life, in as full and politive Terms as could be asked of God himfelf. See the Hymn, Memento rerum Conditor, p. 34, And Ave Maris Stella, p. 53. And the Prayer to her, p. 59. Under thy Aid - Sub tuum Prasidium — which is taken out of the Roman Pontifical in the Office for Confectating an Image of the B. Virgin, where we Pray for Aid, &c. from her Self directly, without mentioning any Intercession. Nay, they Bless in her Name, which was never done to any Creature. The Priesthood was Ordained by God, to Bless in his Name. No Apostle or Angel ever Blessed the People in his own Name. But in Deut. x. 8. this Primer, p. 16. You will See the Priest give the Blessing in these Words, The Virgin Mary, with her pious Son, Bless us. To which the People answers, Amen. Here the Principal Part is given to the Virgin, Her Son only Bleffes with Her, and She is first Named. But if She 和原数437.7.3

She be not preferred, yet She is here put upon the Level with Her Son, at least, and Bleffes the People Jointly with Him.

L. Why may not the Virgin Mary Bless as well as Angels? And we find that Gen. xlviii.16. Facob prayed the Angel might Bless his Grand-Sons.

G. That Angel was God, and so it is Expressed, God, before whom my Fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my Life long unto this Day, the Angel which redeemed me from all Evil, Bless the Lads. This Angel was Christ, who often Appeared before He took Flesh. He was the Angel which Wrestled with this same Jocob, and Blessed him. He was the Angel appeared to Moses in the Bush, and said, I am the God of Abraham, Go. which no Created Angel could have said. It was He who Appeared to Joshua as Captain of the Host of the Lord, and said, as Jos. v. 14, 15. before to Moses, Loose thy Shoe from off thy Foot, for the Place where-on thou standest is Holy, which no meet Angel ever said. So that this will be no Precedent for Blessing the People in the Name of the Virgin Mary.

Epiphanius reckons the Worship of the Virgin Mary, (not then so Rank) among the Heresies, under the Name of the Collyridians, who offered Cakes to

Jer. vii. 18. the Moon as Queen of Heaven, which is the same Name they give now to the Virgin, and she is Painted standing upon the Moon her Representative. Epiphanius Observes, that our Blessed Lord foreseeing the Superstition that would come into the World on Account of His Mother, treated her always at a Distance, never once called her Mother, no not upon the Cross, or by any other Appellation than that of Woman, and checking her Forwardness, said unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? She is as Joh. ii. 4. little Named as possible in the Gospels, where Christ pronounces a Grea- Luk. xi. 28. ter Bleffing to those that do His Word, than to the Womb that Bare Him: And the is not Reckoned among those who faw Him after His Resurrection. She is but once named in the Acts of the Apostles, and that upon no other Account than that the with other Women continued in the Communion of the Apostles after the Ascenfion of our Lord: But none of Acts or Her Miracles are Recorded, though Abundance in the Legends. And she is not once Named, upon any Account whatfoever, in any of the Epiftles. Strange! That this should be so forgot, which makes now so great a Part in the Devotions of the Church of Kome!

But ther is an Honour of an Extraordinary Nature paid to Her at the Head of all the Saints, in the Office of the Mass, where before the Consecration, the Elements are Offered up to God in Memory of the Passion, Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus Christ, and for the Honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary, &c. in Honorem beate Marix semper Virginnis. Did Christ then Suffer, Rise, and Ascend, for Her Honour? It was for the Honour and Glory of God indeed, but to thrust thrust Her in, or any of the Saints to share in this, looks a little too Familiar, and putting them, at least Her, near upon the Level with the Almighty, since more could not be said to Him.

And here we may see a good Reason why God would not have any Religious Worship paid to these, or any Ministers of His Kingdom, nor would be Worshipped with them; for he saw ther would be Encroaching, and coming nearer to Him than was fit for the Condition of Creatures. They would have a Share with Him. Nay, that they come at last to Advance these above God Himself, and Prefer the Saints even to Christ! As it has been said, That Christ did nothing which St. Francis did not do, yea, that he did more than they have Expunged this out of the Indices of their Works, that they might not be found by the People, who might take Offence to fee their Worship divided betwixt God and Creatures.

Was ther ever so shameless a Thing done by any Church as to take upon them to Correct and Alter the Fathers? it is plainly to [34.] Not only the Souls of the Saints in Heaven, but their dead Bodies or Bits of them, a Finger, a Toe, or a Tooth, or a Scrap of their Cloaths, a Girdle, or a Book, or any Thing elfe, that they used, are Worshiped, and made Means of Grace, and great Miracles said to be done by them.

L. Was not a Dead Man raised by touching the Bones of Elista?

2 King. iii.21.

G. Yes, God may work Miracles by what Means he pleases. But does this Confecrate the dead Body of every Saint to be a Means of Grace, and a Worker of Miracles? Many Miracles were wrought by the Rod of Moses; Is every Rod therefore a Means of Grace, either Ghostly or Bodily; Or may we Consecrate any Rod to be such a Means? Nothing is such a Means to us but what God has Commanded and Appointed to be Done, as Baptism and the Lord's Supper. It is the Institution, not an Example, that makes any thing a Means of Grace to us. Else we might go and imitate all the miraculous Actions of Moses, or of Christ and call them Means of Grace to us, because so used by them.

But as to the Reliques in your Church, many of them have been notoriously Detected, and it has been found out, That the dead Bodies, of Malefactors have been taken for the Reliques of them. The same Reliques of such a Saint, the Head, or Finger is shown in the Saints, and great Miracles laid to be done by and each Contend that theirs is the Right, and each have Miracles avouched for them. Many Instances of this, with Vouchers undeniable, you will find in The Devotions of the Romish Church. How then can you Worship fuch Reliques in Faith? without which it is a Sin.

[35.] But not only the Saints, and their Reliques, but their Images are with you made a distinct Means of Grace; for in the Consecration of the Image of a Saint, it is faid, That whoever shall Worship such a Saint, coram hac Imagine, before this Image, may obtain so and so, for which End the Image is Bleffed and Sanctified. So that it is not enough to Worship the Saint, but if I do it before such a Consecrated Image, I shall obtain more Grace then otherwise. This makes the Image it felf a Means of Grace, for ther is Vertue there. Why elfe would it not do as well to Pray, and not before such an Image? Why else indeed are such Images so formally Confecrated, if there be no Vertue in the Consecration! And why do Men go Pilgrimages, or fend Vows to Loretto, or any other distant Place, if they think ther is no Vertue in the Image there, more than in Forty of the same Sort which they may have at Home? And the Saint Represented by the Image is as near them in the one Place as in

G. No. My Lord, We are not fo Stingy. We scruple not Pictures for Ornament, but not for Worship, or for worshipping before them, as you speak. And we Honour the Saints departed, as far as we think Lawful, and, as we are verily Persuaded, as far as they Desire; since according to St. Augustin's Rule before mentioned, if they Accept our Adoration, it would Prove them to be Evil Spirits. And then you are to Confider, that instead of Intercessors, as you hope for by your Worship of them, they will vindicate themselves, and become your Accufers. But in our Honour of them, we first take Care not to specify any particular Person as a Saint, but who is so Recorded in Holy Scripture; for we understand not Canonizations by Men, who know not the Heart; in the next Place, we limit the Honour we pay them by the Rule of God's Commandments, which we suppose most Pleafing to them. We keep particular Holy Days for the Apostles St. John Baptist, St. Stephen, &c. We bless God for them, commemorate their Vertues, and pray, that we may follow their good Examples. We have One Day for all the Saints in General, and another for St. Michael and all Angels. Thus we Honour them, and for this we bear the Reproach of our four Diffenters, as if we were too much Inclining to Popery. You think we give too little Honour to the Saints, and they think we give too much! But we hope we keep the Mean. We abstain from the Pictures or Images of the Saints in our Churches, because they have been abused to Superstition, and to avoid Offence. But in Places not Dedicated to Worship, as in private Houses, we think them not Unlawful, more than the

Epiphanius was very zealous against having them brought into Churches, and tells John Bishop of Jerusalem, in a Letter translated by St. Jerom, that finding a Linnen Cloth hung up in a Church Door, (it is likely to keep out the Wind) whereon was a Picture of Christ, or of some Saint, he Tore it, and Ordered a dead Corps to be Buried in it. And he Lamented the Superstition he saw coming, by these Pictures and Images then beginning to Creep into the Church.

The Abuse of Things, the otherwise Lawful, which are not Instituted by God for Standing Means of Grace, as Baptism and the Lord's Supper, may justly take away the Use of them. Thus the Brazen Serpent was appointed by God as a Means of Grace for miraculous Cures in the Wilderness, and was Preserved until the Days of Hezekiah, but when they burned 2King.xviii.4. Incense to it, it became an Idol, was broke to Pieces and called by a Contemptible Name, Nehusban, that is, A Bit of Brass. How much more Reason is ther to Remove the Pictures and Images of Saints (which God never Appointed) out of our Churches, when we see Incense burned to them, and they Wor-ches, they WorWorshipped in your Churches, as Means of Grace. And yet there is no Evil in the Pictures themselves.

[36.] But ther is One Picture I think has Evil in it, and is Unlawful any where; and yet it is feen in your Churches, and commonly over the Altar, that is, the Picture or Image of God the Father, like an Old Man, &c. We are forbid to make it, and then we cannot Worship it. See how positively God forbids it, Take good beed unto your selves, for Deut. iv. 15. ye saw no manner of Similitude (that &c. is of God) in the Day that the Lord spake unto you - lest ye Corrupt your selves, and make you a graven Image, the Similitude of any Figure, the likeness of Male or Female, &c. And again, They changed Rom. i. 23. the Glory of the Uncorruptible God into an Image made like to Corruptible Man, &c.

L. Both these Texts are Quoted and Answered in our Catechism ad Parochos, upon the First Commandment, and the Answer is this, (a) That the Sin here forbidden is to Paint or Carve Imaginem Divinitatis, A Picture or Image of the Divinity, or of the Divine Nature.

G. Pray, My Lord, did you ever know a Painter or Statuary who Attempted to draw a Picture or make an Image of a Thought, or of a Soul?

L. No, for they cannot be seen. Pictures and Images are made for the Eye. How then can

I 3 a Like-

a Likeness or Similitude be drawn of what is Invisible?

G. And is not the Great God more Invisible, and the Divine Nature much more Incomprehenfible even to our Thoughts or Imagination? How then can it be Represented to our Eye? I dare fay, there never was a Man fince Adam who would own any fuch Thing, or ever had fo foolish a Thought. No, but when they drew any Picture or Similitude of God, it was only meant to express some of His Attributes or Perfections; as by Fire His Purity, by a Giant with Many Hands His Power, with Many Eyes, His Providence, &c. And so you own that by an Old Man you only mean to Express His Antiquity. And will not this Excuse the Heathen, as well as you? See the same Excuse made by Maximus Tyrius, Differt. 38. Whether Statues were to be made for the Gods? But here you would put an impossible Meaning upon the Probibition of God, to make it of no Effect, and which will Excuse the Heathens as much as your felves.

L. Our Catechijm ad Parochos (which is out Text) in the Place last Quoted, Sect. xxxiv. teaches us, That the Heathen when they made Images of Serpents, Beasts, &c. they Worshipped all these as God. Hac enim omnia tanquam Deum venerabantur. And that the Israelites thought the same of the Golden Calf, for that they said, These are the Gods that brought thee out of Egypt, and therefore that they were Idolators, because they thus (a) Change

G. It is very Abfurd to fay, That the Heathen thought their Images to be the Things of which they were the Images. That was Impoffible, for then they would not be the Images but the Things themselves. Who eversaid, that a Man's Picture was himself? Though they are called the Persons, as when we look upon Pi-Etures we say, This is such a Man, or such a Man: But if any should put it upon us, that we meant the Persons themselves, we must think them Idiots or School-men, that loved Distinctions and Wrangling. Maximus Tyrius in the Differtation before Quoted, tells us, that they had many Images of the same God, as of Venus, Diana, &c. and yet that they did not think there was more than one Venus or one Diana. Have not you Multitudes of the Pictures and Images, of the Virgin Mary? And yet you say not that ther is more than one fuch Virgin. Now the Heathen Worshipped their Images, and it you believe your own Catechism, you must think that they took every one for God, for Hac omnia, they worshipped all these as God!

And it is as ablurd to think that they took that Serpent or Beast whose Image they made to be God. Or if they meant not any particular Serpent or Ox (for Example) by the Image, they must think every Ox or Serpent to be God! But they were not so Ridiculous, as Maximus Tyrius, and all, as many of them as have wrote, will latisty you. But that they made Use of their Images only as Symbols, which being Dedicated to luch fuch a God, they thought that this God would afford his Presence with his Symbol, and by it secure to them his Favour and Protection. How near your Consecration comes to their Dedication of Images, I leave to your selves to judge. But you put such monstrous Things upon the Heathen, as they Disown, Detest, and Abhor. And yet you must do it, that your Case and theirs may not appear fo very like.

But you must draw in the Jews too, else all this will stand you in no Stead. And you have no Mercy upon them, you suppose them full as Ignorant as you have made the Heathen. They must believe that the Golden Calf, on the same Day they made it, to be the Great God Who made themselves and all the World, and to have brought them out of Egypt long before it felf was made! But the Jews will not let this go with you more than the Heathen. They were not quite so foolish. They had learned the Use of Images and Symbols in Egypt. And it is plain they did here Imitate it. They had feen Ofiris worshipped in Egypt, under the Figure of an Ox, from which they took the Figure of the Calf. And it was to secure God's Presence among them, upon the Supposed Loss of Moses, by whom they had Received their Law from God, and Directions from Him upon all Occasions. But Moses had been absent from them 40 Days, and took neither Meat nor Drink with him, so that they thought he had been quite Gone or Dead, and that they should never see him more. And then how should they do to Secure the Presence of God among them? And they took to this Way of an Image or Symbol of God, not that they for-fook God, but to take Care that He might not for sake them. And they meant His Worship in that of the Golden Calf. Therefore they Proclaimed the Dedication of it, (a) A Feast unto the Lord. And that it was wholly for the Want of Moses they did it, (by whom they had found, by long Experience, the Presence of God Secured among them) they themselves gave the Reason: (b) Up (said they) make us Gods which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the Man that brought us up out of the Land of Egypt, we Wot not what is become of him.

Pray, My Lord, let me ask you, suppose it were made Treason to draw a Picture of the King, or to Bow to it: Would you venture your Life upon all these Distinctions and Excuses which are made for the Pictures of God? Yet we venture our Souls upon it, if it be a Sin: And though we think it may be Beneficial to us, as putting us in Mind of Him, or paying Respect unto Him.

Now by this let us learn how Dangerous a Thing it is to make Means of Grace of our own Invention, and to think that by our Confecrations or Dedications, without Warrant of God's Word, we can secure his Presence with us, and Procure the Grace of Health or any Benefit either to Body or Soul. This is turning Religion into Superstition.

Christ said, This is my Body, but as to the Manner or Means how it was fo, He faid not a Word; whether only Sacramentally, Figuratively, or Symbolically: Or on the other Hand, whether Substantially, Con-substantially, or Trans-substantially. These are Inventions of our own, from our poor Philosophy! And yet about these is our whole Dispute; which has Tormented the Christian Church in our later Age more than all the other Mysteries of Religion. Had we kept to the Words of Institution as Christ left them, 'and gone no further, ther might have been various Opinions in the Schools concerning the Manner of the Presence of Christ, in the Sacrament; and they who had nothing elfe to do might have frent their idle Hours, and vain Distinctions about it: But it had never broke the Communion of the Church, if it had not been adopted into an Article of Faith, and made a Condition of Communion: And now we must dispute it. And the first thing I have to fay is, That it feems very strange ther should be any Dispute about it. For our Saviour was then fulfilling a Type of himself which was the Passover, and he kept to the same Phrase or Form of Words which was Customary with the Hews in their Celebration of it, only putting Himself in the Room of His Type, as instead of This is the Paschal Lamb which was slain for us in Egypt, He said, This is my Body which is given for you. it was with this Form of Words, (a.) This is the Blood of the Testament which God hath Enjoyned unto you. instead of which Old Testament, Christ faid, (b.) This is my Blood of the New Testament. In which Words ther is no Difficulty at all, for no Mortal ever understood these Words of Mofes in a Tranf-substantial Sense, and why should they the same Words when Christ spoke them, following the very Form of the Words of Moser? This made it Familiar and Easie to the Apostles, who called many Things Hard Sayings which were not fo Difficult as this, and yet Expressed no Wonder or Astonishment at these Words of Christ, which had been impossible for them not to have done, if they had taken them in the Sense of Trans-substantiation, for it was a new Thing never before Heard or Thought of in the World! To deny all their Senses at once!

L. I wonder you should stand so much upon this, you object your Senses and your Reason, and yet you must give them both up in the Mystery of the Trinity, Incarnation, &c.

G. No, My Lord, I must give neither of them up, for I cannot believe any Revelation but by my Reason, upon the Evidence that appears for it: And my Reason tells me that there must be many Things in the Infinite Nature which I cannot Comprehend, and therefore I acquiesce in the Revelation, being once fully satisfied of it. This I have Discoursed already. But for the other Point that of Contradicting my outward Senfes, I think it an Invincible Objection.

G. Not at all, My Lord, they Contradict none of my Senses. Pray tell me, which of them do they Contradict? Is it the Sense of Seeing, Hearing, or Smelling?

L. They are not Objects of Sense.

G. Therefore they Contradict them not. But in Trans-substantiation they are every one Contradicted. And I stand upon it, That since the Creation of the World, God never Did or Said any thing which Contradicted the Sense of any Man. It would be Destroying the Certainty of every thing. Miracles are Appeals to our Senses, and without believing our Senses, we can Trust to no Miracle, and Consequently to no Revelation.

L. I mean not a general Disbelief of our Senfes in every thing, but if a Revelation (you are satisfied is true) should bid you Disbelieve your

Senses, in such a Particular only

G. It is a needless Supposition, for ther is no such Revelation. But if there were, if an Angel should Appear to me, and bid me believe that I saw Him, but not to believe, any thing else that I saw Him, but not to believe, any thing else that I saw of a hundred things I saw round about him; I should without more a do either believe that I saw the other things I did see, or if I must not believe I saw them, I should not believe I saw Him. And I take it as a Certain Rule, that we must either believe our Senses in Every Thing or in Nothing. Had not the Apostles at the Lord's Supper as much Reason to Doubt whether it was Christ they saw, and that He spoke to them, as that it was Bread which they saw and Eat? If you come once to deceptio Visus, it will go quite through, and you cannot be sure of one thing more than of another; because the Fault is in the Eye, not in the Objects. So that if Trans-substantiation be true, ther is nothing else in the World true but it!

And it is no small Prejudice to this Miracle of Miracles, and Contradiction to it self and to all other Miracles, and to Every thing else in the World, That it should be put upon us just for — nothing — but to Stagger our Faith, and make us Doubt of Every thing!

For if all the Benefits of the Death of Christ be Conveyed to us in this Sacrament, by a Figurative and Symbolical Representation of his Body and Blood, and that it be so instituted for this End; it is to all Intents and Purposes as Beneficial to us, as if we had Eat the Flesh of Christ off his Bones, or Drank the very Blood, that came out of His Side; which is Abhorrent to think, and to Avoid which, you call this an Unbloody Sacrifice. But how is it Unbloody, if it be Real Blood? even the felf same Blood that was shed upon the Cross? Yet you your selves allow, that this must be taken in a Spiritual not a Carnal Sense, because Christ Himself said, speaking of this Sacrament (as you own) and to folve that hard faying at which many were offended, of giving them his Flesh to Eat, He made it easie to them by this Explanation, (a) It is the Spirit that Quickneth, the Flesh Profiteth nothing; the Words that I speak unto you they are Spirit, and they are Life. Here is sirst, the Cup for the Wine, by a Metonymie, called Continens pro Contento. Then the Cup being the New Testament, I suppose you will allow is another Figure. And it is another, to say which is shed, for which shall be shed, for his Blood was not then shed. This last Figure you have Boldly avoided in your Mass, where it is put Estandetur, shall be shed, instead of Essentium, or Essum, according to the Greek in xums posson. However the Two Former Figures stand Unalterable.

But to shew that the Words were Figurative, and that the Elements did not lose their Nature by the Consecration, they are called by their own Names after the Consecration, as the Wine is called the (b) Fruit of the Vine after the Consecration. And it is called Bread which they Eat in the Sacrament. And we are called Bread because we partake of that Bread. We are Bread by the same Figure that Bread is Flesh.

L. We believe that ther is no Bread in the Sacrament, but we are fure we are not Bread.

Is not this Destroying the Meaning of all Expressions, to take Words Figuratively or Literally just as you think sit, and contrary to the common Usage as understood in all other things?

L. No, it is not as we think fit, but as the Ancient Church and Fathers did Understand it.

Origen fays of it, that it goes into the Belly, like other Meat, and so into the Draught, but says he speaks (b) concerning the Typical and Symbolical Body of Christ in the Sacrament.

It was faid of the Body of Christ, that it (c) should not see Corruption. But we know the Sacrament will Corrupt, therefore it is not the Same.

Theodoret likewise calls it the (d) Symbols of the Body and Blood of Christ. And says, that (e) upon their Consecration they are Changed indeed, and

And writing against the Eutychians; who said that the Human Nature of Christ was Absorpt or Swallowed up in His Divinity, fo that ther Remained now none but the Divine Nature in Him, and that he was no more a Man, and used this Comparison, That it was in like Manner as in the Sacrament, where the Bread was Changed into the Body of Christ; (a) Yes, said Theodoret, it is in the same Manner, that is, in no Manner at all. for that the Bread though Changed in its Use and Significancy, yet lost not its Nature, but Remained truly and properly Bread as before. But had he believed Transubstantiation, this had been a full and absolute Confirmation of the Eutychian Herefy, instead of a Confutation; for then there had Remained no more of the Humane Nature in Christ, than you believe the Substance of the Bread to Remain in the Sacrament. This explains the Meaning of Theodoret, even beyond his Words, and he fays in the fame Place, That our Bleffed Saviour, Who called Himself the Living Bread and Wine, bath also honoured the Visible Signs with the Title and Appellation of His Body and Blood, not Changing their Nature, but adding to Nature, Grace. the west shall be a light to be a light to the training the Pope Gelasius says, (a) That the Sacraments of the Body and Blood of Christ, which we take, is a Divine thing, by which we are made Partakers of the Divine Nature. And yet it ceases not to be the Substance and Nature of Bread and Wine: And certainly (says he) the Image and Similitude of the Body and Blood is Celebrated in the Mysteries.

And Facundus says the same, (b) Not (says he) that the Bread is properly His Body, or the Cup His Blood; but that they contain the Mystery of His

And St. Augustin says, (c) If Sacraments did not bear some Similitude to the things of which they are the Sacraments, they would not be Sacraments at all: But from this Similitude, they often take the Name of the things themselves. — As says he, the Sacrament of Faith, Which is Baptism, is called Faith.

And St. Chrysostome speaking of the Vessels in which the Sacrament was put, (d) In which, says he, there is not the true Body of Christ, but the Mystery of His Body is Contained in them.

Institution, he sets down in every Century, the Words of the Fathers upon this Point. A little Book, long Printed both in English and Latin, not yet Answered (that I hear) and I believe Unaswerable, wherein you will see a Cloud of Witnesses, through the first Ages of the Church, and so downwards, in perfect Contradiction to this New Article of your Faith.

And as the Scriptures, primitive Church, and Fathers are all against you, so have you nothing in the World on your Side, but an Unintelligible Jargon of Metaphysicks, upon which the School-Men ring Changes, till the Noise of their Bells have deafen'd Common Sense and Reason. Such are their Subtilties upon Substance, Accidents, Subsistence, Modus's, and Modalities, and many more fuch Quiddities; and their Distinctions of Materialiter and Formaliter, per se & per Accidens, and a Thousand more, to Solve all Difficulties, and Reconcile Contradictions! No Absurdity can Be named out of the Reach of a Distinction. And when we Understand it not, it Operates most Effectually, because then we may suppose there is fomething in it! Pray, my Lord, let me ask you, Do you know the Difference betwixt Substance and Accident?

L. Substance is that which Sub stat, stands under or supports another thing, So the Substance stands by it self, and the Accidents do Adhere or Stick in it. Therefore we say, that Essentia Accidentis est Inharentia. that Inherence or In-sticking is the Essence or very Being of an Accident, so that there cannot be an Accident without it,

G. Now to Apply this, when the Substance of the Bread and Wine in the Sacrament is Gone, as you suppose, then their Accidents are no more, for there cannot be Accidents of Nothing, Nothing has no Accidents. And they cannot be the Accidents of Bread when there is no Bread. (a) And you will not Endure they should be called the Accidents, of the Body and Blood of Christ: Therefore they are the Accidents of Nothing, that is, they are Accidents and no Accidents: They are Accidents without the Essence of Accidents. which is Inherence: There is Roundness. and nothing Round, Whiteness and nothing White, a Taste and nothing Tasted, Liquidness and nothing Liquid, &c. And if these Accidents stand by themselves, why are they not Substances? For that is the Definition you give of Substance. If you say they stand by Miracles, then by Miracle they are Substances. And there is an End of the Fargon! But who sees not that Roundness without any thing Round, and the like which you call Accidents, are nothing at all in Nature, but Abstracted Notions of our own Heads, Creatures of our making, which, like Ens Rationis, have no Ex-K 2

L. Notwithstanding your Ridiculing Philosophy, you will not say, that we can See the Substance of any thing. But that whatever comes under our outward Senses, that is, whatever can be Seen, Felt, Heard, Smelled, or Tasted, are only the Accidents of things.

G And the same Philosophy will tell me that neither can Accident be Seen, Felt, &c. For Example, a Round or a White thing is a Substance, but the Roundness or the Whiteness are the Accidents; Now I cannot See or Feel, Roundness or Whiteness, they are only Conceptions in my Mind, and come not under any of my outward Senses, they are too Thin to bear either my Sight, Smell, Touch or Tast. Nay, I will say that they are beyond my Imagination too, for who can Think of Roundness or Whiteness, without some Thing that is Round or White? Therefore if I See or Feel any Thing, it is the Substance I See or Feel, that is, fome Thing which is Round or White. What Colour, Tast or Smell, has Insticking or Inherence? For that is Accident. It is more like Bread than a Tulip? Thus easily may we Dispute our selves not only out of our Senses, but out of our Thoughts too: And the Miracle of Accidents without Substance, must not only work upon our Senses, but give us New Thoughts, new Conceptions, which never never before came into the Head of Mortal Man! This is that Phylosophy and Vain Deceit or Fallacy which the Apostle says (a) will Spoil or Hurt our Faith, Doting about Questions and Strifes of Words—Perverse Disputings—and Oppositions of Science falsly so called: which some Professing, have Erred concerning the Faith.

But if you are in Earnest about this Logick of Substance and Accident, will you lay a good Wager upon it.

G. Nor ought to be, if you had let them stay there. But when you will bring them out of your Schools into your Creed, and make them Articles of Faith, you do as good as take your Oath upon the Certainty of them; and you Guard them with Anathema's, and it is Impossible you can believe Trans-substantiation, or know any thing of it, unless you be perfectly Skilled in the Nature and Difference of Substance and Accident, and how far their Powers do Reach. You must Distinguish between Substantiation, Consubstantiation, and Trans-substantiation, and Determine whether the Nature of Accidents will best Agree with Sub, Con, or Trans.

L. I trouble not my Head with any of these things, but I believe as the Church believes, and there is an End of it.

G. Can you believe as the Church believes, without knowing what She believes? This is believing Nothing, It is Implicit indeed! At this Rate you need but one Article of your Creed, to believe the Holy Catholick Church, And all the Rest may go off Implicit, though you should know nothing of any other of the Articles. And what a Man knows nothing off, he can give no Reason for. But St. Peter bids us (a) be ready always to give an Answer to every Man that asketh us a Reason of the Hope (or Faith) that is in us. Which Supposes our Understanding it our selves, and not an Implicit Faith in others, of we know not what.

So that if you make Trans-substantiation an Article of your Faith, you are obliged to understand it aright.

But there is something yet more Terrible behind, for if there be no Trans-substantiation, then you Worship Bread and Wine, with Latria, by which you mean the Supreme Worship due to God alone.

Nay tho' Trans-substantiation were Granted, and fully understood, yet it is Impossible for any Man to know whether he Worships plain Bread and Wine, or the Body and Blood of Christ? Because in the Rubrick of the Mass, de Defectibus circa Missan, there are several Cases put wherein the Confecration is void, and ther is no Sacrament made, and then ther is Nothing there but plain Bread and Wine. One of these Cases is, if ther be a greater Mixture of any other Grain, than of Wheat in the Wafer, Another is, if the Wine be made of Sour Grapes, or Grapes not Ripe, Si Vinum fit ex Uvis acerbis, vel non Maturis, which is pretty hard to know for the People, who never Tast it, or the Worshippers who See or Tast neither but only a Pixis or a Cup they look not into: And in both these Cases (besides others) it is said, Non conficitur Sacramenium, ther is no Sacrament made. And so it is said if the Intention of the Priest be wanting, which is Imposfible to know: Upon which Head they put a pleasant Case, as Suppose a Priest Intends to Confecrate Ten Waters (for Example) and after Confecration ther be found Eleven or more, then None of them are Confecrated, because the Intention going only to Ten, it cannot be known which these Ten are. But if there be Nine or fewer, they are all confecrated, because the Intention going to Ten, it Includes all within that Number. Besides you must take it wholly upon Trust, whether there be any Consecration at all; because your Priests do not Consecrat before the People when they Administer the Sacrament, but at Set times they Consecrat Numbers of Wafers together, which they Referve for Occasions, and for daily Worship. Again it is said in some Cases, Dubium est an conficiatur Sacramentum, that it is Doubtful whether the Sacrament is made or not. And what shall we do in this Case? Is it a K 4 Doubt

L. If ther should be a Mistake in any of these Matters, and we Worship meer Creatures, not knowing it, for which we have been Charged with Idolatry, we have an Answer ready, That this could amount to no more than Material Idolatry, but it could not be Formally so, while our Intention was Right, and we Mean our Worship to God.

G. These School-Distinctions are Cobwebs, and well bear no Weight, for Material Idolatry is Idolatry, else it were not Matirial Idolatry. And if our Intention will folve it, it will folve it also to the Heathen, who Directed their Worship and Referred it Ultimately to the true God, as has been shewn. But I hope you will not make Solomon so stupid as you have made the Heathen, and to think that he believed (a) Ashteroth the Goddess of the Zidonians, and Milcom the Abomination of the Ammonites and the other Gods of the Nations whom he Worshipped, to be every one of them the one only Supreme God! Yet he is Charged with Idolatry, whether Material or Formal is not the Question, nor is there a Word of it in the Scriptures for Idolatry is Idolatry, let it be of what fort it will. And these Distinctions are only to Excuse it, and let it lose among us. God has forbidden it Generally, of every Kind and Sort. Creature: And they were so far from Disowning the True God, that it was His Honour they pretended in denying Divinity to Christ. So of the Socinians, and our Unitarians among us, who give themselves that Name for their Supporting the Unity of the Godhead. Yet they are Charged with Idolatry for Worshipping Christ as an Inferior God. And they have the same Distinction as you of Lutria and Dulia, a higher and a lower Degree of Worship. But all Religious Worship is forbidden to any but to God alone. These Degrees of it are of Humane Invention, to Excule of our Breach of the Commands of God. But we are to keep far from the Forbidden thing. not Try how Near we can come to it, by Distinctions of our own Coyning. We ought to make a Hedge about the Law, as the Phrase of the Fews was, to Guard against any Approaches towards the Breach of it. Or in the Apostle's Words, to (a) Abstain from all Appearance of Evil. And Remember that we venture our Souls upon these Distinctions. Which then are in the Safest Way, we who follow the Direct Rule of God's Commandments as they are plainly laid down to us in Holy Scripture, without (b) Turning to the Right Hand or to the Left, without either Adding to them, or Diminishing from them, as we are Commanded: Or you who Distinguish the plainest Precepts, and make them speak Metaphysicks?

By

By which the Worship of the Devil may be Justified, for it is Plain that when he offered to our Saviour all the Kingdoms of the World, he meant not that he was the Supreme God, and Sovereign Disposer of them, but only as having Received this Power from the Sovereign Dispoler, for he said, (a) That is delivered unto me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it. And it is as Plain by the Answers our Saviour gave him, Thou Shalt Worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve. That all Sort of Religious Worship was forbidden to be given to Any but to God only. And S. Augustine makes all to be Devils who Require or Accept it: Latria and Dulia fignifie both the same thing, that is Service, and here all Religious Service is Referved to God only. The Distinction of the Schools is vain, and meant only to Elude the Commands of God, and Introduce all Superstition.

Ther are other unworthy Cases put in the Rubrick of the Mass, which flow from hence, as it a Dog or a Mouse should eat the Sacrament—

If the Priest should Vomit it up again, in which Case, he is to Lick it up Reverently, unless it be Nauseous, (that was well put in) and then it is to be Disposed of so and so. And here, My Lord, let me observe, That the Natural Effect of Superstition is Atheism, or Deism. As one Extreme runs into another, like East to West. For Men of Sense must find out the Deceit that is it Superstition, and then placing all Religion on the same Foot (as in your Communion upon the Authority of your Church) they must think the whole to be a Deceit, or in the Modish Word, Priest-Craft, and the Contrivance of those who Gain by it. Whence it is, that the Holy Scriptures and the Legends have the fame Foundation in the Church of Rome, that is, her Authority; therefore the Common People believe them both alike, and the Men of Sense believe neither. And this does so lead towards the General Defection foretold, that in a great Meafure it is it; for it destroys the Foundation of Religion, and turns it all to Superstition. And when the Infidelity which that begets shall come to be Publickly owned, then where shall Faith be found upon the Earth? It is now Acted in the Opus Operatum. And instead of the Two Sacraments which Christ has Appointed as a Means of Grace, the whole Face of your Religion is covered with ten Thousand of your own Invention. The Unlimited Power taken in your Church of Confecrating every thing into a Means of Grace, your Worship of Saints (many of them Legendary) their Reliques and Images, of Crosses, and of the Host, make up the Bulk of your Religion and Devotions. [38.] But [38.] But not only the Host, or Body of Christ supposed to be Corporally in the Sacrament, but the Cross of Christ, or any Effigies of that Cross; and the Images of Christ, are Worshipped in your Church with the Supreme Divine Adoration of Latria. As is told us by a Great St. of your Church, whom you call the Angelical Doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas, who says that (a) Crux Christi est Adoranda Adoratione Latria. And again, Crucis Effigies in aliqua alia Materia — Latria adoranda est. And in the Roman Pontifical it is ordered, that in the Procession of the Emperor and a Legate of the Pope, the Legate's Cross shall be carried on the Right Hand of the Emperor's Sword, because (b) Latria is due to the Cross.

And in the Adoration of the Cross upon Good-Friday, (which is the Principal Part of the Office for that Day) the Gross being Veiled, is Discovered to the People by Degrees, first one Arm of the Cross, then another, and at last the whole Gross is Unveiled: And at each time the Priest says, Ecce lignum Crucis, Behold the Wood of the Gross: And the People answer Adoremus, Let us Worship: And then the Priests first, and afterwards the People come upon their Knees and pay their Adoration to the Gross. And Remember that it is the Adoration of Latria which they give to it.

If then ther be but one Latria, and the same that is paid to Christ and to His Images, it will Justify what James Naclantus, Bishop of Clugium Writes in his Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans, chap. 1. (c) That the Faithful ought not only to Worship before an Image (as some perhaps out of Caution speak) but to Worship the Image it self, without any Scruple at all; and with the same Sort of Worship as the Proto-tipe or whom it Represents; and if that is to be Worshiped with Latria, so its Image with Latria, if with Dulia, or Hyperdulia, so the Image is to be Worshiped with the same Worship.

Pains to know what is become of it. They might as well ask what is become of the Parings of His Nails! Whither will Superstition run? They had it at Antwerp, but the Hereticks took it away. From thence it travelled by many Miracles to the Church of Saint John Lateran at Rome, and how it was thence Translated to the Church of Cornelius and Cyprian at Calcata, about Twenty Miles from Rome, I have read the Account at large in a Book in Folio, Intitled, De Basilica & Pariarchio Lateranensi, ad Alexand. Christ's foreskin and blest Sandals are kept bere; And what was cut from off his Navel dear.

I suppose they meant the Cutting of His Navel String. And His Sandals (though it is not faid that He wore any, He is always Painted bare-foot) will come in here too for Latria, for the same Reason which T. Aquinas gives for Latria as due to the Cros, (a) propter Membrorum Christi contactum, because it Touched the Body of Christ. Then all his Clothes must come in for the fame Reason, and the Nails and Spear that pierced Him. And why not the Spittle that was thrown in His Face? For the Crofs was as much his Enemy (as far as Wood could be) as any of the other, or the Spittle it self. and I know not why the Crucifiers should not be Admitted too, though they touched Him with a Hostile Mind, as some have Sainted Judas, because he was an Instrument in our Redemption. For ther is no Stop in Superstition more than in other Arts.

But I must not forget my Friends the School-Men upon this Occasion, they Dispute, that the Foreskin being of the Intireness of the Body, it must have been Reunited to the Body, of Christ upon His Resurrection, else that the Intire Body did not Arise. (b) Suarez therefore Concludes, that the Body of Christ at the Resurrection had a Foreskin, and has now in Heaven. But what then will he do with that Foreskin which is shewed in the Church here below? He says, that the Foreskin belongs to the Intireness of the Body, non Formaliter, sed Materialiter, not Formally, but only Materially, and so the business is made up! But he adds, that Innocent iii. did call in Question the Truth of this Foreskin upon Earth. Is it a Question then? And do the People still pay Latria to it? How comes this to be Suffered in the Church? In the Church that is Infallible!

But several Parcels of the Blood of Christ Shed upon the Cross are likewise shewed, and (a) Cressey quotes Matth. Paris for a Signal Testimony of it.

To this fays (b) Aquinas, that whatever belongs to the Nature of an Humane Body was wholly in the Body of Christ when He arose, as His Flesh and Bones, and His Blood, and that intirely without any Diminution, otherwise (says he) it had not been a perfect Resurrection. And afterwards, (c) that all the Blood which flowed from the Body of Christ, Rose again in His Body. But as for that Blood (says he) which is preserved in some Churches for Reliques, it did not flow from Christ's Side, but is said to flow Miracously from a certain Image of Christ that was pierced. Yet the People pay Latria to it, Grounded wholly upon a Legend 1-And Aquinas gives no further Assurance of it, than that it was said. Is not this Worshipping in Faith! What Blood was that which came out of the Image? Was it Christ's Blood? And how was it made so? Was it Trans-substantiated, or was it Blood Materially, though not Formally? Or had it only the Colour of Blood, the Accidents remaining without the Substance? Vasquez comes pretty near this, when he says, (a) That no Portion of the Blood of Christ did remain on Earth under the Form of Blood, but only underits Colour, amissa Forma Sanguinis, having lost the Form of Blood.

G. Yet this Article of your Faith, that is, Trans-substantiation, is nothing else, as I have (I hope) made it plain. And I will shew you another Instance wherein you follow them too, and are grossy Missed by them, that is, the Dissinction of Concomitancy.

L. What is that? I know it not.

Commandments, and making to our felves Means of Grace which he has not instituted. What I am to speak of now is an Error on the other hand, that is of Substracting from his Institutions, and the Means of Grace which He has Appointed. I mean in taking away the Cup from the Laity in the Holy Sacrament. Christ Instituted the Sacrament of His Body and Blood as an Effectual Means of Grace, calling it the Communion of his Body and Blood. Particularly of the Cup it is faid, (a) The Cup of Blessing which we Bless, is it not the Communion of the Blood of Christ? And that we all partake of the Cup, according to feveral Manuscripts of your own Vulgar Latin, Omnes de uno Pane, et de uno Calice participamus. that the Laity might not think themselves Deprived of this so Beneficial a Means of the Greatest Grace, the Schools have Invented a Distinction they call Concomitancy, which is, That in all Flesh there is some Blood goes along, or is Concomitant with it, so that whoever Eat the Flesh partake also of the Blood.

L. And is not that True?

G. Really, My Lord, I know not. But I am fure it is a Nicety. For Flesh may be so dried that no Blood should appear in it, and in a Wafer there can be None, without having Recourse to Miracle. I think it is making too Bold to throw off the Institution of Christ, upon such Imaginations of our own; which Imply that there was no need of the Institution of the Cup; for if it be not Necessary Now, it was not So Then. It was therefore Necessary, says the Apostle. But whatever Blood may be Concomitant in the Flesh, yet here is no shedding of it Expressed in the Wafer.

G. But when the Hostia is carried in Procesfion, as upon Corpus Christi Day, or frequently to the Sick, there is no Cup; nor does the Priest himself Communicate. But however, if the People are to Partake of the Sacrifice, as it was under the Law, here they are Defrauded of Half of it! And they are as much Commanded to Partake of the Cup as of the Bread. And the Church may as well take away the Bread, and leave only the Cup, and fay, that the Flesh is Contained in the Blood, as well as the Blood in the Flesh. Strange Power of Church! What Institution of God can stand at this Rate? Suppose the Fews had neglected to pour out or Sprinkle the Blood of their Sacrifices as Commanded, and faid it was Sufficient that it was by Concomitancy in the Flesh, would this Distinction have served in that Case? And why not as well as in this?

It is observable that Christ, as foreseeing this L 2 taking taking away of the Cup from Many, added the Word All to the Drinking of the Cup, (a) Drink ye All of it. And it is said, they All Drank of it. It is not said so of the Bread.

L. Ther were None there but the Apostles.

So that this Refers not to the Laity.

G. So you may say of the Bread, and Take That too from the Laity by the same Rule, and you take the Cup from the Priests who do not Officiate. But Christ said to the People to the Laity, (b) Except ye eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and Drink His Blood, ye have no Life in you. And this is Understood by all you of the Church of Rome as spoken of the Sacrament.

L. (c) Bellarmin says, That the And there And drink, is to be understood as an Or, that is Except ye either Eat or Drink.

G. That is to say, I may Understand all the Ands in the Creed to be Ors, and instead of I believe this, And this, And this, I may say, I believe this, Or this, Or this, so that if I believe any One Article, it is sufficient, though I believe never another. If you send your Servant to Market, and bid him bring Beef and Mutton and Pork, and he buys only Beef, and says, he Understood all your Ands for Ors. And so if you bid him bring so much Meat and so much Drink, and he brings only the Meat, for the same Reason — Thus we may easily get over all the Commands of God, and give the Reverse to (d) Saint James, that he who offends in one Point is Guilty of all. (b) If it be but a Man's Testament (saith St. Paul) yet if it be Consirmed, no Man Disannulleth, or Addeth thereto. This Holy Sacrament was the last Testament which Christ left to His Church, instituted the Evening before He entered upon His Sacred Passion. Therefore Pope Gelasius had Reason to call it [c] Sacrilege in any who should Mutilate this Sacrament, and Commanded that they who would not Drink of the Cup, should be Denied the Bread too.

L. This was only to Discover the Manicheans, who would not Drink of the Cup, for other Reasons than the Church of Rome had to take it from the Laity.

G. I never heard a tolerable Reason for it except because they were Laity! But the Dispute is not about the Reasons for it, but the Thing it self. To take away the Cup is to Mutilate the Sacrament: And that is Sacrilege by Gelasius his Determination.

And this last Testament of our Lord, which was Confirmed by the Practice of the Church for Fourteen Hundred Years was Mutilated by the [a] Council of Constans, and the Cup taken from the Laity, with a Non-Obstante as well to the Institution of Christ, as the Practice of the Primitive Church? It was Declared no Sacrilege; and the Priest was Excommunicated who should Communicate the Laity under Both Kinds.

The Council of Trent [b] likewise puts in its Caveat to the Institution of Both Kinds, and that notwithstanding the Laity must be Excluded from the Cup. And they make it a Heresie to say, that Whole Christ is not under Each Species. Then the Flesh is as much in the Blood, as the Blood in the Flesh. And it is all one which Species we take. But since the Body and Blood of Christ were Separated at his Death, and He ordained them to be so Separated in the Sacrament of it, I see not how We can take away Either Part, upon the Account of their not being Separated.

L. Our Catechism ad Parachos gives Six Reasons for taking away the Cup, (c) First, The Danger of Spilling it. Secondly, Of its turning Sour. Thirdly, and Fourthly, For our Health, because some could not bear the Taste or Smell of Wine, without being Sick. Fifthly, That Win was very Dear in some Places, And the Sixth, That we might believe Whole Christ to be under each Species. Gerson's Reason about the Long Beards of the Laity, before Mentioned, comes under the first of these Heads concerning Spilling.

G. Now, My Lord, I leave it to your felf, Whether these Reasons be not very Childish, or are of Weight to Maim the Institution of Christ?

Ther must no Comparison be made betwixt the Body and Blood of Christ, as to Preserence, or which is most valuable: But our Redemption is oftner Attributed in Holy Scripture to His Blood than to His Body. We are Saved by His Blood—Propitiation through His Blood—by the Sprinkling of His Blood—&c.

L. Ther is Mention made sometimes of the breaking of Bread, when ther is nothing said of the Cup; and this we make use of as an Argument that the Cup is not Necessary. This is mainly Insisted upon in our Catechism, the Chap. you just now Named, Sect. lxix, And Joh. vi. 51. is Quoted, I am the Living Bread——if any Man eat of this Bread——And the Bread I will give is my Flesh.

G. We take not this to be spoke of the Sacrament, but of Faith in Christ, here Expressed by Eating, that is, Spiritually, as Himself explains it, ver. 63. It is the Spirit that Quickneth, the Flesh prositeth Nothing: The Words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are Life. But let it be taken of the Sacrament, as you do, you will find the Blood Joined with the Flesh, in the next Words, ver. 53. Except ye Eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and Drink His Blood- as before Quoted: And again. ver. 54. Whoso Eateth My Flesh, and Drinketh My Blood—and ver. 55. For My Flesh is Meat indeed, and My Blood is Drink indeed. And ver. 56. He that Eateth My Flesh and Drinketh My Blood — Is not the Blood here Named with the Flesh! But if it were not, ther are a Hundred Places, as I now observed, where the Blood of Christ is Named as Cleansing, as Redeeming us, &c. without any Mention of His Flesh or Body: Are they therefore Excluded? This is such a Sort of Reasoning, as if I invite you to Eat with me, you must have no Drink to your Dinner, because it was not Named. But if by Eating we commonly mean the Whole Meal, and Drinking is likewise Included, this Criticism upon the Lord's Supper, of calling it Eating, will Appear what it is, and not be thought Sufficient to Exclude the Cup in the Sacrament. And other Foundation you have none in Scripture. But if I once call it Eating the Lord's Supper, and several times call it both Eating and Drinking, will not the Latter explain the Former? Or will Eating exclude Drinking, though Drinking be expressly Named? To Eat the Lord's Supper is the only Phrase we use, I never heard any Body call it Drinking the Supper: And you may thence Prove, that we have not the Cup in our Sacrament, as well as that the Apostles had it not, because it is said they Eat Bread, or broke Bread. But I have Over-Laboured this Point, because you lay so much Stress upon it.

I will now shew you another Restriction your Church has made upon the Institutions of God.

As

As she has taken the Cup from the Laity, so has she taken another of your Sacraments, that is, Marriage from the Clergy. I pals by the Politick Views and Advantages the Court of Rome has in this, as giving the Pope the more Absolute Command and making Him in Effect Heir of all the great Possessions of the Clergy, for the Canon Law obliges the Regular Bishops not to Dispose of their Estates by [a] Will, and the other Clergy not to be too Liberal of their Alms in their fickness. And what they leave, the Pope disposes of as Grand Treasurer of the Church. But waving all this, I will Insist now only upon what Relates to Conscience. You reckon it a Defilement in your Church for a Clergy-Man to Marry. No great Compliment to the Married State, which yet was Instituted of God in Paradise while Man was in his Innocence. And the Apostle says, [b] Marriage is Honourable in All, and the Bed Undefiled. And forbidding to Marry is Reckoned one of the [c] Doctrines of Devils. And Directions are given how a Bishop should Govern his Wife and Children, [d] for if a Man know not how to rule his own House, how shall he take Care of the Church of God? Yet your Interpreters would have this Wife and this Houle to be the Church! St. Peter was a Married Man, and forfook not his Wife after he was an Apostle, but [e] led her about with him as other Apostles did. And that in the Primitive Church the Clergy did Marry is plain from Socrates his Eccles. Hist. lib. 1. cap.

But Hildebrand was not Obeyed in this in England for above a Hundred Years after; for our ancient Records fay, (a) All these Decrees availed nothing, for the Priests by the King's Consent still had their Wives as formerly. And Gregory the Great said, (b) That it was lawful for such of the Clergy as could not contain, to Marry. And Pius the Second said the fame, (c) That they may be allowed to Marry. And your great Canonist Panormitan says, (d) Ther is as great Reason to allow Priests to Marry Now, as ever ther was to Restrain it. Let St. Bernard bear Witness in his Time what Reason ther was for Allowing it, he says, (e) Ther are many who cannot be bid for their Multitude, nor do seek to be Concealed through their Impudence, who, being Restrained from the Nuptial Remedies, run into all Filthiness. And another says, (f) That few in those Days were free from Fornication. And Matthew Paris tells us that the Pope thought it almost a Miracle that a Candidate for a Bishoprick was faid faid to be a Pure Virgin. Whence the Gloff. ad Gratian in the Place just before Quoted, calls (a) Fornication but a Venial Sin. And it is Tollerated if not Allowed (b) However it was Reckoned a less Sin in a Priest than Marriage. For this Reason, Deadly Sin is added to Fornication in our Litany. But why was Calibacy enjoined to the Priests? And why Marriage a greater Sin than Fornication? Because the first is a Breach of the Command of the Church, and the Latter of the Command of God! And the Difference of the Punishment of these in your Church, shews that she thinks so; for a Priest committing Fornication comes off for a small Pennance, whereas if he Marries he is Degraded. May we not then say to the Church of Rome as Christ to the Church of the Jews in a Parallel Case? (c) Full well ye Reject the Commandment of God, that ye may keep your own Tradition.

But if Marriage be such a Defilement as is Unworthy a Priest, how came you to make a Sacrament of it? I suppose you cannot mean less by a Sacrament than a Means of Grace, you have made many less things so, as is shewed before. And would you Deprive the Clergy of any Means of Grace? Or is it your Modesty to put them upon the Level with the Laity for Depriving them of the Cup in the Sacrament of Christ's own Insti-

All Sober Christians, and even the Heathen, look upon Marriage as a Preferver and not a Breach of Chastity. St. Peter calls it a [b] Chaste Conversation. If it were not so, we may presume that Christ would not have Honoured it with His own Presence, and with His first Miracle, nor made it so frequently as he does, the Type and Representation of Heaven, and of His Union with the Church, calling Himself the Bridegroom and Her His Spouse.

The Apostle says, [c] to avoid Fornication, let every Man have his own Wife, and every Woman ber own Husband. No, fay you, we Except all the Clergy, the Friers and the Nuns, whom we have put under Vows to the Contrary. And we will find other Means for them to obtain the Grace of Continency! and Confirmation of our Religion, as in the Case of the Prophets and Apostles, Confessors and Martyrs: Or to Correct and Recal Obstinate Sinners, many have been Resormed by this Means: But all these Reasons respect this Life only. For you say not that Souls are made better in Purgatory, for you suppose them to die in the Love of God, and to be in His Favour, before they go thither. And why then are they Punished, since they are not purished by it?

L. To satisfy the Vindicative Justice of God.

G. That is satisfied before they are Forgiven and Received into the Favour of God. Unless you mean by Vindicative such a Spite and Revenge as is feen among the most Ignoble Part of Mankind, to fay, I will forgive, but I will at the same Time be Revenged for what is past. Which indeed is not Forgiveness, but a plain Unwillingness to forgive. God fays, He will not (a) Remember our Sins, that they shall not be Mentioned unto us, in the Day when we turn from our Wickedness. And how is that confistent with enduring the Pains of Hell for a Hundred, perhaps a Thousand Years for ought we know? and how do we know what Souls go to Purgatory? How long they Remain there? G. So it is in all Superstition very Pious, and that is it which Deceives. But God has Required that our Zeal to Him should be (a) according to Knowledge. And that we (b) intrude not into things we have not seen. We have not seen any Revelation of Purgatory, or the State of Souls there.

And they are much oftner taken in the Bad Senle throughout the New Testament (c) Ye have made the Commandment of God of none Effect by your Tradition— Holding the Tradition of the Elders—Laying aside the Commandment of God, ye hold the Tradition of Men—Ye Reject the Commandment of God, that ye may keep your Tradition—(d) Vain Deceit, after the Tradition of Men—Your vain Conversation received by Tradition from your Fathers, &c.

Yet ther is a Tradition which (for the Evidence of it) we are willing to admit, that is, according to the Rule of Vincentius Livinensis, Quod semper ubique, & ab omnibus, That which was always received every where, and by all. And we are willing to join Issue with you upon this Tradition as to Purgatory. This is Universal Tradition. And you would not desire we should be

But Veron in his Rule of Faith (a Book much Applauded in France, and put into English for the Use of the Roman Catholicks here) sets out in the Beginning with a Definition of the Rule of Faith, of which he makes the first Requisit to be for any Article of Faith, that it be clearly Revealed in Scripture (and by no pretended Revelation since to any whatsoever) in express Words, or thence to be deduced by Necessary Consequence. Which when made appear as to Purgatory (or any other of the Doctrines in Dispute) we shall readily allow it. And till then, we cannot be Arraigned of Heresy for not Professing to Believe it.

This intruding into things we have not seen, proceeds, as the Apostle observes, from a [a] Fleshly Mind, Measuring Spiritual things by Carnal. We see it takes time to Purge the Flesh of Difeafes and Defilements it has contracted, and it takes a great deal of Filing and Scrubbing to Cleanse Iron that has been long Rusted. Hence we conjecture the same as to Souls departed, that they must be Purged by Fire. But the Work of God upon the Soul, when He grants true Faith and Repentance Operates far otherwise, it Effects the Cure all at once, as with those who looked upon the Brazen Serpent. Our Saviour Himfelf (b) makes the Comparison. And he (c) gave us an Example of it in the Thief upon the Cross, who Quoted out of St. Augustine.

But what Creature dare plead Purity before God? (a) Behold He chargeth His Angels with Folly; and He putteth no Trust in His Saints; yea, the Heavens are not Clean in his Sight. How much more Abominable and Filthy is Man, who drinketh Iniquity like Water? And what is Man that he should be Clean? And he that is born of a Woman, that he should be Righteous! And if (b) all our Righteousnesses are as filthy Rags. If there be (c) Iniquity in our Holy things, in the Holy San-Etuary and Altar What then is Clean? (d) And if the Righteous themselves shall scarcely be saved, what Merits have they to spare for others? Especially when they are not faved even by their own Works. (e) For by Grace ye are faved - not of Works, lest any Man Should boast. Can any Man then boast of his Works, as not only sufficient for his own Salvation, but over and above as Meritorious to be Applied to others, and to Deliver Souls out of Purgatory? No, My Lord, the Saints make no fuch Boafts. And will Disown all those who make them in their Name. For they know that (f) All have Sinned, and come trook all those who Apply to their Merits, and short of the Glory of God; being Justified freely by His Grace, through the Redemption that is in Fefus Christ.—Where is Boasting then? It is Excluded. By what Law? Of Works? Nay, but by the Law of Faith. And every Man is Saved by his own Faith, not by the Faith of others. And God will (a) Reward every Man according to his Works, not the Works of others. Miserable then is the Condition of those Souls supposed to be in Purgatory, if they must not thence be Delivered but by Works of Supererogation, when No Man can be faved by his own Works, for We are faved-- (b) Not according to our Works, but according to the Grace of God in Christ Fesus. (c) Not by Works of Righteousness which we have done, but according to His Mercy He saved us --- through Jesus Christ our Saviour. We have no other Saviour, nor can be Saved by the Merits of any other. None other can Merit from God. The greatest Saint that ever was is laved only by Mercy, and the Forgiveness of his Sins. Let us therefore not Trust to the Supererogated Works of those, which were not able to fave themselves. (d) That every Mouth may be stopped, and all the World may become Guilty before God. (e) For in His Sight shall no Man living be Justified. Ther is none Righteous, no not one.

But besides all this, ther are Degrees of Glory in Heaven. So that if any could Supererogate, yet has he nothing to spare to others, because he has Received the full of his Reward himself.

G. Some few among the Fathers you may, but none in Scripture. But what were these Prayers? They were for Peace and Rest to those who were Supposed to be in Peace, yet might receive Increase of Happiness even before the Refurrection, As some suppose Heaven it self to Confift in an Eternal Increase of Bliss. But without this, We may pray for the Continuance of Peace to those who are in Peace, though we know it will furely be; as when we Pray Thy Kingdom Thy Will be done. We know it must be, but this shews our Assent and Wishes for it. And in this Sense we also Pray for the Dead, That it would please God, (a) shortly to Accomplish the Number of his Elect and to hasten His Kingdom, that we, with all those that are Departed in the true Faith of His Holy Name, may have our perfeet Consumation and Bliss, both in Body and Soul, in bis Eternal and Everlasting Glory. I have shewed wherein the Unity of the Church did Confift, according to the Institution of Christ, and as the Primitive Fathers Understood it, that is, an Unity in Faith, and in the Mutual Love and good Correspondence of Christians and Sister Churcher; though one Sifter must be Elder than another, and Rome was not the Eldest: One might be Greater or more Powerful than another, and this did vary, according to the Course of this World; Ferusalem was at first the only Church of Christ, then Antioch became the Greatest of the Gentile Church, where Christianity first Received its Name, afterwards Rome became the Greatest, from being the Seat of the Roman Empire, but Con-

And this was it which Broke the Unity of the Sifter Churches, and filled them with Schisms and Divisions among themselves, one Affecting Superiority over another, and Encreasing it to an Absolute Temporal Dominion. Of which Christ said to the Apostles, (a) It shall not be so among you. And again, (for they Contended more than once for the Superority ) after the Institution and Celebration of the Holy Eucharist, just as He was going to Enter upon His Sacred Passion, and to take His final Leave of them, this Dispute role again, Which of them should be the Greatest, and that was the Time to Determine it if Ever; but He again Checked their Ambition and the Error of their Thoughts, as if the Church were to be Governed with Temporal Sway and Authority, like the Grandeur of Sucular Princes, but told them plainly, (b) Te shall not There haved wherein the Carlo

I am with you— A new Commandment I give unto you. That ye Love one another -- By this shall all Men know that ye are My Disciples, if you have Love one to another. This is the Unity of which Christ speaks in these His last Words to the Apofiles. He said, (a) My Kingdom is not of this World: If my Kingdom were of this World, then would my Servants Fight—But he that calls himself Servus Servorum, the Servant of His Servants, has Fought, and Raifed bloody Wars in Defence, as he fays, of this his Master's Kingdom! And he will have the Government of it just the fame as of other Kingdoms of the World, and its Unity to Confift, like theirs, in being under one Absolute and Despotick Head or King. Kingdom of the Earth will Content him, He will be Universal Monarch of the whole World. And why? Because Christ is the Head of all Churcher, and therefore must have an Universal Vicar. and from the same Parity of Reason, (b) God is the King of all the Earth; therefore He must have an Universal Vicar in Temporals. And if England, France, Spain, &c. should Contend which of them were this Universal Vicar, would not the Answer be Easy? That the Contest was foohish and vain, for though one Kingdom might be Greater, or more Ancient than another, yet was it still but a Part of the Whole, that is, of the World. And that God had Appointed no such Univerfal Vicar. The Case is exactly Parallel, unless it can be shewed, that Christ has Appointed luch fuch an Universal Vicar in the Church; and told us Plainly who it is, that we may obey Him. Which when done, we will own our selves Hereticks, Schismaticks, and what you will, till we Return and Pay our Obedience to Him.

But on the other Hand, if Christ has Appointed no such Universal Vicar, then are you under a Mortal Mistake concerning the Unity of the Church, which you Place wholly upon our being United in Obedience to such an One. And your Church is the Great Breaker of Ecclesiastical Unity, while she will bear no Sister Church, but will be the Mother of all Churches, though

The be not the Eldest.

This, My Lord, is the very Heart of the Cause. And we are are verily Persuaded, that ther is not the least Ground for this Universal Supremacy, either in the Holy Scriptures, or in Antiquity, or in the Reason of the Thing, or in Fast, since the first Foundation of Christianity to this Day, or that it was ever Acknowledged, or is Now, by the Majority of Christian Churches. And yet this is the Foundation of all the Disputes betwixt your Church and ours, and all other Christian Churches.

Christ foresaw the Consequences of trusting an Universal Supremacy in the Hands of Fallible Men. An Universal King must Ruin the World, for Appeals to Him must lye in all Causes from all the Parts of the Earth, and Men must attend with their Witnesses, and all other things Necessary to earry on a Law Suit. The Oppression of this (beyond all other Tyrannies) may Appear by the Appeals to Rome, in the Times of Popery, no further

I my self enjoy a small Office in this Church, wherein my Predecessors had a Suit for a Privilege belonging to it, hanging in the Court of Rome for some Hundreds of Years, till the very Time of the Dissolution of the Pope's Power. Hence we may Judge how it would be with the Churches in the Indies and the most Remote Places in the World, if it were All under his Power, as he Pretends! But the good Providence of God has not Suffered it to Extend to Half of the Christian Churches (as before is said) and His Wisdom and Goodness has still Preserved the Major Part true Protestants against this Usurpation; besides the great Number He had Rescued from it, and has never Suffered any of thele Reformed Churches or Nations to Return to it again, as before has been Observed: And besides that the Principle it self, and the Pretensions of the Pope to this Universal and Unlimited Supremacy are Beat down and Exploded by the Gallican Church, and others the most Learned who

And now, My Lord, I cannot but think it made Plain to a Demonstration, that this Univerfal Supremacy is a Thing Impracticable; and that if it could be in Fact, it would be the greatest Ruin and Oppression to the Church that is possible. And if an Universal King would be Insupportable to the World, how much more an Universal Bishop to the Church? For he must have an Absolute Dominion over our Faith, over the Holy Scriptures, and over the Church, which must suddenly Fall (as I before quoted Gregory the Great) if it comes to Depend upon One. And that whoever should Assume it, would be, as he Prophesied, a Lucifer, and the Fore-runner of Anti-chrift. And can he be less, if he has Usurped so vast an Authority, and Infallibility it felf to Support it?

I said before, that an Universal King would make all Wars to be Rebellion, and so Incurable but by Utter Destruction. Thus it is with the Universal Bishop: Opposing his Supremacy is Heresy, Schism, and Excommunication: And is the only Article in your Creed to be Believed Explicitly, as for the others Implicit will do for them all. That is, it is no Matter whether you Believe them for not, so the Soveraignity of the Universal

But though every King is not a Bishop, yet the Universal Bishop must likewise be Universal King, with Power to Depose all Kings at his Pleasure. Of this I have spoke at large.

Churches but those who do own it.

G. That is to fay, it must do one Way or other; if the Mountain will not come to Mahomet, Mahomet must go the Mountain. It is like the Bed Procrustes made to fit all Persons, by Stretching those to the Length of it who were Shorter, and Cutting off Part of those who were Longer than it. Thus the Church of Rome becomes Universal, by Stretching her Communion to those, who fland Ex-communicated by her, and Cutting off all Churches, who will not own her Supremacy. And thus the must be still Universal, though the had no more left than the Dioces's of Rome; or suppose none but the Pope himself, then He would be the Universal Church! And it may be Preserved in a Pope, if it may in one Laick, a Woman, or an Infant!

2. And then ther will be perfect Unity. And I am afraid not till then; for perfect Unity is not only in outward Communion, that is, being within the same Walls together: Or in Subscribing a Formula of Articles of Faith, half of which must be believed Implicitly: But an Unity likewise in Saving or Damning Principles and Pra-Elices, in Love and Charity, for which Chiefly we shall be (a) Judged at the Last Day. If these are Wanting, the Unity will be very Imperfect, and stand us in little Stead.

3. Ther ought to be also an Unity where to place your Infallibility (else it is None) of which I have given four Schemes, each one Contradictory to all the Rest, and not yet Determined by your Church. And this is an Unity in Faith among you. It is the Foundation upon which your and iftick can now know who are His Disciples: But instead of that, if you have Envyings and Strife among you, among your several Religious Orders, betwixt National and National Church, concerning the Infallibility and Supremacy of the Pope, and of his Power to Depose Princes, upon which the Peace and Unity of the World, and our eternal Salvation does depend; and in short, if you have no Unity concerning your Rule of Faith it self, or of your Practice, what will the Unity of Outward Communion do, upon which you lay the whole Stress? It will not so much as Denominate you Christians, far less to be the only Christians in the World, or the Catholick Church.

It is true that Unity in Communion is a Defireable Thing, and ought to be preserved among all Churches; but it is still a Part only of the Unity of the Church, as I have shewed. And that the Supremacy of the Pope has been the Chief Cause of the Breach of it. But yet it is not such a Breach as Destroys all other Parts of the Unity of the Church, their Unity in One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism. It may be called an Essential Part of the Perfect Unity of the Church, but, Alas! What is Perfect upon Earth? And it is not to Essential, as that the Want of it should quite Unchurch; so that if ther were not a Church upon Earth that did Communicate with another, yet they would not all Cease for that Cause only to be Christian Churches. As if all the Nations in the World were at War with each other, yet it would be the same World still, and God's One Kingdom upon Earth, and each Nation a Part of it.

L. But the Unity of the Church ought to be more than that of the Temporal World.

G. True. But we say, Magis & Minus non variant Speciem, that More or Less alter not the Kind, as a Greater or Less Quantity of Gold (for Example) alters not the Species of the Gold. So Unity is Unity, be it more or less. And ther is an Unity among all. Nations, even though at War, the Unity of Blood, and of Reason, being all made of one Blood, and all endowed with the same Reason; which makes them all Agree in some Common Principles, and all Appeal to Reason in the Justice of their Wars. But this Unity is not Perfect while they Bite and Devour one another.

And though the Unity is Greater, where Revelation is added to Reason, and Men Agree in the same Religion which we call the Church; yet this Unity is not Perfect, while ther are Disputes, Animosities, and Uarious Opinions about it. And in the Church of Rome her self ther are great Variety of Opinions among those of her Communion, and Animosities thereupon Raised, so Great as gives her much Trouble to Compose, and sometimes finds it past her Power, and is forced to Bear what the cannot Remedy.

L. What do you mean then by the Holy Ca-tholick Church in the Creed?

G. This Article was but late put into the Creed, on Occasion of Divisions which arose among the Churches, to mind them that they were all Members of the same Body, of the one Catholick Church. The next Article Explains this, and may be called a Part of it, viz. The Communion of Saints, and and these are only the Elect, who are not visible upon Earth; and therefore must be Referred to Heaven, where only is the true Communion of Saints, without Mixture of the Reprobate, who are not Members of Christ, and but in Appearance of the Church. We have no Unity of the Spirit with these, and Consequently are not one Body with them: (a) For what Fellowship hath Righteousness with Unrighteousness? And what Communion hath Light with Darkness? And what Concord hath Christ with Belial? And what Unity hath that Church where these are mixed together? Therefore the Archetypal and truly Catholick Church in Heaven, is That which is Chiefly and Principally meant by the Holy Catholick Church; and the Communion of Saints in the Creed. And There only is perfect Unity.

There is the Great Body of the Church, there are but few at a Time upon Earth, and of theme we know not which belong to that truly Catholick Church or not. And who do not, cannot be truly Catholicks, though they bear that Name with us. And of them so Called, you your selves will not say, that there is Persect Unity among them, in all the Nevessary and most Essential Parts of it before Mentioned.

But if that Article in the Creed had been meant in your Sense, it must have been the Holy Roman Catholick Church, and not left us to seek where to find this Church, the Infallible Guide. And you your selves have not found it, while you N 2 are in quite Contrary Opinions where to find it. But by leaving it in the General and Indefinitely under the Name of the Catholick Church only, it is rather Exclusive of any Particular Church, and Extends to all Christian Churches, which make up the Catholick Church upon Earth, in fuch an Unity, as our Fallen State will bear, where Human Passions are not Subdued, but mix themselves in our Religious as well as Temporal Concerns. Therefore by the Unity of the Church you cannot mean a Perfect Unity; no not even with your Head, and in Doctrines which are Indispenfible towards your Eternal Salvation, as in the Deposing Doctrine, upon which the Apostle has Pronounced Damnation; and which, if not True, Cardinal Perron, as before Quoted, gives up the Church of Rome, for many Ages past, for the very Synagogue of Antichrist. See also the Morals of the Fesuits, which though Condemned by some, are Defended by others. This is not Perfect Unity, even in Necessaries; and the Bulla in Cana breaks it to Pieces, where whole Churches and Nations are Excommunicated of those you say are in the Unity of the Church, and in his Communion who has Excommunicated them!

But if we will be Content with no Unity in the Church but what is Perfect in all Things, the Consequence must be, that we have no Unity at all. As our Pretence to Infallibility is the greatest Instance of our Fallibility. And if we will have no Guide, but who is Infallible, we must have None upon Earth. And so the Church is rendred wholly useless to us, if we may not take their Help, as Instructors and Rational Guiden or in the Apostle's Words, as (a) Helpers of our Foy, without giving them the Dominion over our Faith.

And indeed the Security you Demand of an outward Infallible Guide, is Altering the Course of Nature, or as I called it, finding Fault with the Creation; for God has made us Rational Creatures, and given us no other Guide but our own Reason, with the Assistance of His Grace to come at the Knowledge of Himself, and Consequently of all other Things. And to find Fault with this, is the Clay saying to the Potter, Why hast thou made me thus? To bid us Divest our felves wholly of our Reason, or to Believe Implicitly, which is the same Thing; and is not in our Power, whatever we may think, because Reason is our Nature; and that we should not believe our Outward Senses, is indeed to make us other Creatures than God has Made us. And to refuse the Assistance of a Church, because she is not Infallible, is Depriving our selves of a Means which God has Appointed; and is the same Perversness, as if we should Refuse to Confult a Lawyer or Physician, because it is Possible they may Err in their Judgment. But though I allow their Skill to be better than mine, in their leveral Professions, yet we still keep to our selves o much Use of our Reason, that if I knew it was Poison the Physician were going to give me, I e mult would not take it: And ther are some Things o plain, that no Lawyer could Persuade me to. urch is Much

Much more ought we to be careful in our Eternal Concerns, and not to give our felves up Implicitly to any whatloever; that if they should Direct us against the most Express Commands in Scripture, or the Dictates of Reason and Common Morality, or bid us Deny all our Senses, we must Acquiesce without Examining ! This is Abandoning both Sense and Reason, which God gave us as a Guide, and therefore will Require it of us; and this only is that, which will Render us Selfcondemned, and bear Witness against us at the Last Day: For as I said, it is not in our Power to Extinguish Reason in us, tho' we may Blindfold it, and keep it down for a Time, yet it will Recoil upon us, and Convict us, wherein we have Departed from it. Without this there could be no fuch Thing as a Sting of Conscience, for what is that but a Check of our Reason? What else is Repentance, or Returning from any Error, or from any Evil we have done? You endeavour to Convert Men to your Church wholly upon their Reason, for you can have no other Topick whereby to lay hold of an Adverfary: In vain therefore would you perfuade him to Trust to that Choice of his Reason in coming over to you, but never to Trust to any other Choice his Reason should make afterwards, because it is very Fallible: I say, this could not go down with any Man, but it must make him Doubt whether his Reason has Led him Right in the first Choice too of going to your Church, and from the same Argument, because his Rea-Jon is very Fallible. God fays to us, (a) Come now

now and let us Reason together. We ask no more of you. Nay, you cannot Refule it us, whether you will or not; for your own Reason will, as I faid, one Time or other, Return upon you, and Convince you of Obstinacy in not Hearkning to Reason; for without this you cannot be said to have acted according to Reason. This renders me Inexcufable, whether I be Right or Wrong; for if my Reason Misseads me after due Examination, the Error is Human, and will be more eafily Pardoned, but if I will not Hear, it I will not open mine Eyes, it makes me Guilty, though I were in the Right, because that is by Chance, and not my Choice upon Reasonable Conviction, which I have Refused. And Truth is never Afraid; for the more it is Canvassed it Appears the Brighter. It is strange to see those, who Pretend to fuch an Assurance as is Infallible, and yet seek to Avoid the Light of Reason, as if Afraid of being Detected! And to Confess it in the very Body of their (a) Canon Law, where they Excommunicate any Laick, who shall Publickly or Privately Dispute concerning the Catholick Faith.

This Method will fecure to them all that they have Caught. But if observed by others, as well as by themselves, they would never Catch ano-And it is a plain Indication, that who

For if Reason could be heard, it would make it very Obvious to you, That in all the particular Points before mentioned, the Certainty is on our Side, and the Doubt, (at least) on yours: For Example, None make a Doubt, but that we may lawfully Pray to God, and not before any Image of Him: Or without the Worship or Invocation of any Saint joined with Him; and so of all the Rest. But on your Part, if what I have faid make them not appear Unlawful to your Lordship, yet they must remain, at least, Doubtful, till some Stronger Evidence be produced for them, than has hitherto been given. There is not a Prayer in the Publick Offices of our Church, to which you may not heartily fay, Amen, in full Faith and Affurance: Which is Impossible to say as to Purgatory, Invocation of Saints, &c. And then such Prayers must be Sinful. Rom, xiv 23.

But you are Pinned down in all these particular Points by the Authority of a supposed Universal Bishop, wherein likewise you place the Unity of the Church. And yet ther hever was fuch a Bishop or Universal Monarch, unless any Prince calling himself so, would make him such. What is an Universal Monarch, who was never owned by Half of those he calls his Subjects? And whose Authority is Limited and Restrained, and his Excommunications Despised, by these who Pretend to own him, and to be Subject to him? What is it to Fancy ones self King of all the Earth? And to place the Unity of the World in such a Monarch as never was in the World? And to call those Rebels from him, who never were in Subjection nake jection to him? This, my Lord, I have shewed to be the Cale of the Greatest Part of the Christian Churches, and from the Beginning. And consequently this Universal Supremacy is meerly Imaginary. It was never Named by Christ, nor ever was in Fact. And so far is it from being the Center of Unity, that the Pretence to it has been the Great Breach of Unity among Christian Churches, and is at this Day: For this is it which stops the Bishops in the Communion of Rome from Exercifing the Freedom of their own Judgments, and that Authority which Christ has given them over their own Flocks, and will require an Account of it from them; and which was freely Exercised by the Bishops in the Primitive Church; and which, if Restored, would open the Way to that Catholick Communion so greatly Desired, and wherein the true Unity of the Church does Consist. Which never can be Hoped, while a Negative is given to the Pope in all the particular Points disputed, and especially concerning his own Supremacy. But if the Bishops of his Communion would think themselves at Liberty and under Obligation to Act of themselves, as in the Primitive Church; and as ordained by Christ; the Points we have Discoursed as to Do-Etrine and Worship seem to me so very Plain, that ther could be no Dispute which were the Safer Side to take: At least, that it would not be thought a Sin so to Purge their Publick Offices, as that other Christians might lawfully join in them: And let Opinions remain as Opinions, not be made Articles of Faith, and Conditions of Communion. of the Bishops of France, at least, but the Fear of that Excommunication from the Pope, which is Renewed against them every Year, and which they Pretend not to Regard. But they are kept under by the Shadow of that Phantom of an Universal Supremacy, which never was in Being; and if it were, would be Insupportable and Ruin the Church; and which they themselves have in Effect already Rejected, as Inconsistent with the Liberties of the Gallican or any other National Church; and has bred all the Disputes betwixt them and the Church of Rome. And can never be Healed in good Earnest, if the Pope be Judge of the Controversy. See then the Cause of the Breach of Catholick Unity.

And now, my Lord, forgive me; for I am sensible that ther is an Uneasiness at first, and a Prejudice to hear any Thing Contrary to those Principles, in which one has been Educated from his Infancy, and thinks most certain: But this must be overcome so far as to hear Reason, which will Confirm us the more, if we be in the Truth, or otherwise Convince us of our Error, at least make it so far Excusable, that we have not Refused the Reasonable Means of Information: Without this, No Man could have been a Chriftian at first, nor has been since, but by Accident, according to the Place where he was Born, or received his Education. Have I not taken an Horse for a Man at a Distance? And does not a Stick look Crooked in the Water? Why then should I trust my Eyes any more? This is all the Reason ever I could hear for not trusting to our Reason! And what is the Remedy proposed? If it were to give us Rules whereby to Judge of true Reason, to Help it, and to Trim this Lamp which God hath Lighted for us, this would be Rational, like Clearing our Eyes if they were Dim: But the Remedy you propose, is, to Shut Reason quite out, to make no more Use of it, to Silence, to Extinguish it; and take Implicit Faith

PROCEEDINGS

Parliament

POPES BULL,

Concerning the Franchises in the City of Rome, and the following Ordinance of the 26th of December 1687.

Translated into English, by Order of his Excellency Monsieur Barillon, his Most Christian Majest y's Ambassadour Extraordinary to the King of Great Britain.

LONDON:
Printed in the Year MDCCXXII.

An Extract out of the Registers of the Parliament of Paris.

being assembled, the King's Council appearing, Mr. Denys Talon, His Majesties Advocate-General, made this following Speech. That among the rest of the Court of Rome's Attempts upon several Occasions, in Prejudice of the Liberties of the Church of France, and of the Rights and Preheminencies of the Crown; there has been nothing observed in the History of late Ages, parallel to what was done in the Month of December, last, and which is nothing more but what the Pope has been contriving many Years, in declaring himself an Enemy of France, &c.—

In the Assembly held upon Occasion of the Assairs of the Regalia, the Bishops being inform'd that the Italian Doctors, and the Emissaries of the Court of Rome, omitted not any means to spread about the Kingdom, the new Opinions of the Pope's Infallibility, and the indirect Power which Rome strives to usurp over the Temporality of Kings; that Assembly, We say, did not pretend to frame a Decision of a doubtful Controversie, but give a publick and Authentick Testimony of a certain Truth, taught by all the Fathers of the Church, and determined by all the Councils, and especially by those of Constance and Basil. And it is well known, that the Cardinal of Lorain assisting at the Council of Tient, publickly declared that the Faculty of Divinity at Paris, the Universities of the Kingdom, and in a Word, all France, was persuaded, that the Pope, far from being Infallible, ought to submit to the Decisions of Councils; and it does not appear that this Assertion, made him incur any Reproach from the Court of Rome.

Yet has the World with Amazement seen, that the Pope lookt upon this Declaration as an injury done to his Authority; insomuch, that the King having nominated to the Episcopacy, some of those, that assisted at that Assembly; and who are as well recommendable for their Piety and Virtue, as for their Knowledge and Learning; Bulls were refused them, on pretence that they do not make profession of a sound Doctrine.

If this foundation is folid, we are like to have no more Bishops for the future: Since all the Ecclesiasticks of the Kingdom, and particularly those, that in the Universities take the necessary Degrees to attain to Prelacies, with an invincible steadiness maintain the Propositions, which the Pope complains of.

Tho' this Refusal has not the least glimmering of Reason, yet does it nevertheless, raise a very great Scandal, and produce Disorders beyond expression. And indeed, the Pope's Obstinacy is the Cause, that thirty five Cathedral Churches remain destitute of Pastors, and this in a time, when a vast number of newly Converted Persons stand in need of Instruction, for their being fortised and confirmed in the Orthodox Belief, and when the Presence of the Bishops is very neces-

Who could ever imagine, that the Pope, who is proposed to us as an Image of Holiness and Virtue, should remain so wedded to his Opinions, and so jealous of the shadow of an Imaginary Authority, that he should leave the third part of the Churches of France Vacant, because We will not own him to be Infallible?

Those that inspire these thoughts into the Pope, can they fancy they shall make us change our Opinions? And are they so blind, as not to know, that those Unhappy times are past, when a gross ignorance joined to a Faintness in the Government, and false Preposlessions, rendred the Pope's Decrees so very dreadful, however unjust they might be; and that those Disputes and Quarrels, far from augmenting their Power, do only serve to cause enquiry to be made into the Origin of their Usurpations, and lessen the Veneration of the People rather than encrease it? &c.—

And to give some colour to so scandalous an Innovation, he refers to that samous Bull, still in Cana Domini, because it is read at Rome every Thursday of the Holy Week. True it is, that it this Decree, whereby the Popes Declare themselves Sovereign Monarchs of the World, be legitimate; the Majesty Royal will then depend on their humour, all our Liberties will be abolish'd, the Secular Judges will no longer have the Power to try the Possession of Benefices, nor the Civil and Criminal Causes of Ecclesiasti-

Thus, however unjust and abusive this new Decree may be, it is much less dangerous by the frivolous Menaces it contains, than by its being built upon a Title altogether void and vicious; and that in this Conjuncture, it looks, as if Rome would at present follow the steps of Julius the 2d, renew his Animosity and Rage against France, without making reflection how odious his Memory is in the Christian Common-wealth.

When Pope Gregory the 4th, meaning to render himself Arbitrator of the Dispute that arose between Lewis the Debonnair and his Children, threatned the Bishops of France to Excommunicate them, if they did not close with his Designs: Those Prelates being surprized at a Procedure so contrary to the Canons, courageously answer'd, That they would not Obey the Pope's Will; and that if he came with a design to Excommunicate them, he should himself return Excommunicated: Si Excommunicaturus veniret, Excommunicatus abiret; as if they meant to fay, That he, who without lawful Cause, and through human Motives, undertakes to suspend one of the Members of Jesus Christ from the Communion of the Church, does separate himself from it by such an unjust attempt.

Let us further urge, that the ill use, which the Popes have on so many Occasions made of the Authority, with which they are intrusted in giving it no other Bounds than those of their own will, has been the source of almost all the incurable Mischiefs, with which the Church is afflicted, and the most specious Pretences of the Hereticks and Schismaticks that the last Age produc'd, so as the Divines assembled by Pope Paul the Third's Order, did sincerely own; and besides at present, the bare Idea of the Infallibility, and indirect Power, which the Complaisance of the Italian Doctors does attribute to the See of Rome, upon the Temporality of Princes, is one of the greatest Obstacles that oppose the Conversion, not only of individual Persons, but of whole Provinces; and People's minds cannot be too throughly convinc'd that these new Opinions do not make Part of the Doctrine of the Universal Church, &c.

If he had been an Envoy from the Emperour of the Turks, from the King of Persia, or some other Insidel Prince, he would not have been so rigorously us'd. Is it that the Pope means to have no more Commerce with France? Is he persuaded that his Power reaches no farther than the Diocese of Rome, and his Patriarchship than the Neighbouring Provinces, stiled Suburbicarial Does he intend to renounce the Quality of Head of the Church, and Common Father of the Faithful? &c.

And on this occasion the Thunders of the Vatican have nothing formidable; they are Transitory Fires, that Exhale into Smoak, and which do neither hurt nor prejudice, save to those who darted them.

And tho' this Bull be neither publish'd nor executed in the Kingdom, it is not the less abusive. We do not doubt, but that a more moderate Pope, reflecting upon the disorders which such mor had Fair Pop wha vok face who reig chic 1 Col Bul que onl fon. me ctic in an Innovation is capable of producing, would imitate the Example of Clement the Fifth, who, by a folemn Decree, did for ever abolish the memory of what his Predecessor Boniface the Eight had unjustly undertaken against King Philip the Fair; And this Retraction, which proves that the Popes are not Infallible, (fince the one destroys what the other had built) among others, revokes the Bull, Unam Sanctam; wherein Bomface, whose proud Conduct was blamed by the whole Church, declares that the Sword of Sovereigns is subjected to the Pope's Spiritual Faulchion, Oc.

If then we put in an Appeal to the future Council against the Censures contain'd in the Bull, and against the Interdict, that is a Consequence and accessory of it; it is, because that not only the Decisions of Popes, but their very Perfon, when they fail in their Duty in the Government of the Church, is to fubmit to the Correction and Reformation of the General Council, in what regards as well Faith as Discipline. indisputable Truth, whence We shall never depart, whatever endeavours the Partizans of the Court of Rome may use.

The Pope's denying to grant Bulls to all the Bilhops nominated by the King, occasions a Dilorder that daily augments, and which requires a speedy and efficacious Remedy. The Councils of Constance and Basil having endeavoured to contrive some moderation to the Court of Rome's Usurpations, and to the Confusion that was introduced in the distribution of Benefices, the pragmatick Sanction was afterwards compos'd of the the Decrees of those Councils. But the Popes thereby perceiving their Authority to diminish, made use of all Sorts of Artifices to abolish it; and by the Concordat made between King Francis the 1st, and by Pope Leo the 10th, they regulated the manner of disposing of Bishopricks and Abbies: To the Pope was granted not only the devolution, but also the prevention and the Power of admitting the Resignations in savour, and many other Articles that are very burdensome to the ordinary Collaters, and absolutely contrary to the Ancient Canons.

And indeed our Fore Fathers did for a long while complain against the Concordate. The Ordinance of Orleans did re-establish the Elections; and it would be very advantageous that all Ecclesiastical Matters were transacted in the Kingdom, without ever being obliged to have recourse to Rome. In the sequel nevertheless the Concordate was sincerely executed on our Part; and it is inconceivable that the Pope should now, through an invincible Obstinacy, reduce us to deprive him of the profit, which the Court of Rome derives from a Treaty, which is so much to its advantage.

The King is most Religious, in nominating to the Prelacies Ecclesiasticks of an exemplary Integrity, and of conspicuous merit; and because that these Ecclesiasticks do not believe, that the Pope is INFALLIBLE; that they do not, like the Italian Doctors, attribute to him the Title of Universal Monarch; that they are persuaded He has no Power, either direct or indirect, over the Temporality of Kings, and that he is to all intents inferior to the Councils that have a right to correct him, and to reform His Decisions; the Pope upon this imaginary pretence, refuses them BULLS, and leaves the third part of the Churches of the Kingdom destitute of Pastors. Is this imitating the Care and Lenity of the Apostles in the Government of the Church?

After all, before the Concordate, those that were Elected by the Clergy and the People, and afterwards by the Chapters, in presence of one of the King's Commissioners: Were they not Ordained by the Metropolitan, affifted by the Bishops of the Province, after that the King had approved of their Election? The Right acquired to the King by the Concordate, being authorized in this respect by the Tacit consent of the whole Gallican Church, and confirmed by a possession of near two Centuries, ought so much the less to receive any Change and Invafion, that during the first four Ages of the Monarchy, they went not to Rome to demand Institution and Induction of Benefices: The Bishops Dispos'd of all those that were vacant in their Dioceses; and our Kings did almost ever nominate to the Bishopricks; and as they sometimes granted the Clergy and the People the Liberty of Electing a Pastor; they often reserv'd the choice of him to themselves; he, they had chosen, was immediately Confecrated, without the Popes intermeddling in the Matter. Who hinders us from tollowing these Examples, grounded upon this excellent Reason; That the Right, which allthe Faithful had in the beginning of appointing themselves a Head, being no longer to be exercited exercised in common, ought to pass into the Power of the Sovereign, on whom the Subjects rely for the Government of the State, of which the Church is the noblest part.

. But as to the Pope, fince he refuses to join the Concourse of His Authority to the King's No. mination: We may prefume, that he means to discharge himself of the painful burden, which overwhelms Him, and that His Infirmities not permitting Him to extend His Pastoral Diligence, over all the parts of the Universal Church; the Devolution, that is made in case of Negligence, fometimes even from the Superior to the Inferior, may Authorize the Bishops to lay their Hands on those, that shall be Nominated by the King to the Prelacies: His Nomination having as much, or more Effect, than the Election of the People and the Clergy, which ought, without Difficulty, to be confirmed by the Immediate Superiour; when an unworthy Person was not cholen. The manufal industrial of sware

And if the like Resolution requires the being accompanied with some temperament; If it requires the Bishop's Concurrence: The King may be besought to convene the Provincial Councils, or if need be, a National Council; therein to take Resolutions suitable to the Occasions of the Gallican Church.

And as the Evil leems urgent, and that there would be possibly some danger in venturing upon the delays, that are inseparable to the holding of a National Council, His Majesty may assemble such as he pleases of the principal Officers, of the Bishops, and considerable Persons of all the

But it is not just, that while that the Pope refuses to execute the Concordate in one of its principle Articles, he does, nevertheless, enjoy the Advantages, that are granted him by that Treaty, which contains Conventions reciprocally obligatory; that People continue to go to Rome, and thither carry Money, for the obtaining either the Institution of Benefices or Difpensations, that may be easily expediated in the Kingdom.

Now if we propose to break off this Traffick, it is only because it ceases to be reciprocal; and because that the Pope by his Obstinacy, interposing an invincible impediment to the Expedition of the Bulls of a great number of Bishopricks; it would be a shame to suffer, that the Gallican Church should remain burden'd with the Yoke of Prevention of Resignations in favour, and of all the other Servitudes whereunto France was content to submit by the Concordate.

And herein We do but faintly repel the Injury that is done Us: We oppose the Buckler of our Liberties against a new and Un-exampled Enterprize. Calamity and Anathema, to those, that out of Interest or Caprice, disturb the Correspondence that ought to be between the Priesthood and the Royalty, who seem to have no other Aim than to raise a Schism in the Church, and by fatal Divisions disturb the Peace, which all Europe enjoys, and which was procured to it by the Valour and Wisdom of our Invincible Monarch.

But

All these Reasons, and a World of others, which we omit, oblige us to require, that it would please the Court to admit Us as appealing against the Abuse of the Bull, dated in the Month of May last, and of the Ordinance given in Pursuance thereof: And upon our Appeal, to declare the faid Bull and Ordinance void and abusive; making Prohibition to all Persons, of vending them in the Kingdom, on pain of being proceeded against according to the severity of the Law; enjoining all those that have Copies of them, to bring them to the Register of the Court, in order to their being suppressed: As likewise, to order that the Act of Appeal, made by the Attorney General to the future Council, be registred in the Register of the Court. Act of the Appeal put in by the Attorney General to the Council, upon the Subject of the Pope's Bull, concerning the Franchises in the City of Rome, and of the following Ordonance on the 26th of December last.

The Efore the underwritten Apostolical Notary was present in his own Person, Messive Achilles de Harlay, Councellor of the King in his Council of State, and his Majesties Attorney General, who in the Presence, and by the Advice and Council of Messire Denis Talon and of Messire François Criteau de la Moignon also, Counfellors of the King in his Council of State, and his Advocate General in his Court of Parliament, has declared, that having some time since feen Copies of a Bull given on the 12th of May last past, by our Holy Father Pope Innocent the XIth, concerning the Franchifes which certain Persons are in Possession of enjoying in the City of Rome, he could not have imagined, that his Holiness could have conceived the Design of comprehending the Ambassadors, which the King was willing to fend to him, in the general Menaces of Excommunication, which he judg'd convenient to infert therein, contrary to the Ule observed by other Popes in the Bulls made by them; he had hoped that if the Remembrance of the Sovereign Power, which the Kings, his Majesty's Predecessors exercised in Rome, of their Liberalities

Liberalities to the Holy See, and of the Protection they gave to several Popes, could not induce this Pope to cause to be rendred to the King in the Persons of his Ministers, Honours and Testimonies of Acknowledgment proportionable to his Bounties, at least his Holiness as visible Head of the Church, would not be insen. fible to the Prodigies, which the King had performed before his Eyes for the re-uniting in the Bosom of this good Mother so vast a Number of Children that were gone aftray from her, that he would be affected with the Piety of this Prince, and the powerful Protection he continually gives to Prelates, tho' he was not with his Victories and Power; and that he would not enter into dispute with him about Rights, that had not fuffered any Invasion, even for several Years under his Popedom.

But being informed, that his Holiness had given Orders to the Cardinal, that is his Vicar in Rome, to declare the Church of St. Lewis of the faid City, and the Ecclefiasticks that officiate in it, interdicted for having admitted to the participation of the holy Mysteries and Sacraments, on the Night, wherein is celebrated the Solemnity of our Lord's Nativity, Monsieur le Marquis de Lavardin, the King's Ambassador extraordinary to his Holinels, and that it was supposed by the Ordinance delivered upon this Subject, that he was notoriously Excommunicated for pretended Contraventions to this Bull, the faid Attorney General did not think, that he could without being wanting to his Duty, remain any longer in the Silence he had hitherto kept.

Now if the Matter which has given an occasion to fo great an Excels, did concern the Ecclefiaflical Jurisdiction which belongs to the Pope, he would easily shew the Errors that have been committed by proceeding against a Person that has not been particularly specified in that Bull, to whom the State of Matters has not been fignified fince his being at Rome, who might be ignorant of them in France, where it was not publish'd, that the Pope could not condemn him as an Ambassador, tho' his Character ought to secure him from those Thunders, in regard of his Functions, yet His Holiness would not so much as hear or own him in that Quality, whatever Addresses he has caused to be made for that Purpole, and that in fine, the very Rules of the Canon Law require that Persons of so eminent a Dignity, as is that of his, should be pointed out by Name in Bulls of that Nature, before they can incur the Penalties they utter.

But that the Pope in a Matter purely Temporal, as are these Franchises of the King's Ambassadors, having made use of the Spiritual Arms, which he is only intrusted withal for the Conduct and Edification of the Church, and having constituted himself Judge in his own Cause, the Excommunication which his Holiness's Cardinal Vicar declares to have been incurred, is so null, that there is no Occasion for any Proceedings to annihilate it, and those that are therein comprehended, ought not to receive Absolution, though it were even offered them at their own Homes.

And indeed the faid King's Attorney General does with all the French expect from his Majesty's R fingle fingle Power, the Reparation which these Proceedings challenge, and the Confervation of thole Franchifes which only depend on the Judgment of God, as all the Rights of this Crown, and which can admit of no Diminution but fuch as the King's Moderation and Justice may give them.

But as not any thing can contribute more to lessen in the Minds of Shallow Persons and Libertins the Veneration which People ought to have for the Power of the Church, than the ill use which its Ministers may make of it; the King's faid Attorney General declares, that he is Appealing, as indeed he Appeals by the prefent Act from the abusive use that is made of it in the said Bull and Ordonance, not to our holy Father Pope Innocent the IIth, better informed, so as has been practifed in respect of some of his Predecessors; when that they had true Ideas of their Power, that their Years allowed them to act of themselves there might be hopes, that in time they might be brought to know the Justice and Truth of the Complaints that were brought before them; and that neither the Preventions, in favour of their Country, nor the Partialities of those they honoured with their Truft, did not prevail over the Obligations which the Quality of Common Father of all Christians does impose.

Protesting to carry on this his said Appeal upon this Grievance, and upon the others, which he reserves to represent to the first General Council that shall be held, as the Tribunal truly Sovereign and Infallible of the Church, to which its visible Head must submit, as well as its other Members; and therein to further among other finele things a Regulation that shall prevent the Employing to Holy an Authority in Uses to far from those for which it was confided in the Church in the Person of St. Peter; this may make the Pope be mindful, that God having separated the two Powers of the Priesthood, and of Empire, his Holiness cannot make use of the Authority of the first for the Rights that depend on the lecond; that according to the Temporal Laws he ought to possels those large Territories which his Predeceffors have received from the Liberality of Temporal Princes, and particularly from that of our Kings; and that in short, he would confider upon a Truth, which a great Archbishop in France wrote to one of his Predeceffors; that a Prelate that excommunicates a Christian contrary to the Rules and Rights of a Kingdom of the Earth, may, on fuch an Occasion, well dose the Power of binding and unbinding, which his Character gives him; but that he cannot deprive of eternal Life him, to whom he does this Injustice, it his Sins do not render him unworthy of the Mercy of God. Of which the faid Attorney General has required of Us an Act. Done in the Court, in the Presence of the King's Council, on the 22d Day of January, in the Year 1688.
